The blaze of the diamond—the luster of the pearl—the glitter of gold—While these have an intrinsic value this is not why they are most desired.

They are prized most because of their power to lend distinction—that indelible distinction that has characterized those of refinement and good taste of all ages. Our goods and service have distinction that characterizes the Bisanar store.

REAL ESTATE DEALS

Miss Gertrude Finger has purchased from Mr. J. L. Cilley a lot on the corner of Eleventh avenue and Tenth street, part of the Dr. Monroe property and will erect a handsome residence on it this spring. Mr. Albert L. Deal has bought the lot next to his residence and Mr. F. Winter has purchased the same place facing on Tenth avenue.

HERE FOR FUNERAL

Misses Sarah White, Mattie Lou Pugh, Emma Johnson, Elizabeth Read, Susie Meyers, Dorothy Ivoy and Edward Clement, students at the Greensboro College and Misses Louise Elliott and Mary White of Mitchell College, Statesville, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon to attend the funeral today of their friend, Miss Kate Shuford.

Misses Elizabeth Read and Louise Elliott are stopping with Miss Mary Allen, Miss Bessie Johnson with Miss Mattie Lou Russell at Granite Falls and Misses Mary and Sarah White are stopping with Miss Edward Clement. Misses Russell, Johnson and White were guests today of Miss Ivoy.

CIRCLE MEETS

Circle No. 2, of the Baptist Missionary Society met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. T. L. Henkel on Eleventh avenue. Seven members were present and Mrs. Augustus was welcomed as a visitor.

Mrs. A. J. Essex, leader, had charge of the mission study class and the book for study, "Making America Christian" proved very interesting.

The next meeting will be held on Monday afternoon, March 7, the hostess to be announced later.

CIRCLE MEETS

Circle number two M. E. church met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. E. E. Anderson at her home on Eighth street.

Mrs. Wilburn C. Thomson, the newly elected chairman had charge of the meeting, which was a splendid one there being twenty six present.

Mrs. Anderson, assisted by her three children, Mildred, Irvin and Hoyle served cream and cake, a valentine suggestion, the cream being in the shape of a heart.

Mrs. Eugene Nichols will be hostess to the circle in March.

WITH MRS. GARTH

A business and social meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society of the First Presbyterian church was held at the home of Mrs. Voorheis Garth last night and very much enjoyed by the large crowd present.

The usual business session was held followed by a social hour during which a puzzle contest was held. An especially amusing feature of the evening was the contest in which the guests with the aid of a toothpick and chewing gum formed elephants on a piece of cardboard.

Much fun resulted from the fishing pond, the guests fishing for favors on which their fortune was written.

During the evening the hostess served a delicious salad course.

B. Y. P. U. SOCIAL

Mrs. W. R. Bradshaw ad Mrs. E. N. Carr entertained the members of the B. Y. P. U. of the First Baptist church at a most enjoyable social last night.

Beautiful decorations, suggestive of St. Valentine were used, with hearts predominating.

Upon arrival the guests were given hearts with pictures and told to write a valentine to each other. These were read aloud and furnished much amusement. Other interesting games played were threading the needle's eye in which Miss Veda Lutz excelled, threading six needles in two minutes, hunting a string to which a peanut containing stunts, was attached and filling in missing words in verse.

Music notes by Misses Ellen Carper and Mildred Bowles were much enjoyed as was the vocal solo by Miss Bertha Deaton. Delicious refreshments consisting of ice cream and cake were served.

MISS SPRINGS HOSTESS

Yesterday afternoon Miss Helen Springs was hostess at an interesting meeting of the Do As You Please Club at her home on Twelfth avenue. In addition to the club members those present were Miss Katherine Shuford, Miss Evangeline Elyon, Miss Lucy Poindexter, Mrs. C. C. Gamble, Mrs. Munn, house guest of Miss Frances Getner, Mrs. Arthur Courtney and Mrs. E. C. Johnson.

During the business session the club decided to adopt for another year, Maria Robert, an eight year old French orphan, who has been their ward for the past two years. Miss Robert's father was killed during the world war and the little maid is left alone with her mother. The club sends clothing to France for the little girl also nearly $50 a year for her maintenance. To raise funds for her the club will hold an apron sale in the spring.

