WILSON, N. C., MONDAY, NOV. 4, 1918

VOL. 15--NO. 152

SOCIALISTS OF GERMANY ARE NOT SATISFIED

WITH THE PROCLAMATION THE EMPEROR GIVE HIS PEOPLE. IT SAYS THAT THE MANIFESTO WILL NOT IN ANY WAY WEAKEN THE DEMAND FOR HIS ABDICATION. TERMS OF AUSTRIAN ARMISTICE WILL BE PUBLISHED TODAY. THE ARMIES OF THE ALLIES MOVING FORWARD

Washington, Nov. 4.—The terms of the armistice under which Austria-Hungary lays down her arms was received at the State Department this morning and will be published today. It contains 2,000 words.

The Socialists Not Satisfied.

London, Nov. 4.—The German Socialists are not satisfied with the proclamation issued Sunday by Emperor William according to a despatch from the Central News Agency to Copenhagen. The Vorwarts says, "The manifesto will not in any way change the determination of the Socialists or weaken the demand for the abdication of Emperor William.

Russia Stopped Her Payments.

Copenhagen, Nov. 4.—Russia will refuse to make any further payments to Germany. The Cologne Gazette says that Russia which has made two payments of war indemnity under the terms of the Brest-Litovsk treaty has stopped the transportation of gold and bank notes. Evidently she refuses to pay the last part of the indemnity the paper adds.

The Americans Driving Past.

Washington, Nov. 4.—The First American army has captured the dominating heights from the Germans northwest of Verdun and brought the following cities and important railroad centers under their big long range guns. Montedey, Longnon and Conflans says General Pershing in his Communique of Sunday afternoon regarding the advance of the American First Army which has covered twelve miles over an eight mile front in three days. They have also captured 5,000 prisoners and 100 guns. In the fighting were troops from Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Colorado, New Mexico, New York, New Jersey, Maryland, West Virginia and the District of Columbia.

Dr. Adler Released From Prison Amsterdam, Nov. 4.—Dr. Frederiek Alder who killed the Austrian Premier Sturgkh on October 21st, 1916, has been released from prison, according to despatches from Vienna.

The British Continue to Advance London, Nov. 4.—At dawn this morning the British troops south of the Scheidt river attacked on a wide front, according to advices from Field Marshal Haig. The report says that the attack is making satisfactory progress.

Will Select Their Own Government. London, Nov. 4.—The population of Hungary a month hence will vote and decide whether they shall have a republic or a monarchy. In the balloting the women will have the same rights of franchise as the men.

Italians Moving Forward.

Paris, Nov. 3.—The Italian armies continue to move forward, according to the war office. On the northern front from Tonale to Lake Garda west of Triente the Italians have advanced on the Reva and other positions.

Italians Take 16,000 Prisoners. London, Nov. 4.—It is officially announced that the Italian army with whom the British are fighting have captured over 16,000 prisoners east of the Piave.

MARKETS COTTON

New York, Nov. 4.—There was an excited opening in the cotton market today on the war news and there was heavy buying for both account. Dec. sold to 28.15, Jan. 27.50, with active months selling from 38 to 99 points above Saturday's close.

Nek York, Nov. 4.—Cotton futures opened firm with December 27.85 to 28.15, January 27.30 to 27.50, March 27 to 26.90, May 26 to 26.00, July 26 to 24. Spots Wilson market 26 cents.

STOCKS

New York, Wall Street, Nov. 4.—The war news especially the armistice with Austria imparted strength to the stock market this morning. Mexican Petroleum gained 7 points and Royal Dutch Oil advanced five points. Marine Preferred rose two points and the rails also made a good showing. Transcontinental gained from one to two points. The Steels and Coppers and Motors averaged one point but soon lost this advance.

WASHINGTON VIEW OF THE ARMISTICE

Washington, Nov. 4.—Armistice terms which the Austrians have accepted are expected here to furnish a clear index to those which the supreme war council at Versailles is preparing for Germany. Consequently their publication will carry greater significance than otherwise would attach since the Austrian surrender had been discounted in advance by the internal disintegration of the dual monarchy and the collapse of the Austro-Hungarian forces on the Italian front.

Official announcement that the armistice had been signed reached the State Department yesterday. In making this known officials gave no indication of the terms imposed, now was there any explanation of why cessation of hostilities had been delayed 24 hours or more after the actual signing of the article of surrender. The generally accepted view, however, seemed to be that it was desired to have virtually all Italian soil freed of enemy troops before the Italian armies were committed to end their attacks upon the routed Austrian forces.

Military men here said that terms which the supreme war council had prepared would make it impossible and probably included the disarming of the namely Trent and Trieste, already have enemy troops, and occupation of strategic points as well.

ARMISTICE SIGNED WITH AUSTRIA

Fighting Ceases This Afternoon at Three O'clock. Details Published Tomorrow

GERMANY STANDS ALONE

London, Nov. 4.—Germany now stands alone. An armistice with Austria was signed yesterday afternoon by Gen. Diaz, the Italian commander-in-chief, according to an official announcement made here yesterday evening. The text of the statement reads:

"A telephone message has been received from the Prime Minister in Paris saying that news has just come that Austria-Hungary, the last of Germany's props, has gone out of the war.

"The armistice was signed by Gen. Diaz and will come into operation today at 3 o'clock. The terms of the armistice will be published tomorrow (Tuesday).

