John Duval Dodge, Detroit millionaire, has been sentenced to five days in jail for driving an automobile three miles in excess of the speed limit, and in addition was fined $100. In Kalamazoo this son of the late automobile manufacturer faces more serious charges—speeding and driving his car while in an intoxicated condition. It was Judge Charles L. Bartlett of Detroit who sent the millionaire to jail.

This is really the first time that Hickory has had a real political fight since the Record was established. It is not like the fight we have been used to, though. In most places the candidates and their friends use the newspapers and leave several hundred dollars of filthy lucre in good hands. We are terribly disappointed that politics isn't done that way here.

We don't know Isidor Wallace of Statesville, but he is the right sort of man. His gift of 30 acres for a park in the western part of the town stamps him as a citizen who appreciates the opportunities for service to his community. There are just a few in the world who can do a thing like that—turn loose valuable property for the benefit of the community.

The hard surfaced road from Blowing Rock to Charlotte is a bit nearer realization. The awarding of the contract for the completion of the Lincoln county link to Maiden means that before the year is out ten more miles will be completed. One of the next contracts to be awarded will be the link between Newton and Maiden.

New York city magistrate has started an investigation of the American cotton exchange and warrants have been issued for several officers including ex-Judge A. W. Graham, president, and formerly of Oxford, N. C.

If the federal child labor law had been declared unconstitutional, the supreme court would have handed down its decision in Washington. It is possible, however, that there has been a leak, though we should not care to risk much on that.

What we should like to read about most is the development of the Rhodiss or Horseford power plants. They will be made to hum sooner or later, but nobody probably knows the exact time.

We note that the Davie Record continues to give about half of its front page to writers who dispute on points in the Bible. Practical theologians devote themselves more these days to helping humanity than to confusing men's minds.

Durant is to put an automobile on the market that will sell for $348 at the factory. Still, there will be quite a few other cars sold.

It is politics, we suppose, but it does seem like a treaty negotiated by a Democratic administration is as bad as a treaty engineered by a Republican crowd.

We'll say those good women who prepared the Rotary dinner last evening know how to feed. And they are good looking, too.

At any rate Hickory people had the opportunity of hearing the side as presented by the Ku Klux Klan's best speaker in this state.

Our spies reported at 3:30 this afternoon that municipal politics is growing warm.

CHURCH IS BLOWN DOWN NEAR MURPHY STOCK KILLED
 Murphy, March 17.—A Baptist church and barn were blown over during severe rain and wind storms which visited Cherokee county Monday. A horse and a cow were reported killed by falling timber and while the rainfall was very heavy, no damage other than the cases cited has been reported to Murphy.
 Storms are very unusual in Cherokee county, which serves to make this one all the more noticeable.

RUTHERFORD COLLEGE WINS
 An interesting game of baseball was enjoyed by the Hickory and Rutherford College fans yesterday afternoon on the latter's diamond.
 The score was very close throughout the whole game, but at the end it was a six to five victory for the Rutherford College nine.
 The Hickory boys played a snappy game, their good fielding and Jones's good pitching kept the Rutherford team from running away with them.

HICKORY CAVALRY IS NOW TROOP F

Capt. Walter C. Taylor was advised today that Hickory cavalry troop had been changed from C to F, 109th cavalry. The outfit can use several more good men, the commander said, and application may be made at once. The troop probably will go to Camp McClelland, Ala., for maneuvers in August.