After the business meeting the regular program was enjoyed with the hostess outlining in brief her book "The Drums of Jeopardy" by Peter B. Kine, reading a biographical sketch of his life.

Assisted by Mrs. E. C. Johnson the hostess served a salad course after which the club adjourned to meet two weeks later with Miss Katherine Taylor.

EXCHANGING PULPITS

There is a general exchange of pulpits in Concord Presbyterian Sunday. Dr. E. M. Craig will be in Marion and Rev. J. E. Story the popular Marion pastor will preach in Hickory at the First Presbyterian church. While in Hickory Mr. Story will be entertained in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Shuford, reviving friendship made in Oklahoma some years ago.

DOLLAR DAY HERE ON THURSDAY FEB. 24

With merchants arranging their stocks preparatory to next Thursday's Dollar Day, and the already existing a lively interest in the event, the prospects are for the greatest single trade day ever known in Hickory. Practically every retailer in the city has made out special lists of values and articles after articles are being added. Nothing but good values, it is declared, will be put on.

Recent subscribers will want to save Tuesday's paper in which the offerings will be announced, and many will make lists of the things they want.

The weather forecast is for cold weather next week, but the skies will be fair, it is indicated, and the roads fairly good and people will have no difficulty in getting to town from all parts of this section.

The Record has received from Congressman Clyde R. Hoey a mail sack full of government free seed including beet, carrot, lettuce, radish and tomato, and the e will be given out on Thursday as long as the packages last. Only those who can use the seeds are expected to call for them. Don't call before Thursday.

When you see here for Dollar Day just drop around at the Record office and obtain a package.

ALL DAY MEETING

An all day meeting of the Ladies' Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian church was held at the manse yesterday. The society has been studying the book "Bible and Missions" and an all day study was made of it yesterday, the book being completed in the afternoon. The members brought lunches and luncheon was served at 12 o'clock, a recess of an hour following lunch.

Mrs. E. B. Menzies arranged the program and interesting talks were made by Mrs. E. M. Craig, Mrs. C. L. Crane and Mrs. E. B. Menzies.

The meeting which was very interesting and helpful, was largely attended, with practically all members of the church being present some time during the day.

CHARMING BILLIE BURKE

PASTIME TODAY
The attraction at the Pastime theatre today will be Charming Billie Burke in her latest 1921, Paramount picture "The Education of Elizabeth" adapted from the play by Roy H. Merman. "The Education of Elizabeth" is a captivating story of a chorus girl just the type of character Miss Burke best knows how to portray. Aside from its interest and appeal as a superb picture story, this photocomedy enables Miss Burke to appear in some remarkably beautiful gowns, master creations of master modistes. There are beautiful girls, handsome men and in every other respect this production is one of the highest class.

Added attraction, Pathé News and "Cash Customers" a Snub Pollard comedy. Special music tonight by Mrs. Hatcher. Monday a big Paramount special "Inside the Cup" from Winston Churchill's celebrated novel, which created such a great furore several years ago, whether you read the book or not you will doubtless want to see this splendid picture. It is a massive Paramount photoplay directed by Albert Capellani the great French producer. The story is one of tremendous dramatic force and the heart appeal is irresistible. It is interpreted by highly artistic players and the photography is of a high order of excellence.

"The Inside of the Cup" is artistic. We recommend it to you. If you fail to see it you miss an entertainment that is distinctly worth while.

Director Albert Capellani, however has paid more attention to the dramatic features of the story than the philosophy which makes the book almost unforgettable. The scenes are thrilling and the heart appeal culminating in the fruition of a love romance, is irresistible.

The various roles of "The Inside of the Cup" are portrayed by picked players. The leading man is William P. Carleton, who has been seen in support of such stars as John Barrymore, Elsie Ferguson and Irene Castle. Lillian Hallor, a charming actress who secured a great hit in "Leave it to Jane" is leading woman. Others in the cast include such well known players as David Torrence, Jack Bohn, Marmorie Clayton, Margaret Siddons, Richard Carlyle, Albert Rosconi and Frank A. Lyon, all artists in their respective lines of characterization.

CARD OF THANKS

To our many friends we wish to thank you for the kindness shown during the fatal illness and death of our beloved mother, Mrs. Harlin Kendrick.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Duncan, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Hartison, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Burns, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Kendrick.

E. L. Hine & Company has purchased a Peo speed wagon from Johnson's Garage.