The Germans Fortifying Their Country

Copenhagen, Saturday, Nov. 3.—Austro-Hungary troops are being withdrawn from the western front and the Germans, fearing the allies will furch through Austria, are digging trenches and erecting fortifications along the Bavarian frontier, according to a Vienna dispatch to the Politiken.

With the Italian forces in Northern Italy, Saturday.—The battle continues with the Italians and their allies completing the destruction of Austria's mighty army. It is estimated that 3,000 Austrian cannon will be the total taken by the Italians in addition to vast quantities of other war material.

The allied forces are ever pressing on toward the frontier in the mountains. They already have reached the val Sugana, where the Italians are holding their line of a year ago. The word "strategy" cannot be used in Austria's retreat, which is a pellmell effort on the part of the various bodies to save themselves. The Austrians are being helter skelter, fighting in the mountains when obliged to do so. On the plains they are merely putting up rear guard local fights with machine guns, blowing up bridges as they go along. The long lines of enemy troops on the roads are being pelted with the machine guns of allied airplanes.

HERALD FORECAST AS TO HOUSE AND SENATE

The New York Herald in its forecast published yesterday regarding the House and Senate predicts from its straw vote the next House will contain 207 Democrats and 229 Republicans and the Senate 50 Democrats and 46 Republicans.

The present House has 214 Democrats and 207 Republicans and 7 independent, while the Senate has 52 Democrats and 44 Republicans.

The retreat of the Austrians is being hindered by the condition of the road. For the same reason the Italian advance in some regions is slow.

The Austrians are leaving their wounded by the roadside or in houses. Two thousand Austrian wounded were deserted in Feltre without attendance or medicine.

Udint has been evacuated. The civil population everywhere complains that they were stripped of everything of value by the enemy in the invaded provinces.

Thousands of cannons are being captured by the Italians in addition to great quantities of war material.

CITIES OF IMPORTANCE

In Europe and Their Population at the Outbreak of the War

THEIR SUFFERING INTENSE

In order that the readers of the Times may have some idea of the size of the cities that they read about and the number of people affected by the war we are giving the population of some of them as they were just before the war began in August 1914.

Many towns of course are very important from a military standpoint, but very small and unimportant otherwise.

In the vicinity of the battle front of France and Belgium we give the following: France; Lille 217,807; Verdun 217,066; Valenciennes 34,766; Laon 15,288; St. Quentin 55,571; Lens 31,812; Cambrai 27,832; Amiens 93,207; Sedan 19,599; Douai 36,314; Rheims 115,178; Toul 13,663; Nancy 119,949; Belfort 39,371; Versailles 60,458. In Belgium: Antwerp 301,766; Brussels 720,347; Bruges 53,285; Courtrai 35,639; Ghent 166,449; Mons 27,828; Namur 32,362; Ostend 42,207; Liege 167,521; Thourout 10,981; Louvain 42,123; Tournai 36,982; Ypres 17,409. In Germany: Metz 68,598; Mulhausen 95,041; Strassburg 178,891.

Other towns near the front are less than ten thousand population. On Italian front, Trieste 151,659; Trent 30,040; Pola 58,081 and Fiume with 49,906 population are cities in Austria that Italy will get back when peace is declared.

In the Polish sections of Russia, Germany and Austria, the following cities will belong to the proposed New Poland: Warsaw 872,485; Lodz 415,617; Danzig 170,337; Przemysl 54,078; Krakow 151,886; Lemberg 206,113 and Posen 156,691. The New Czech-Slovak nation as proposed with its capital Prague with 223,741 population; Brann 125,737; Carlsbad 17,459; Plisen 80,343 Budweis 45,300 and many other smaller cities.

Ukraine, the new nation of Prussia with its capital Kiel 596,860; Odessa 620,100; Khark of 248,300 and other large cities near the Black Sea. The population of capital cities not mentioned above, but not well known before the war are as follows:

Budapest, Hungary 880,371; Bukarest, Roumania 338,109; Constantinople, Turkey 1,200,000; Sofia, Bulgaria 102,812; Belgrade, Serbia 90,895; Athens, Greece 167,479; Amsterdam, Holland 566,131; Christiana, Norway 243,801; Copenhagen, Denmark 559,398; Stockholm, Sweden 350,965; Cetinje, Montenegro 5,000. Cities of Turkey-in-Asia or the Holy Land that have been in war news of late had pre-war populations as follows: Bagdad 225,000; Damascus 300,000; Beirut 210,000; Aleppo 200,000; Smyrna 375,000, Jerusalem 60,000.

THE ELECTION IN NEW YORK

The Herald Forecast Indicates the Election of Smith, Democrat as Governor by 56,879 Plurality New York, Nov. 4.—Based upon the tabulation of 75,452 straw votes from every county in New York the New York Herald estimates that Mr. Smith will receive a plurality of 196,740 in New York City and that Governor Whitman will receive a plurality of 139,851 outside the city which is normally Republican.

The Herald says that the vote of the women will cut an important figure in the election in New York State, as will the weather, if the weather is bad so the ladies cannot get out the chances of Mr. Smith will improve. A fair day will benefit the Republican nominee.

MRS. RUSSELL SAGE DEAD

New York, Nov. 4.—Mrs. Russell Sage, the widow of Russell Sage, the financier, died this morning at her residence in this city. Her health has been poor for some time. She was 90 years old.
