A YELLOW ROSE

O Maiden, with a yellow rose Upon your bosom pinned, And soft brown tresses fluttering Within the summer wind.

We met but once, and wordless passed 'Twas in a country lane, And who you were, with eager quest, I sought to find in vain.

And yet, whenever I hear the words, "The good," "the pure," "the true," Why is it, since I know you not, I always think of you,

And see you in that country lane, Your brown hair in the wind, A maiden with a yellow rose Upon her bosom pinned! -Marian Douglas in Harper's Bazar.

MRS. CLEVELAND

Mr. Cleveland Objects to His Wife's Name Being Used in Connection With a Woman's Democratic Club.

BEZZARD'S BAY, MASS., July 9. -The following correspondence explains itself: NEW YORK, June 26, 1892.

Mrs. Grover Cleveland:

DEAR MADAM-It gives me great pleasure as representative of that great body of women of Democratic sympathies to inform you that a Francis Cleveland Influence Club has been formed by mothers, wives, sisters and daughters of New York Democrats. We have taken the liberty of using your name for the first of many Influence Clubs which we trust will spring up throughout the country, and which after November 8 will confirm the judgment of that Republican leader regarding 1890, that "The women did it." We feel that this campaign is to lift the burden of taxation from the homes of the land, and we, as home defenders, deserve a part in the struggle.

Yours respectfully, MARY FROST ORMSBY, President, Francis Cleveland Influence Club.

GRAY GABLES,

BUZZARD'S BAY, MASS., July 1, '92

Mrs. Mary Frost Ormsby,

MY DEAR MADAM:-Mrs. Cleveland has referred to me your letter informing her of the organization of a "Francis Cleveland Influence Club." It is by no means pleasant to dissent from methods which sincere friends adopt, when their efforts not only demonstrate their friendliness, but when they also seek to subserve public good, and are therefore engaged in patriotic service. It is, however, impossible for us to approve of the use of Mrs. Cleveland's name in designation of clubs designed to do political work. We trust you will not under-value our objection, because it rests upon the sentiment that the name now sacred in the home circle as wife and mother, may well be spared in the organization and operation of clubs created to exert political influence.

Yours very truly, GROVER CLEVELAND,

Letter From Mr. Cleveland.

WINSTON, N. C., July 9.-Col. Thomas Sutton, president of the Salem Cleveland club, received a letter to-day from the Hon. Grover Cleveland, in response to one sent him by the Salem club. The letter, in Mr. Cleveland's own handwriting, is as follows:

GRAY GABLES, BEZZARD BAY, MASS., July 6. MY DEAR SIR-I am glad to hear that there has been organized at Salem a Democratic club, and since I am always pleased to be related in any way in a movement to advance the Democratic principles, I desire to thank the new organization for adopting my name. I believe fully in the usefulness of such clubs and it seems to me that just at this time a "Cleveland club" can be of great service to the Democratic cause in its locality.

The Democratic cause in the present emergency is so fully identified with the welfare and prosperity of North Carolina, that the work of your organization, if effectively performed, cannot be otherwise than a patriotic service. This gives to its mission the greatest importance. Nothing will make me believe that our Southern people will allow themselves to abandon the shelter and protection which they know so well is afforded by up-building the principles of true Democracy.

Wishing for your club the greatest prosperity and usefulness, I am,

Yours very truly, GROVER CLEVELAND.

Mrs. Joe Person, Kittrell, N. C.

Dear Madam-As I have been cured of a malignant case of ulceration of the nose produced by catarrh, by the use of twelve bottles of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy, I take pleasure in recommending it to the public. Respectfully,

Mrs. J. M. WHITE.

Congressman Alexander.

From a recent letter from this gentleman to Mr. W. P. Oldham, the following extract is taken:

"When I stated in that letter I supported the State and National ticket it did not occur to me that anyone would doubt that I endorsed the State and National platforms more than one would doubt a Presbyterian endorsing the "Confession of Faith". But that you may not misunderstand me, I state that I endorse the Democratic State platform made by the State Democratic Convention held in the city of Raleigh, N. C., in May last, and the National Democrat platform made by the National Democratic Convention held in the city of Chicago, Ill., in June last. I have been in every campaign since the war-sometimes as a private, sometimes as an officer, and have done my duty to the Democratic party as best I could. If there be some who want to fight me for the nomination or even scratch me at an election they have a right to do it. The Democratic party has always contended for the greatest liberty to the citizen. And while I would appreciate a renomination I would not have anyone vote for me who is conscientiously opposed to me."

