SOCIETY PLANS FOR FOURTH

At the Clubs and Private Homes Parties Will Be Given.
MANY WILL GO TO THE LAKES
Safety and Sanity seem to be the Tendency and the Fourth Will Be Celebrated Without the Din of Explosives.

Social Calendar.
MONDAY—Miss Marguerite Fallon, dance at Field club; Miss Gretchen Williamson, bridge at home; children's matinee dance at the Field club.
TUESDAY—Miss Ella Harman, dance for Miss May O'Connor and Miss Marjorie Beckett; Mrs. Martin Reum, Fourth of July party at her home, Pacific View, on West Dodge street; Mrs. A. G. Season, Wood; Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hatfield, dinner at Happy Hollow; Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Kinsler, a large dinner at the Country club; also Mr. and Mrs. John A. McShane; the Kappa Alpha Theta convention entertained in the afternoon; children's matinee dance at Happy Hollow; Miss Fitch's play, "The Romaner," on the lawn at dinner-dance at Country club and fireworks; dinner-dance at Happy Hollow; dinner-dance at Field club; dinner-dance at Masawa Boat club; ladies' day at Happy Hollow; ladies' day at Field club; children's matinee dance at the Country club.
WEDNESDAY—Ladies' day at Happy Hollow; ladies' day at Field club.
THURSDAY—Dinner-dance at Country club; dinner-dance at Happy Hollow; dinner-dance at Field club; dinner-dance at Rod and Gun club.

The glorious Fourth will be the red letter day on this week's social calendar. Though there will not be quite so many sky-rockets and roman candles as usual, owing to the growing favor of the safe and sane Fourth, Omaha will celebrate the 15th anniversary of American independence with a gay round of dinners, dances, picnics and other pleasures.
The clubs will be centers of social gatherings. At the Country club the festivities are to be for the enjoyment of the small sons and daughters of the members. In the afternoon there will be a matinee dance and in the evening fireworks will be displayed in front of the broad verandas. The grown people will have their regular dinner and dance, the largest of the dinners being given by Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Kinsler and Mr. and Mrs. John A. McShane.
At Happy Hollow club, in addition to the regular dinner and dance, there will be a dainty outdoor play, "The Romaner," a number of large dinners and the regular dance will be held at the Field club.
Many Omahans are planning to betake themselves to Masawa, across the river, to enjoy the festivities at the Council Bluffs Boat club, where boat races will be the feature of the day. A dinner and dance will be given. At the Rod and Gun club there will be many picnics, boat races and a pyrotechnical display in the evening on the water.

Missy of the tennis racket is resting today from last week's contests on the Field club courts in the fourth annual women's tennis tournament. Whether or no she is taking measures to get rid of the sunburn, tan and freckles which are always one of the results of these outdoor meets, is a question, because the feminine players, when interviewed on the subject seem to be proud rather than discouraged over the taint of their erstwhile fair complexions.
The tournament was a decided success, bringing to the front not only the cream of Omaha's feminine athletes, but also inter-

Wedding Bells

Telegrams at the place of each guest announced the engagement, at a dinner Thursday evening, of Miss Rella Rumbor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. C. Rumbor, to Mr. Charles Zeigler of Somerset, Penn. Invitations have been issued for the wedding of Miss Elizabeth Williams, niece of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. McGilton, and Mr. Walter Williams of Hugo, Colo., the wedding to take place July 22.

The tourney came to a crisis Saturday afternoon in the championship match between Miss Carmelita Chase and Mrs. J. T. Stewart, 2d, and the gallery and lawns about the courts were crowded with daintily gowned women and girls and also with men spectators. Next week the tournament will come to a successful close, with the doubles match between Miss Chase and Miss Susan Holdrege and Miss Clara Daugherty and Miss Erna Reed.

Expression of Sentiment

Every birthday, every holiday, every wedding gift and every anniversary remembrance is an expression of sentiment. After all, it is the things beautiful in this life, the things uplifting—different—out of the common rut—that makes life worth living. And, there is nothing which adds to the beautiful—to the expression of one's sentiment—so much as a diamond. All humanity covets this precious stone and holds it as treasure in a wealth of romance that has been woven by the world's greatest masters of fiction.

The diamond wearer looks impressive, progressive. A good front is just about half the battle of life. Socially and commercially there is no one stone that has a more commanding influence than a modest display of diamonds.

The Edholm store has an assortment of diamonds of high character at prices as moderate as any in the country. They are in smart settings—some in gold and some in exquisite platinum, the metal which shows off diamonds to the best advantage.

Before you buy you should inspect this line and reflect on the reasonableness of the charges.

"La Book" Merely Another Name for "True Style"

Much Talk Among Omaha Women Over La-Book's $50 Offer On Tailored-to-Order-$50 Suits.
A woman may truly say she has encountered a "bargain" when an expert, renowned tailor, takes up needle and shears, and cuts to order for her, a superb tailored suit for only $50, in the meantime using the identical fabrics used formerly by him in his $80 suits.
"La-Book," the locally famous Ladies' Tailor in the Webster-Sunderland Building at 16th and Howard Sts., is the tailor who is giving positive $80 values for $50, but he makes the offer for a short time only, as a piece of advertising.
"La-Book" has the fashions far in advance of the ordinary Ladies' Tailors, and he would be pleased to inform you now, in regard to the styles that promise to be in favor during the season that is to come.
And if you are in the field for a tailored suit have "La-Book" make up his $50 grade for you at $50.
