THE REMEDY

For constipation, dyspepsia, bilious attacks, sick headache, flatulency, nausea, piles, and all derangements of the stomach, liver, and bowels,
is Ayer's Pills. They are sugar-coated, composed of the essential virtues of well-known vegetable aperients, and without any mineral drug whatever. Though gentle in action, they are thorough in effect, and cleanse the stomach and intestines of all effete or irritating substances.
Ayer's Pills are admirably adapted to the needs of travelers, and, as a family medicine, are universal favorites, everywhere recommended by the profession.
—I regard Ayer's Pills as one of the most valuable general remedies of our times. They have been in use in my family for various affections requiring a purgative medicine, and have given unvarying satisfaction. We have found them an excellent remedy for colds and light fevers.—W. K. Woodson, Fort Worth, Texas.
—"Ayer's Pills are the best cathartic I ever used in my practice."—J. T. Sparks, M. D., Yieldo, Ind.
—"I have used Ayer's Pills in my family for several years, and have always found them

Most Effectual
in the relief of ailments arising from a dis-ordered stomach, torpid liver, and constipated bowels.—Charles J. Booth, Olive-wood, Pasadena, P. O., Cal.
—"I have now used Ayer's Pills in my family for seven or eight years. Whenever I have an attack of headache, to which I am very subject, I take a dose of Ayer's Pills and am always promptly relieved. I find them equally beneficial in colds; and, in my family, they are used for bilious complaints
and other disturbances with such good effect that we rarely, if ever, have to call in a physician."—H. Voulliené, Hotel Voulliené, Saratoga Springs, N. Y.
—"I consider Ayer's Pills the most evenly balanced in their ingredients, of any I know of."—Dr. J. W. Haynes, Palouse, Wash. Ter.
—"I can recommend Ayer's Pills above all others, having long proved their value as a cathartic for myself and family."—J. T. Hess, Leithsville, Pa.
—"After the use of Ayer's Pills for many years in my practice and family, I am justified in saying that they are an excellent cathartic and liver medicine—amply sustaining all the claims made for them."—
W. A. Westfall, M. D., V. P. Austin & N. W.
Ky. Co., Burnet, Texas.
—"Ayer's Pills are the best I have ever used for headaches, and they act like a charm in relieving any disagreeable sensation in the stomach after eating."—Mrs. M. J. Ferguson, Pallens, Va.
—"Ayer's Pills cured me of liver complaint."—
T. W. Clack, Jefferson, Tenn.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription

"The use of 'Castoria' is so universal and its merits so well known that it seems a work of supererogation to endorse it. Few are the intelligent families who do not keep Castoria
within easy reach."

THE DAILY ARGUS.

GOLDSBORO, N. C., MAY 19 1892

A CHARACTER SKETCH.

The mule seemed pensive, even sad,
As if by conscience pricked,
But, when they came to share his woes,
He raised objection—kicked.
The cat came up to sympathize,
With mew and gentle purr;
Alas! she got within his reach
When—fiddle strings and fur.
The dog, in pity, neared him, too,
To alleviate his care;
He tried to pass around him once,
But—sausage meat and hair.
And John, the honest farmer boy,
Who had the beast in charge,
Tried recklessly to harness him—
His funeral was far.
What trifling were the causes which
His flexible unfurled!
And many were the quadrupeds
That sought another world.
He never did a decent thing;
He wasn't worth a duket;
He kicked and kicked until he died,
And then he kicked the bucket.

Starting Free Ships.

A half loaf is better none, and we sincerely congratulate both branches of Congress and the country upon the next to unanimous passage of the bill permitting two of the finest Inman Line steamers to be registered as American ships. The condition is attached that two additional vessels shall be built in American ship yards, which could not be done under any ordinary circumstances to compete with foreign built vessels in the commerce of the seas. It is intimated, also, that a new line will soon be established between New York and Antwerp under the provisions of this law, thereby giving us seven swift steamers flying the American flag and invaluable in case of war.

The particular benefit the country will realize from the first step toward free ships is the fact that it is the entering wedge to universal free ships for American commerce. It will soon be demonstrated by actual experiment how easily and how speedily the United States may regain the commerce she has so foolishly cast away by prohibitory tariff legislation. The passage of the bill admitting the City of Paris and City of New York to American registration is simply an open confession that we must have free ships or surrender even what little is left of our American commerce.

No nation of the world ever committed such suicidal folly as that of this government in throwing away her own commerce on the pretense of protecting an industry that has been utterly destroyed by the false attempt to protect it. One fee American ship on the seas of the world will do more to settle the question of free ships for our commerce than all the arguments that could possibly be presented. The entering wedge has been driven home most effectually and free ships for American commerce must come in the very near future. When it shall come, the United States will resume the control of her own immense and growing trade on the seas and again call out scores of sturdy workmen to man our ships.

