

Saulston Letter.

SAULSTON, May 10, 1892. Editor Argus:—I see in the Progressive Farmer of May 3rd an article under the head of "Editorial Notes," which says: "Don't be uneasy about the straightouts. They will swallow every bit of the Ocala and St. Louis platforms and beg for more," etc.

Mr. Editor, I am a farmer, I carry in my palms the marks, and there are many others like me some of whom belong to the Alliance, who are perfectly satisfied with the Ocala platform, and are willing that something be added to it. I am satisfied but few, if any, of the straightouts would have raised an objection.

We will capture the old Democratic ship of Zion, and turn her into a Third party craft under the lead of Peffer and Mrs. Lease, Polk, Weaver and Miss Dickinson, and the rest of the dashing Reformers.

It is no longer rally Democrats to the Democratic primaries, but come on you Reformers, without regard to party or color.

We make another quotation: "Let every reform speaker, every reform paper, every private in reform ranks throw aside personal and party preference and go in for solid reform and honest government in North Carolina this year. Begin in the primaries and keep on till you get to the State Convention. Then call a halt and see what has been done."

Work up to the State Convention and then call a halt and see how successful you have been. If you have not won the fight, the original Third party programme will be carried out.

If you do win, why then—we will nominate as electors men who will vote for the Third Party nominee for President. And this is reform in politics.

It common honesty in North Carolina does not set its seal of condemnation on such a purpose, we very much mistake the general character of our people.—Raleigh News and Observer.

When a man of family finds himself attacked by a violent cold it is his duty to relieve the anxiety of his wife and children and seek a remedy immediately. Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup costs only 25 cents a bottle, and a few doses will give instant relief.

Neither a borrower nor a lender be; but take your own money and go to your druggist and buy yourself a bottle of Salvation Oil for your sprains, ache and pains.

Reform in Politics.

Our contemporary, the Progressive Farmer, which seemed a little while back much enamoured of the Third Party, has now, like Brother Stroud—who, by the way, appears to be the weather cock of the walk in his neighborhood—changed its tune, and asserts that the people ought to go into the Democratic primaries. But the object is not concealed. The purpose is distinctively avowed. Come on, boys, and let's put the St. Louis demands in the Democratic platform! Rally up, ye whilom Third Party men, cloak up your Third partyism, and whether Republican or Prohibitionists, white or black, no matter, make a break for the primaries and slap, dash the Third Party platform into the Democracy.

We will capture the old Democratic ship of Zion, and turn her into a Third party craft under the lead of Peffer and Mrs. Lease, Polk, Weaver and Miss Dickinson, and the rest of the dashing Reformers.

The Hustler, ED. L. EDMUNDSON, Opposite Hill's drug store, Walnut St. Goldsboro, N. C.

As I was walking along the street a gentleman remarked to me: "Well, you didn't blow that coffee too much. My wife says it's the finest we ever had and she says you cannot say too much in its favor."

Another comes in and says: "Have you any more of those nice apples you sent me some time ago? Well, send me some. I got some yesterday from Messrs. — & Co., but they were no good and we had to send them back."

Here comes another who lives a hundred miles away: "Say, please ship me a bbl of that flour like I used to get of you. I can get nothing like it where I live."

Now, it takes no Solomon to tell what all this means, but if you do not catch on we will say that it means just this: We keep the finest goods to be had, and housekeepers who study their own interest appreciate the fact and give us their patronage.

I Offer for this week FERRIS' DELICIOUS HAMS AND BACON, SEAL BRAND COFFEE, OUR BLEND COFFEE, CHASE & SANBORN'S FINEST TEAS, OBELISK FLOUR, VANDEVER & HOLMES' WAFERETS, QUEEN OLIVES, FERRIS' DRIED BEEF, DUNBAR BUTTER, (Nothing finer.) GARTEN TER-CHLORIDE OF GOLD

Sure, Safe and Speedy Cure. FOR ABNORMAL APPETITES FOR Liquor, Opium and Tobacco. SAFE AND SPEEDY CURE—

For abnormal and uncontrollable appetites for alcoholic stimulants, opium and tobacco. After submitting the treatment to the severest tests, and made under as many varied conditions as possible, it has proven entirely satisfactory, and is pronounced by those competent to judge to be the safest and most agreeable treatment in use.

EVERY DEPARTURE FROM— old beaten paths meets with serious, and often opposition. Jenner found violent enemies to vaccination. Harvey nearly lost his life by discovering and announcing the circulation of blood. So the "Gold Cure" for the Liquor, Opium and Tobacco habit, is being seriously combated; but it has science on its side, and has accomplished results that are incontrovertible, and thousands of those whom its treatment has enfranchised from the thrall of Liquor, Opium and Tobacco, bear testimony daily to their restoration to health, strength, normal appetites and effective will power.

IF THERE IS ANYTHING IN— medicine as antidotes for diseases—and that there is, science has long since established and nature substantiated—then why should this particular antidote for the liquor, opium and tobacco habit be combated at all; and this, too, in the face of its most wonderful accomplishments of desired results.

HAVE GIVEN THE TER— Chloride of Gold treatment careful study and I am now prepared to administer it to any who may be desirous of having recourse to its saving merits.

MUST TREAT ALL PA— tients personally, and to this end must have them under my immediate supervision.

For terms and particulars I can be written to or consulted at my office in this city. RESPECTFULLY, M. E. ROBINSON, M. D.

BOTANIC BLOOD BALM. Glen Alpine Station, N. C., Feb. This is to certify that three years ago I had my left leg amputated four inches below the knee, caused by blood poison and bone affection. After it was amputated there came a running ulcer on the end of it that measured 3 1/2 inches one way and 4 1/2 inches the other, and continued growing worse every day until a short time ago. I was given up to die by the best doctors in Charlotte. I heard of the wonderful B. B. B. I resolved to try that. My weight at the time I commenced B. B. B. was 120 pounds. When I had taken three bottles I gained 37 pounds in weight, when I had taken twelve bottles I was sound and well, but continued taking until I had taken fifteen bottles. I now weigh 180 pounds and measure five feet and three inches high. I contend that your medicines has no equal as a blood purifier. It certainly worked like a charm. J. R. WILSON. For sale by J. H.
