

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Many Indignant Citizens Depend on the City Council.

STRYKER SECRETARY OF THE EXCHANGE

Swift and Company Have Plans Prepared for Extensive Improvements and Enlargements of the Plant.

Last night was "Citizens' night" at the council meeting. The hall was crowded by delegations which proceeded to comb the council and the administration up one side and down the other.

Following the delegation about twenty-five men from Missouri Avenue, through their spokesman, J. B. Breen, presented the deplorable condition of affairs on the east side.

Consell Takes Up Routine.

After the delegations had retired the council took up the regular order of business.

Thomas McCallum gave notice of suit for $20,000 for injuries to his person from a fall on N street February 16, 1906.

The appraisers sent in two lengthy reports on damages to property by reason of the grading of streets from Eighteenth to Twenty-fourth and of 8th from Eighteenth to Twenty-fifth.

The finance committee reported the estimated expenses of the coming year in the various departments as follows:

Salary $25,000
Charity 1,500
Rent 1,500
Printing 3,000
Jail (boarding) 800
Electricity 800
Barbwire 400
Insurance 400
Miscellaneous 400

The board of directors of the South Omaha Live Stock Exchange yesterday elected A. F. Stryker secretary to fill the position vacated by the resignation of J. M. Quill.

Chief Inspector Goes to Chicago. Dan C. Ayer of the bureau of animal industry at this point is on his way to Chicago to attend a called meeting of the chief inspectors of the various packing houses and other departments of the work.