We had 100,000 of the best sailors of the world before we destroyed our commerce, and when we shall return to free ships and to the command of our trade, we shall also return to the important industry of American sailors. Two free ships are not very much, but they make a beginning, and now that the country has started in that direction it will take no step backwards. Free ships are coming, and no one thing will so much hasten the coming as the trial to be made under the bill just passed by both branches of Congress.—Philadelphia Times.

Your Wife Should Leave You.

Again we rise to ask if there is any use in Alliancemen "pledging themselves to vote for no man who does not stand on their platform and then vote with a party that does not embody them in its platform? Don't do it. You are no man if you do. Your wife should leave you for such an act, for you are not capable of taking care of her. If the Democratic State Convention which meets in Raleigh on the 18th ignores them no true friend of reform should vote the ticket.—Progressive Farmer, May 10.

Indeed, has it come to this sad pass, at length? Has Col. Lovely Leonidas descended to such a low ebb in his advocacy of the "Third Party" that he would break up the home life of those whom he thinks his votaries in order to carry his nefarious measures? Why, this is the same old radical rot the scallawags and carpet baggers of '68, of odious memory, used upon the "niggers" to make them vote the Republican ticket, and there are actually instances in this section where negro women left their husbands for voting the Democratic ticket.

Ye gods! and little fishes! Col. Lovely Leonidas! What do you mean?

And so it has come to this in North Carolina: That if a man refuses to vote for the St. Louis demands his wife should leave him. The third party organ is indeed growing desperate when it makes such an appeal. It proves how weak it is growing, since it deserted the Alliance for the Third Party, and it plays a desperate game. But it will sink, as it should sink, to the depths of political duplicity to which it would lead the unguarded and unthinking portion of our people. The confidence of the farmers has been betrayed by an ingenious plot which has been steadily developing for the purpose of disintegrating the Democratic party. The honor has come to defeat the aims of the Catlines to overthrow good government in North Carolina in order that traitorous politicians may govern the State. We do not believe that the conspiracy will succeed in dictating the policy of the State Convention.—Raleigh Chronicle.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

WASHINGTON, May 13.—As a result of much preliminary work while the River and Harbor bill was pending in the House, the Senate Committee on Commerce was able to-day to report the bill back to the Senate, with all the amendments which it regards as necessary. It has increased the total of the House bill by $1,981,146, and made decreases to the amount of $858,000, making the net increase $1,123,146, and the total of the appropriation as reported to the Senate $22,490,128.

The Senate Committee on Civil Service and Retrenchment to-day ordered a favorable report on Senator Gallinger's bill requiring heads of executive departments to dismiss from the public service all persons who are not citizens of the United States by nativity or complete naturalization, and prohibiting the appointment of such persons in future. The Committee adversely reported Mr. Chandler's bill excepting from the Civil Service examination and classification employees whose duties are technical or scientific in their character, and all who are engaged in duties not merely clerical.

It is stated on authority of Secretary Blaine that Mr. Justice Harlan, of the United States Supreme Court, and Hon. John Morgan, United States Senator from Alabama, have been selected by the President as arbitrators on the part of the United States in the Behring Sea arbitration. England will now appoint two arbitrators, and there are three others to be appointed, one by the King of Sweden, one by the President of the Republic of France, and one by the King of Italy, making seven arbitrators in all. Hon. E. J. Phelps, late U. S. Minister to England, has been selected as chief council on behalf of the United States before the arbitration commission.

STATE NEWS

Ashville Citizen: Fitzpatrick Bros., of this city, were to-day given the contract, by Col. A. B. Andrews, for repainting the hotel at Hot Spring, and all of the buildings connected with the hotel. This will be begun soon, and completed within thirty days.

Graham Gleaner: Our countyman, Mr. Sidney B. Holt, a few days ago, sold thirty head of game chickens to a party at Memphis, Tenn., for $150, or an average of $5.00 a piece. Mr. Holt's chickens have a big reputation, and he has no trouble to dispose of them at fancy prices.

Charlotte Observer: Mr. Geo. W. Bennett, representing the Gormully & Jeffery Manufacturing Company, Chicago, was in the city during the past 4 or 5 days, and he and Mr. Gardiner made the run on their pneumatic machines from in front of the pavillion at Latta Park to the Buford House in four minutes, a feat which has not been eclipsed up to the present time.

Raleigh Chronicle: At the new depot the railway tracks are being brought on grade with the platform. There will be pieces some ten feet in height on the outside of the outer tracks and there will also be gates at the end of the car shed. Inside the building every man who can be worked to advantage is at work. The ceilings are finished and are of polished pine.

Newbern Journal: John Cox, col., now confined in Craven county jail under sentence of death for a murder committed in Jones county in September 1888, will be taken to Trenton and hung there to-morrow. Cox owns up as to the killing but denies that it was done in maliciousness. He says the man was pursuing him and he in fear shot him without intention to kill.
