The Rose Killian Circus showed here one day recently, the first time a lion had ever roared on the campus at Old Trinity. This lion seemed to have good lungs, as his voice was heard for a considerable distance in the country.

Julian Elder was on the streets of Trinity last Friday. Mr. Elder is a life insurance agent.

Mrs. Mary Ingram, of High Point, has been visiting her father, Mr. David White.

Allen Mitchell is on a visit to home folks.

Miss Nora Dobson, of Winston-Salem, is visiting Miss Kate Craven.

Mr. W. N. Elder, well known throughout Randolph county, has been visiting his sons, Drs. Lane and Jeffrey Elder, at Hopewell, Va., for some time. Mr. Elder looked in upon Washington D. C., and Richmond, Va., while away from home, and also spent some time in the delightful Shenandoah Valley of the Old Dominion. We gladly welcome Mr. Elder back to Trinity.

Mr. Earl Craven was in town a few days ago. Mr. Craven has lived in Lexington for a good many years, but he does not forget his old home place.

Misses Ida Ingram and Rebecca Parrish, from Lansdowne, attended church here Sunday.

HIGHT POINT ROUTE 4 NEWS.

(By Mary A. Clodfelter.)
Married—Roy Reed to Mrs. Everhart Julie on last Sunday.

The road is being newly top-soiled from Abbot's Creek to John Mocks, and from the little creek to Lee Johnson's. The road is in a bad condition at this time.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hines, a boy.

The school opened for the fall term Sept. 8th, with Prof. Kirchsey as principal. Most all the old teachers are back. We feel sure that Prof. Kirchey will do his part in having a good school.

Willie Smith treated himself and family to a Dodge car, and now he is dodging around.

We are glad that the labor situation is settled and have all gone to work again.

There is some selling tobacco around here. It seems as if everybody has tobacco and they are selling it too at a good price.

The health of the community is very good at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Clodfelter spent Saturday of last week in High Point.

D. E. Clodfelter carried a load of tobacco to Winston, for Dick Myers, Thursday, which brought $708.16. I don't know the average, but it was good. We were in hopes that it would not be so high as so many people will not raise anything else but tobacco.

Shopping with Assurance

IT'S a great satisfaction, isn't it to know that when you purchase an article, it's quality and it's price are above reproach?

You can buy such articles with quiet sureness. There will be no come-backs—no regrets—no trouble and wrangling and no doubtful merchandise.

This, then, is the established reputation of our Store. You can be sure. "Everything I ever bought there was Dependable," is so often said of us and our way of doing business. And, in the long run, it pays. We keep our old customers—and are constantly making new friends.

And the things you buy of a Jeweler must be right. There should and can be no middle ground of worth. They are either Right or Wrong. Watches—cut glass—silver—rings—diamonds—all of these must measure up to a certain quality standard.

Wherever possible, we keep guaranteed articles—we either guarantee them ourselves or we know that the manufacturer himself does—as for instance the W.W.W. line of Gem Set Rings. They come to us covered by a dependable assurance.
