Boys' Clothes Make Good Christmas Presents. Even if your boy can't have the best of everything for his Xmas he can have the best of clothes. Wearing the best of clothes as a boy will help a lot to make him the best kind of a man. Your boy is entitled to and ought to have—the uplifting influence of the best clothes—especially when they cost you less money than the "go-to-pieces-quick" kind. Come here tomorrow—bring the boy along—boys know a lot about right dressing. You'll teach them a lot more by having them help select their own clothes. We want the boys to see the style and snap that go into our suits and overcoats—the new colors—the smart tailoring. Let him feel and learn to judge pure woolsens—let him see that he's not only getting the best clothes made—but that you—his father—or mother are saving $2 to $4 on his suit or overcoat by buying here and now.

From the Heart of the Wheat. Comes the delicate flour. There's only a little. And around it lies gluten that's hard and tough—bothersome in baking. To pick this cream of the flour from the ordinary, we sift it ten times— Ten times through fine silk. And only the daintiest particles, sifting through, go out as Gold Medal Flour. The rest we deem unfit.

Do you want all of the flour, or just the best of the flour? Will you have milk and cream, or just the cream, when both cost an equal price? There can't be any question. Then in ordering, Madam, don't merely say "flour." That means any flour. Say the flour you want—say—

Will of Miss Curtis is Filed in Council Bluffs

A copy of the will of Miss Clara E. Curtis, who died at Berkeley, Cal., recently, was probated in the district court at Council Bluffs yesterday. The will disposes of property, the bulk of which goes to a brother, Samuel S. Curtis of Omaha, to be held in trust during his life for the use of his two daughters, Kate and Carita Curtis. The property consists largely of real estate, part of which is located in Pottawattamie county Iowa. Mr. Curtis is also made executor of the will without bond.

Woodrow Wilson Asked for Pension, But—He Didn't Get It

BALTIMORE, Dec. 6.—Governor Woodrow Wilson, in a signed statement issued here tonight regarding a story printed today that he had applied to the Carnegie foundation for a pension, admitted that he had made such application before his election as governor of New Jersey. The governor justified his action on the grounds of long service as a teacher; that he had no private means to depend upon, and that "a man who goes into politics bound by the principles of honor puts his family and all who may be dependent upon him for support at the mercy of any incalculable turn of the wheel of fortune."

BRAGOO FALLS AND DIES ON WAY TO THE HOSPITAL

Complaining that he had a terrible headache, Charles Bragoo, aged 41 years, entered the Stillings cigar store at 218 South Tenth street, shortly after 12 o'clock, and after making a few remarks to one of the clerks, fell headlong to the floor. He was picked up and taken to St. Joseph's hospital, but he died while on the way. Police surgeons say that death resulted from a cerebral hemorrhage.

LOCAL IRON WORKERS TAKE DOWN M'NAMARA'S PICTURE

A lengthy session of local union No. 21 of the International Union of Bridge and Structural Iron workers was held Tuesday evening at Labor temple, but no action was taken with reference to the pleas of guilty of the McNamara brothers, though the room in which the meeting was held was crowded for the closed session which lasted nearly three hours. Secretary Painter stated that some action might be taken later.

BRESSLER'S VISIT HERE PROVES A COSTLY ONE

Isaac Bressler, enroute from Kearney to Corpus Christi, Tex., stopped in Omaha last night long enough to get robbed of $9 and a draft for $175. Bressler was walking between Tenth and Eleventh on Farnam streets about 7:30 o'clock when a negro ran up and struck him in the mouth, dazing him sufficiently to get the money and make his escape. Bressler told the police of the assault and robbery.
