NEW YORK TEACHERS MERGE

Now Have a Central Organization Combining the Strength of Several Old Ones.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—Practically all the teachers of the public schools of Greater New York have been brought together in a powerful organization, comparing in a favorable light numerically with any trades union in the city. The organization will be known as the Interborough Council of Teachers.

Overtures recently received from the Central Federated union to have the teachers form a regular trades union, with the result that they would be affiliated with union workmen throughout the United States, was rejected; but the Interborough council possesses all the attributes of a trades unions, although the teachers insist that there is a wide difference in their organization. Nearly 12,600 employes of the Board of Education are members of the council, which will be the governing body for all the old associations. The latter are, therefore, practically amalgamated after many years of independent endeavor.

The organization has as its object the betterment of teachers and a more perfect co-operation with the Board of Education.

FOR THE INDIANAPOLIS WRECK

Blame Is Placed Upon Chief Train Dispatcher by Coroner After Investigation.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 16.—Coroner Totewiler rendered his verdict today on the Big Four wreck which occurred here October 21. The coroner blames B. C. Byers, the chief train dispatcher at Kankakee, who, he says, failed to notify the Indianapolis yardmaster that the special train was coming. Sixteen people were killed in the wreck, fifteen of whom were Purdue students.

STICKNEY AND GRAIN MARKETS

Omaha Delighted and Stickney Complimented by the Prompt Response to His Suggestion to

ORGANIZE WITH $500,000 CAPITAL

And Build Up in Omaha Flouring Mills and Cereal Mills to Create a Market.

When President Stickney announced his scheme for making Omaha a grain center few of his auditors supposed the results would be so immediately encouraging. Mr. Stickney's unerring judgment of men led him to select G. W. Wattles as the principal promoter of the enterprise. With his characteristic energy, the successful president of the Union National bank went to work. The has its home offices in sight of G. W. Wattles' desk and in the same building with his bank. It knows, therefore, how tireless, methodical and efficient are the methods which have enabled him to build a fortune, though yet a young man. He is a friend of the Bankers Reserve Life for the same reason that the Bankers Reserve Life is his friend. Each knows the other from actual observation and each must praise the good qualities of the other.

B. H. ROBISON, PRESIDENT of the Bankers Reserve Life, is on deck every day at his office, as the banker across the hall is at his desk, regularly and continuously. Both men have succeeded by applying themselves to their businesses and each has behind him now the capital and character which a lifetime of energy and integrity has accumulated. B. H. Robison wants more agents for work in the new fields being opened up by the Bankers Reserve.
