POLITICIANS ARE ACTIVE

Last Day for Registration Brings Out a Large Number of Voters.

FOURTEEN HUNDRED ADDED TO THE LIST

Democratic Central Committee Makes an Effort to Placate the Friends of O'Neil, Candidate for Sheriff.

The politicians were working overtime yesterday and there was more politics to the square inch on the streets than there had been since the opening of the campaign. The candidates and party leaders seem to realize that there was no time to be lost with the election only three days off and every one was busy. On most of the street corners were to be seen groups of men discussing the situation and wherever a candidate happened to be, whether republican or democratic, he had his crowd with him.
 Another cause for the activity yesterday was the fact that it was the last day for registration and both parties were doing their utmost to get every voter registered. As a result of this work the registration was heavy and at least 1,000 names were added to the lists, making about 1,400 names registered during the three days of registration.
 Reports from nine of the twelve precincts of the city show the following registration:

First ward:	Saturday.	Total
First precinct	206	124
Second precinct	83	131
Third ward:
First precinct	109	103
Second precinct	67	81
Fourth ward:
First precinct	66	66
Second precinct	142	205
Third precinct	59	78

Placating O'Neil.
 In order to counteract the suspicion that the democratic central committee was trading O'Neil for Brooks Reed, Chairman Miller has issued a circular in which he gives O'Neil an issued by saying the following: "The courthouse would seem more like home to us if we had 'Himmie' O'Neil in the sheriff's office. Brooks Reed as treasurer, the bright and energetic Warren L. Rankin as county superintendent, flanked by Sylvester Dye and J. P. Maxfield, two of the solidest men in the county, on the Board of Supervisors." It will be noticed that evidently to appease the wrath of O'Neil's followers the candidate for sheriff is given the place of honor in the list of those whom Chairman Miller thinks would make the courthouse "homelike" if elected.
 Brooks Reed, the democratic candidate for county treasurer, followed up his appeal to the members of the Eagles lodge to support him, by issuing yesterday a circular letter to the members of the Elks lodge, which reads as follows:
 "Dear Sir: We both being members of 531, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, I hope you can see your way to give me a vote Tuesday, November 3. I am a candidate for the office of county treasurer."
 This is the first time in local politics that a candidate for any office has made direct use of his membership in fraternal organizations to boost his candidacy.

LOCATION OF VOTING BOOTHS

City Clerk Experiences Some Difficulty in Securing Suitable Places.

City Clerk Phillips completed yesterday the list of voting places for the election next Tuesday. Owing to the scarcity of vacant stores and other suitable buildings, Mr. Phillips experienced more or less difficulty this year in securing places for the booths. The voting places for the several precincts in the city are as follows:
 First Ward—First precinct, Wheeler & Herald building, corner of Broadway and Benton streets; second precinct, No. 207 East Broadway.
 Second Ward—First precinct, No. 22 Broadway street; second precinct, No. 72 Broadway street.
 Third Ward—First precinct, No. 101 South Main street; second precinct, No. 723 South Main street.
 Fourth Ward—First precinct, Farmers' hall, court house; second precinct, No. 612 Twelfth avenue.
 Fifth Ward—First precinct, corner Fifth avenue and Twelfth street; second precinct, county building, No. 141 South Thirtieth street.
 Sixth Ward—First precinct, county building, corner Avenue B and Twenty-fourth street; second precinct, Magnusen building, corner of Fifth and Locust streets.

Will Entertain Stickers.

The executive committee of the Commercial club, at a special meeting yesterday afternoon, made arrangements to entertain President Stickney of the Great Western railroad and the party of Minnesota elevator and grain men on their visit to Council Bluffs Monday morning.
 The party is scheduled to arrive here about 6:30 in the morning and will be entertained at breakfast at 8 o'clock at the Grand hotel by the directors of the Commercial club and a number of the leading business and professional men of the city. While the breakfast will be a purely informal affair short addresses will be made by Congressman Walter I. Smith, State Senator C. G. Saunders and Hon. Emmet Tinley. Following the breakfast carriage will be provided and the visitors taken for a ride to Fairmount park and other points of interest in the city.

