GAVE UP SEA FLIGHT

Daring Crew Picked up by Ocean Liner.

SAILED 850 MILES OVER OCEAN

When the Five Navigators Left Big Air Craft the Balloon Shot Away Into Unknown Space—Three Days in Air.

New York.—The attempt of the Wellman airship America to cross the Atlantic ocean came to a thrilling and disastrous close when the British mail steamer Trent picked up Wellman and his crew from the wreck of the airship, 375 miles off the North Carolina coast. The news of the rescue came in two wireless messages from Capt. Down, of the Trent, one reporting to the company's agents here, and another informing the New York Times of the result of the expedition in which it had taken a leading part. Both wireless messages practically told the same story.

Signals of distress and calls for help were given. For three hours the Trent maneuvered in the heavy sea to get alongside of Wellman and his wrecked companions. The entire party were finally taken on board including the cat, which was taken along as the mascot, shared in the rescue.

The America was abandoned where the rescue occurred in latitude 35.43, longitude 68.18. This brings to a climax one of the most remarkable flights by an airship ever undertaken. That the climax was not accompanied by a tragedy is considered a matter of exceptionally good fortune.

The crew of the airship America, in abandoning their craft, lowered themselves in the life boat which swung beneath it. They cast life-boat off and were aloft in the sea. The airship, relieved of the weight of the lifeboat and crew, shot up high into the air and was rapidly blown away. The transfer of the Wellman party from the lifeboat to the Trent was effected with much difficulty.

The total distance covered by the balloon appears to have been approximately 850 miles.

GREAT CATHOLIC EVENT.

Belmont Cathedral Abney Erected With Impressive Ceremony.

Belmont, N. C.—An ecclesiastical coronation of rare brilliance, splendor and magnificence, in content and in essence unexampled on either of the American continents, brought the Old World and the New closer than ever here. Selected by the Holy Father, Pope Pius, as deserving the most signal mark of favor and approbation which lies in his power to bestow, Belmont Abbey received the formal notification of its promotion to the rank of Abbatia Nullius with unfeigned joy and gratitude.

As the bearer of the official document from the Pope, and as his personal representative, Monsignor Diomedeo Falconio, apostolic delegate to the United States of America, with residence in Washington, lent the distinction of his presence to the occasion and in a brief address lauded the Benedictine order for its great work for humanity and the Roman Catholic church. The reading of the papal bull, the remarks by Monsignor Falconio and a feeling response from Bishop Hald, Vicar Apostolic of North Carolina, followed a pontifical mass.

School Bars Hobbles.

Salt Lake, Utah.—The hobble skirt is under the ban in the Salt Lake public schools. Girls presuming to appear in such garb in classes will be sent home.

This is the ruling of the board of education, following an accident to Miss Merie Williams, a school girl. She was wearing a hobble skirt when she stumbled on it, fell down three flights of stairs and was picked up unconscious. She will recover.

Cotton Samples For $35.

Washington.—The department of agriculture has announced that it is prepared to supply the nine official grades of white American cotton recently promulgated by the secretary of agriculture. The grades will be furnished at $35 a set, the cost of their preparation, as required by law. The sale is begun in accordance with the recommendation of the committee of cotton experts, upon whose advice the grades were established, that they be issued for general use.

Long Tail Hogs Wanted.

Baton Rouge, La.—Large hogs with long tails are scarce in this section according to Dr. E. P. Flower, secretary of the State Sanitary Live Stock Board. Dr. Flower has been advertising without result for the long-tailed variety of swine for use in hog cholera experiments, the blood from which serum is made being taken from the tail of the hog, and the longer the tail of the hog, the more serum can be extracted.

RALEIGH AND THE STATE.

WAGE EARNERS' CONDITION.

Commissioner Shipman Makes Public Some Interesting Facts.

Reporting from or rather enlarging upon the specified scope of his report as required in the act creating his department, Commissioner of Labor and Printing N. L. Shipman is adding to his 1910 report a feature showing the general condition affecting wage earners in a broad sense of the term as shown through reports from correspondents in every section of the State, themselves engaged in the "trades," this instead of confining the report to relations of labor and capital, hours of labor, earnings of laboring men and women, their education, moral and financial condition and the best means of promoting their mental, material, social and moral prosperity." Commenting on the deductions from the reports from his correspondents among the trades people, Commissioner Shipman says in the introduction to the labor chapter of his forthcoming report:

"The wage-earners have not yet been able to recover the favorable conditions which prevailed for some years prior to 1907. A sense of depression, probably, affects this class of the citizens' citizenship more than any other, in that it forces them out of permanent employment and brings about the necessity of searching for positions or remaining in enforced idleness. It may be suggested truthfully, however, that these avocations commonly termed the "trades" and embracing representatives possessing experience and ability have afforded employment more regularly, if at reduced wages, than the daily wage-worker in many of the mill districts, lumber plants and other industrial centers, where the more efficient class of labor is not in demand. But while general conditions are yet unfavorable there are comparatively few skilled laborers, willing to work for a reasonable wage, out of employment in any section of the State.

The commissioner states the following as the average wages for the different trades: Barbers, $1.50; blacksmiths, $1.58; brick-masons, $2.75; boiler-makers, $3.24; cabinet-makers, $1.75; carpenters, $1.95; conductors, $3.35; engineers, $1; firemen, $1.45; lathers, $2.25; letter carriers, $2.65; linotype operators, $3.51; machinists, $2.10; molders, $2.50; motormen, $2; painters, $1.80; pattern-makers, $2; plasterers, $3; pressmen, $2.40; printers, $3.25; salesmen, $2.50; section foremen, $1.85; stone masons, $2.25; wipers, $1.15.

The summary sets out that increase in wages is reported from 34 per cent of the correspondents with 46 per cent working by the day, 44 per cent by the week, 11 per cent by the month and 8 per cent by the year; 3 per cent by the day or job, 4 per cent by the hour.

Other percentages show that are especially interesting: 53 per cent make full time and 29 per cent work overtime; 91 per cent report cost of living increased; 20 per cent favor ten-hour day, 59 per cent eight-hour day, 16 per cent nine-hour day and one per cent a six-hour day; 86 per cent favor fixing limits of day's work by law and 8 per cent oppose it; 17 per cent report financial condition good; 38 per cent report financial conditions improving; 90 per cent report educational condition improving, and 9 per cent no improvement; 73 per cent report improvement in morals and 23 per cent no improvement.

Bishop Smith Dead.

Bishop John Wesley Smith, of the African Methodist Episcopal Second church, presiding over the Sixth Episcopal District, died at his home at Washington, D. C. He was a native of North Carolina, and served as pastor of churches at New Haven, Conn., Baltimore, Md., Carlisle and Harrisburg, Pa., and Charlotte. In 1904 he was elevated to the bench of bishops. At the time of his death he was serving as presiding officer of the board of bishops.

Chinese Traits.

The Chinese are orderly, law abiding and well behaved; they have a strong sense of right and justice—are fair minded; they are reliable in commercial dealings—pay their debts and keep their agreements, whether verbal or written; they are dutiful to parents, fond of children and mindful of etiquette and punctilious about returning courtesies or favors; they are respectful to elders and superiors; they honor and respect character and intellectual ability, and do not recognize an aristocracy of wealth. This list might be largely extended, but it is enough to show what I have undertaken to show—that China has not by any means to seek abroad all the requisites for national greatness, and popular welfare; some of the most important are here already.—Address to Students at St John's College, Shanghai.
