FOOD AND DIAMONDS ON MOSCOW MARKETS

By the Associated Press.
Moscow, Aug. 16.—Diamonds and food are the chief attractions in the great open air markets of Moscow, which are running full blast this summer after several years of inactivity.

Food of all kinds is to be had in abundance, there being many varieties of vegetables and fruit, as well as butter, eggs, meat, flour, and canned goods. The display reminds one of a market in the United States. The prices generally are higher than in America. The meats, fresh, dried and smoked, are heaped in enormous piles in the small stall in front of which the Moscow housewives assemble in throngs all day long in search of their wants of the moment.

Tons of potatoes, and fresh vegetables just from the fields, are dumped into the stall in the morning. Women of the neighborhood fill their baskets and then hurry from the market place in an endless procession which continues until late in the afternoon.

Seeing the heaps of food of all kinds, even bottled pickles from London, it is difficult for foreign visitors to realize that in various parts of Russia today the American Relief Administration alone is feeding approximately 10,000,000 persons, chiefly as a result of effects brought about by war, revolution, and the famine of last year.

In the diamond and jewelry section of the markets the dealers, chiefly women, sit in long rows displaying their wares on their fingers and about their necks. Their blouses and shirt waists serve as a background for brooches, ear rings, necklaces, tiny jeweled watches, and other articles of personal adornment which came down from the aristocracy perhaps through want and the "pawnee" route.

The diamonds are not of the best, but it is here that the largest crowds assemble, even in greater numbers than the food stall. Some are endeavoring to sell, others are hagglng over the price of a stone, watch, or some other piece of jewelry. The brighter the sum the greater the crowd in the row where the diamonds are shown. Many of the onlookers obviously are attracted by the sparkling gems—yellow perhaps, and speckled with carbon, but diamonds still, and good for tired, hungry eyes which for a change long for a feast of jewels as a reminder of other days.

MOVING PICTURES TO BE SHOWN IN FORBIDDEN LHASA

London, Aug. 30.—Thibet, it is hoped, will not much longer be the land of mystery. Nor will the great outside world, it is expected, continue to be the great land of the unknown to the Thibetans. They are to be offered an opportunity of seeing, on the movies, something of the wonders to be found in the vast world beyond Thibet. In exchange it is hoped they will allow cinematograph pictures to be taken of the wonders of Thibet for people of other lands to see.

A cable just received in London announces the arrival in Calcutta of the members of the British mission to Thibet. They have begun the long and difficult journey on foot through the Himalayas.

On their way to Darjeeling the mission visited the Bodhidruma (or "Tree of Intelligence"), the sacred fig tree under which, according to Buddhist tradition, Buddha was sitting in contemplation when he attained the perfect wisdom. A film is to be taken of the tree and of the pilgrims visiting it, and it is hoped to show these pictures to the Dalai Lama in Lhasa itself. Films of wild animals and the various aspects of the outside world are also being carried in order to offer to the highest Thibetan authorities the first cinematograph exhibition ever given in their famous city.

One of the objects in displaying the wonders and possibilities of moving pictures is to secure permission for making film records of the country and its people.

BRITISH HIGH OFFICIAL RELINQUISHES BIG PENSION

London, Aug. 30.—Lord Strathclyde has astonished the official world by voluntarily relinquishing the pension of £3,750 a year that was granted him seven years ago when he retired from the office of Lord Advocate for Scotland, where he was getting £55,000 a year.

He is 69 years old and declares his reason for giving up the pension is able, owing to weak health, to take part in the judicial work of the House of Lords. That has only increased the surprise his action has occasioned, such an exhibit of public spirit is rare indeed.

The British government makes generous provision for the future welfare of its best-paid office holders when they join the ranks of those who have retired. The speaker of the house of commons has a salary of £5,000 a year; he may retire whenever he wants to and enjoy a life pension of £4,000 a year. The Lord Chancellor, who fills a role in the house of lords analogous to the speaker of the house of commons, receives a salary of £10,000 a year and retired pay of £55,000.

GRAMPS, PAINS AND BACKACHE

St. Louis Woman Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

St. Louis, Mo.—"I was bothered with cramps and pains every month and had backache and had to go to bed as I could not work. My mother and my whole family always took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for such troubles and they induced me to try it and it has helped me very much. I don't have cramps any more, and I can do my housework all through the month. I recommend your Vegetable Compound to my friends for female troubles."—Mrs. DELLA SCHOLZ, 1412 Salisbury Street, St. Louis, Mo.

Just think for a moment. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been in use for nearly fifty years. It is prepared from medicinal plants, by the utmost pharmaceutical skill, and superior methods. The ingredients thus combined in the Compound correct the conditions which cause such annoying symptoms as had been troubling Mrs. Scholz. The Vegetable Compound exercises a restorative influence of the most desirable character, correcting the trouble in a gentle but efficient manner. This is noted, by the disappearance, one after another, of the disagreeable symptoms.