We do not know how Mr. Alexander could give to the Democratic platform, State and National, a more unqualified endorsement than he has in the above extract. There are two ex-Presidents, and one President of the North Carolina Farmers' Alliance, now living, and all endorse, without the slightest reservation, as they have always done, the platforms of the Democratic party. There is nothing in the Alliance to prevent any member of it from being a good Democrat, nor is there any ground to suspect the fealty of true Alliancemen to the Democratic principles. We should not forget that the splendid victory achieved two years ago was due, in great part, to the patriotic co-operation of Alliancemen with non-Alliance Democrats, and the united support thus given the Democratic nominees. These two elements of the Democratic party are one and the same this year, and another decided victory will be won in November. Within the next sixty days we believe that the white people of the whole South will be aroused, as never before, to the importance of standing together in solid array against the enemy of their homes and liberty. If Mr. Alexander wants to return to Congress he should be re-elected. He has made a faithful representative. -Raleigh Chronicle.

C. B. Aycock.

The State Democratic Convention showed the ripest wisdom and soundest discretion when it named for State Elector the above distinguished patriot statesman and gentleman. There cannot be found in the State a more thoroughly qualified or a better equipped man for this position than this able and adroit and sagacious and keen sighted and level headed and brawny brained and intensely magnetic gentleman. A fine and forceful and eloquent speaker; a sound, thoroughly posted and uncompromising Democrat; a gentleman with a record without blot or stain and perfectly unassailable, he will prove a tower of strength, and will make his power felt from the seaboard to the mountains. There is not a purer patriot, a finer gentleman or a more thrilling and captivating speaker in the entire State, for he is a man of magnetism and power and eloquence and stirring oratory. As a debater he is strong and powerful and convincing, and the very best and most admirably equipped speakers always dread to meet him in the arena of debate, for they know the resistless power of the avalanche sweeps of his logic, and all dread the blistering current of his burning invective and withering sarcasm. And he is one of the most impressive and effective speakers we ever heard, for his speech is not only contain the soundest lore and the richest argosies of thought, but ever an anon they gleam and glisten and burn with the thrilling flashes of that soul moving oratory which soars away into the highest heaven of dramatic impressiveness, and kindles the fires of heartiest and warmest enthusiasm in the most plegmatic bosoms, and makes the feelings quiver and tremble like withered leaves before the rushing sweep of a withering conflagration. At times his fervid and passionate outbursts of burning thoughts approximate in their intensity the sublimest fires of dramatic splendor, and rival in their glory the glittering coruscations of the grandest histrionic stars that ever glimmered in the sky of human effort. -Wilson Mirror.

HON. F. M. SIMMONS:

To Succeed Mr. E. C. Smith as Chairman of the State Executive Committee.

The State Democratic Executive Committee assembled here yesterday according to call to elect a State chairman and to transact other business necessary for the coming campaign. There were thirty-eight present and an afternoon and evening session were held. The election of a chairman coming up Gen. W. P. Roberts nominated Mr. Ed. Chambers Smith to succeed himself.

In nominating Mr. Smith, Gen. Roberts, paid him a graceful and deserved tribute. He said that Mr. Smith was called to the chairmanship at a time when there were great political complications in the State; that he immediately assumed the responsible duties of the trust, comprehended the situation, and discharged his duties creditably to himself and to the success of the party. Under his administration as chairman the party won a greater victory two years ago than ever before in the history of the State and since the last election the complications had increased, but Mr. Smith never had at any time lost his balance and that the late State Convention had been one of the largest in the history of the party and one of the most harmonious. He said this much as simple justice to Mr. Smith who had held the helm of the Democratic party firmly but wisely. Mr. Smith was unanimously re-elected, and upon being notified of the fact, appeared before the committee and expressed his appreciation of the honor and his inability to accept the position again. He thanked the committee warmly, and assured them that his best endeavors should be given to advance the interests of the party and the cause of Democratic success.

The following resolution was then passed:

Resolved, That this committee extend to E. C. Smith, Esq., its thanks for the valuable services he has rendered the Democratic party in the conduct of its affairs.

Hon. F. M. Simmons, of New Berne, was then unanimously elected chairman, and the election of a secretary was referred to the Central Committee with power to act.

In the third district Mr. Frank Thompson was elected to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Dr. Cyrus Thompson as a member of the committee, and Mr. A. D. McGill to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of H. A. McSwain, also of the third district. In the fourth district Hon. C. M. Cooke was elected in place of J. C. Neal, resigned, and J. H. Pon to succeed J. J. Young, Mr. Young being elected a member of the Central Committee.

The best of feeling prevailed and the outlook for the Democratic party was regarded as most encouraging. There is every indication of a determination to elect Cleveland and Carr in North Carolina by a large majority. The committee adjourned at 11 o'clock, p. m. -Raleigh Chronicle.