Shelby County Doctors Organize.

HARLAN, Ia., Oct. 31.—(Special).—The doctors of Shelby county met on Friday at Harlan and organized the Shelby County Medical society. Dr. N. Jasper Jones of Shelby was chosen president, Dr. Smith of Harlan vice president, and Dr. Hennessey of Panama, secretary. About twelve of the physicians and surgeons of the county were present, including one woman.

Is Reed Unfair?

If it's an offense for a candidate to solicit votes by letter I want to repeat the offense publicly and reiterate my invitation to all Eagles, Elks, friends or foes, to give me a vote; in fact, anybody that thinks I have ability and honesty enough to fill the office of county treasurer. W. B. REED.

Large Attendance at Epworth League.

BOONE, Ia., Oct. 31.—(Special).—By far the largest attendance in the history of the Epworth league is noted at the state convention in this city. Over 200 regular delegates answered the roll call yesterday and several hundred other enthusiasts are taking in the sessions. The election yesterday resulted:
 President, George F. Whitfield of Ruthven, Ia.; vice presidents, W. C. Tackberry of Sioux City, Ia.; Rev. Charles M. Page, Lone Tree, Ia.; C. E. Jones, Indianola, Ia.; L. E. Hill, Tama, Ia.; secretary, Rev. E. T. Gruell, Hampton, Ia.; treasurer, William J. Tutt, Des Moines, Ia.; superintendent Junior league, Mrs. S. P. McKim, Traer, Ia.

Prohibits Support a Democrat.

CEDAR FALLS, Ia., Oct. 31.—(Special Telegram).—A new turn was taken in Black Hawk county politics today, when, for the first time in the state, the Iowa Anti-Slavery league sent out circulars from Des Moines urging Christian voters to support the democratic candidate for sheriff. The move is characterized as a bargain between the prohibitionists and democrats through the agency of the league.

Receiver for Bargain Store.

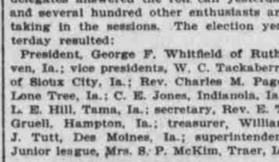

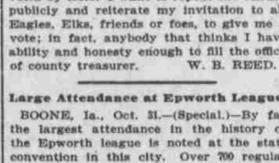

The Novelty Bargain store on South Main street, conducted by Meyer Pearlman and Frank H. Burk, was closed yesterday and placed in the hands of a receiver under involuntary bankruptcy proceedings brought in the United States court here by the Hansell-Stevens Shoe company of Chicago and other creditors. E. E. Adams was placed in charge of the store as receiver, after furnishing a bond in the sum of $5,000. It is estimated that the liabilities will amount to close upon $10,000.
 The proceedings were brought about, it is alleged, by the discovery that the manager, who has had the active management of the business, was shipping out the stock. Goods alleged to be a part of the stock, now in the freight depot of the Illinois Central in this city, were attached yesterday and are being held to the order of the receiver.
 Meyer Pearlman, who then conducted the Novelty Clook store, was forced into bankruptcy in December, 1901, by his creditors.

Judge Green Unable to Preside.

Judge Green left his home at Audubon yesterday for Chicago, where he is expected to remain in operation for the allotment which has prevented him holding court for the last two months. He notified Clerk Reed of the district court yesterday that he would be unable to be here next Wednesday to open the November term of court, but that he has been able to make arrangements with Judge J. H. Preston of Cedar Rapids to preside in his place.
 Judge Wheeler will hold court Monday in order that aliens seeking registration papers may be able to obtain them.

"Quick Meal" Steel Ranges
 They are a first class range at popular prices. They can be used equally well with hard coal, soft coal or wood. They are made to work and to last. They are strong and solid, but not clumsy. They are fully nickel-plated and ornamented, but not overloaded. They present a graceful appearance and their steel base gives them a decided finish, which is entirely wanting in all others.
 The steel used is the very best—smooth and leveled, heavy covers, centers and linings. The "Quick Meal" is built to look well, cook well, bake well and to last well. Examine it before you buy.
