CORNHUSKERS WIN IN MUD

Heavy Field Renders High Score with Peru an Impossibility.

FORM OF ELEVEN DISAPPOINTING

Slow in Getting Plays Started, but Cooke's Return Expected to Remedy This-Defense Shows Up Exceptionally Strong.

LINCOLN, Sept. 26 .- (Special Telegram.)-On a muddy field, which made fast playing or rapid scoring impossible, Nebraska succeeded in defeating the Peru Normal school by a score of 20 to 0 at Antelope park this afternoon in the opening game of the sea-

The Cornhuskers secured fifteen of their points in the first half on three touchdowns, and manged to get another touchdown in the second half, which Captain Harvey failed to convert into a goal. The time of the halves were twenty and fifteen Nehraska played straight foot ball most of the time, only on three plays resorting to the forward pass, and infrequently trying either the on side kick or end runs. Nearly all of the gains were made on plays directed against the Peru line, which managed to hold the Cornhuskers for downs only twice, and those occasions being near the close of the second half, when several of the Nebraska regulars had been replaced by substitutes.

The work of the Cornbuskers failed to come up to expectations and tonight the rooters are feeling rather disappointed over the showing of their team. Although the condition of the field and the drizzling wain prevented any spectacular playing, yet the Nebraska eleven failed to do the work that had been expected of them under even such conditions. Only occasionally did any of the veterans show brilliant form. It was not Peru's strength, but rather the listless and slow playing of the Cornhuskers which kept down the score on the Ne-bracka side. The Cornhuskers had little CUBS SCORE DOUBLE SHUTOUT trouble in diagnosing the defense of the Normals and made gains at will through the line and around the ends. But the Nebracks eleven got their plays off with a slowness that characterized their play at pregnable to the Peru team. The Normals fid not make their downs once on their own plays. They had possession of the ball a few times during the game and forced to punt in every instance.

Game Starts in Rain. The same was started in a downpour of rain and with the players shivering on the trials at goal from placement were flat fail-tempted. Beltzer, at left half, and Kroger, at fullback, were the stars for Nebraska. The were given the ball to carry repeated! and nearly every time made good gains Rathbone was tried out at quarter and rathe team fairly well, although the play were gotten off slowly. Arnold, a new man was tried out at high half and proved to h m hard line hitter.

Nebraska sent in several substitutes the second half, and they were able t get only one touchdown. Peru, towar the close of this half, showed a spurt o speed, and during the last two minutes play, on two kicks carried the ball to braska's thirty-five yard line, where was when the game was called.

Swensen, the Peru center, put up a h game, and helped his team keep do the Nebraska score. His tackling of E vey in the first half, when the capt secured the ball on a forward p and was running for the goal with a c field, robbed the Cornhuskers of t touchdown, Renfrowe, quarter for P. also was good at tackling and often brou down a Nebraska runner.

which the return of Cooke is expected to do away with. The little midget quarterback of the last two seasons came back to Lincoln today and reported to "King Cole that he would be ready to put on th mole skins Monday afternoon.

Beltser returned the ball twen yards, being downed by Lincoln, right tackie. Kroger made five yards through left tackle. Kroger made another gain through tackle. An attempt through center by Beltzer fatied. Kroger carried the ball again, making Nebraska's second downs. The Cornhuskers' full back was Chicago ... sent through hight tackle for ten yards Brooklyn more. Beltzer, in a run around right end, made five yards. Kroger and Beltzer carried the ball to Peru's ten yard line on repeated plunges through tackle and guard, and Kroger was sent over for the first touchdown of the season. Harvey kicked out from behind the goal line and Rathbons failed to catch the ball. Score. Nebone failed to catch the ball. Score, Ne-

Eroger and Arnold, right half, were used several times and carried the ball through tackle and Boston in a well played game, 5 to 0. guard to Peru's forty-yard line. A forward pass from Rathbone to Captain Harvey Arnold fumbled and it was Peru's ball. On two attempts to go through the line the Normals failed to gain and were forced to kick. Rathbone secured the ball and returned it fifteen yards. End runs and ball to Peru's five-yard line and Arpold went over for the second touchdown. Harvey kicked out from the goal line and Rathbone again falled to catch the ball.

CHICAGO BLANKS NEW YOR White Sox Bunch Hits with Errors Highlanders.

CHICAGO, Sept. 26.-Chicago shut New York here today, 12 to 0. A total thirteen bases on balls, a couple of w pitches, the hitting of two Chicagoans pitched balls, coupled with opportune hitting and a few sacrifices was accountable for the visitors' defeat. Smith, who pitched most of the game for Chicago, had little difficulty holding his opponents safe. Ball twisted his ankle in the seventh and retired from the game. Score:

Locals Show Up Well and Coach Cherrington Changes His Tenm Without Hazarding Its Chances Any

On a wet, soggy field at Vinton Street park, before a moderat but enthusiastic crowd, the first game of the season for the Omaha High school foot ball eleven was played with Plattsmouth Saturday afternoon and resulted in a victory for Omaha by the score of 21 to 0. The Plattsmouth team composed of High school boys and other young men from that city, was outweighed and outplayed but fought with considerable spirit and ability against great odds. The game was clean and the only dispute was settled before anyone on the sidelines knew that it had arisen.

Coach Cherrington of Omaha was well pleased with the result of the first practice fast team for its weight, which will be about 160 pounds. Andrus, McKinney and one or two others are good material for stars and all that is necessary now to give the playing finish and scoring form is practice and the development of team work. The men of the first team which opened the game were well together on most of the plays but the coach substituted in every position several times and the men during the second half were unfamiliar with the signals for their places.

First Team Invincible. Plattsmouth could do little against the first team but by the latter part of the second half the men were beginning to take the measure of their opponents and the ball died on Omaha's twenty-yard line, while Plattemouth was taking it steadily down the field by straight line bucks. Beal, the quarterback of the visiting team played a fast game and his men backed him up in every play. The Plattsmouth right end, Droege, was playing his first game of foot ball, but he showed a remarkable quickness in picking up the tricks of the position. Omaha won the toss and took the east goal. McKinney kicked off and Platinyards. Omaha was penalized for the offside play and Gardner kicked forty-five yards. He followed this after a return with another boot for twenty-five yards and McKinney got the ball on a fumble. Omaha lost the ball again but Plattsmouth could gain only short distances. Andrus Philadelphia Does Not Score Until the made several star tackles. Mckinney estried the ball over and Gardner kicked goal first base on Donovan until the ninth and before the first twelve minutes of play. Omaha kicked off and Andrus downed frequently full of holes and Plattsmouth began to gain ground. Early in the half a Plattsmouth man got away with the ball self free of the tacklers and making a score. He was finally downed by Gardner after a hard chase. After a third touchdown, Gardner kicked a field goal making the score 21 to nothing.

BRIDE'S BRIDE COSTS HIM PLACE Yale Player Would Rather Be Husband Than Captain.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 26 .- The announcement that Arthur Edward Brides, one of the best all around foot ball players at Yale, is married in no news to the Yale foot ball coaches. They were informed of it last winter, and that was the reason he was not elected captain of the Yale foot ball eleven for the 1908 season. They feared that Brides might not be able to devote his time entirely to the team and chose Burch, who had played but two minutes in a championship game, in his Brides was easily the logical candidate for the captaincy. He had played two years at half back and at guard, and was equally brilliant in both places. It was not long after Brides' marriage in July a year ago that the foot ball coaches learned of the fact. There is no rule against a married man playing on a Yale athletic team. Consequently there is no reason why brides should not return to Yale this fall and play foot ball, if he wants to do so. He is a senior in the Yale medical school.
