The Reasons Why You Should Cook By Wire

Sixty-three users of Electric Ranges found them clean, easy to operate, cheaper than wood or coal and delightful. No sweltering heat, no grime, no flushed faces after cooking a meal on them.

Ask any of the following users of our electric ranges what they think of them. Then ask us for a demonstration.

MONTH OF MAY, 1921

Table listing names and addresses of 63 electric range users from May 1921, including J. A. Moretz, Grover Huffman, Rev. Jno. C. Peery, etc.

THE "NEXT WAR"

Annconda Standard. In the next war it will be the concern of the Henry Fords of the period to get the boys out of the skies instead of the trenches.

WANDA HAWLEY PASTIME TODAY "Don't spoil your wife and then blame her for the consequences" is the theme of The House That Jazz Built, a clever and original domestic comedy featuring beautiful Wanda Hawley, who won fame as the star in "Everywoman" which will be shown at the Pastime theatre today.

From the Saturday Evening Post story, "Sweetie Peach" by Sophie Kerr. The story of a wife who was spoiled by too much money, idleness and luxury. A vamp nearly got her husband, but the wife came to her senses in the nick of time and won him back.

A comedy drama that is a lesson to those whose home life is troubled and a warning to those who are happily married. Added attraction "Fellow Romans" a Snub Pollard Comedy. Monday, Douglas Fairbanks in "Bound in Morocco" an Artcraft Picture (extra engagement). The admirers of Mr. Fairbanks will find this photoplay one of most delightful of the Fairbanks series. It is a novel theme handled with the greatest artistry, and splendidly directed, it is in every respect, an extraordinary picture attraction.

In this photoplay, Mr. Fairbanks portrays the role of an optimistic sailing and brave young American who has remarkable adventures in El Harib, a town on the edge of the Sahara Desert. He battles against big odds to save a girl from the clutches of a cruel despot and plays some wonderful pranks.

The support provided for Mr. Fairbanks is of the highest class. The players include Pauline Curley, Frank Campeau, Edythe Chapman, Tully Marshall and others.

FUNERAL OF MR. WINEBARGER The funeral of Mr. Anderson Winebarger, who died at his home at Brookford hursday, was held from Miller's church yesterday by Rev. J. E. Barb. He was 75 years of age and death was due to a stroke of paralysis.

Despite the late frost there is to be a bumper crop of bathing suits.—Chicago News.

PLACING EXCHANGE IN GOOD CONDITION

Owing to the placing of the new switchboard and the changes now being made in the office, the Hickory Telephone Company is unable to render good service, but it urges its patrons to bear with it until the installation is complete. The new board and connections are being made with the least possible annuoyance to patrons, but that in a few weeks, or thereabouts, the inside work will be completed a few weeks, or thereabouts. In the meantime, patrons who are rendered out of service, will be compensated for the completion of the work.

While the health and vigor hold out, put some money away in the Bank. Illustration of a man sitting at a desk with a 'BANK BOOK'.

It's not "all right," but "all wrong" to go carelessly along spending all you make. The time will come when you will need the money you are throwing away in extravagance. Money is always a SURE FRIEND. When you make this sure friend, don't cash him' aside. DON'T do it. BANK YOUR Money.
