

HAVE YOU BEEN DOWN TO FISHER'S

AND BOUGHT SOME OF HIS FINE EXTRACTS WHICH HE IS SELLING

TWENTY PER CENT BELOW REGULAR SELLING PRICES?

Yes, and they are the best on this market. And while I was there, I tried his Antonio Roig Cigars. They are the best in town for 5 cents. That is what people are saying about my Extracts and Cigars. Come and try them yourself and be convinced.

E. D. FISHER, Ph. G.

RAMSEY CASE IS ON!

The Lawyers at It Now and They Talk in Earnest.

Mr. James Manning Gives the Jury His Views This A. M.

LAWYER PARKER TALKING THIS P. M.

People Who Come and Go—Brief Briefs of Interest to All Readers of The Globe.

The Ramsey case is still on, and will be on perhaps until to-morrow.

Lawyer Manning appeared this morning for Ramsey, and as is his custom made a very able talk.

Mr. Parker is talking this afternoon for Check and that is about the whole business, up to date, in the slander case. Who will win depends much, in this first trial, on the jury.

That is to say, the lawyers' talks will have something to do with it all.

Let us hold our noses.

LIVE LOCAL LINKS.

The Day's Record of Current Events in the City and Vicinity.

—First-class line of fruits of all kinds at Powell & Co's always fresh.

—For rent—nice brick store cheap—good stand. Apply at this office.

—A fine pure-white ladies' gauze vest for 10 cents, at DURHAM SUPPLY CO.

—Mr. Lawrence Duke has accepted a position with the Durham Supply company.

—Master Robert Faucett has accepted a position with the Durham Supply company.

—The man who steals sweet potato plants, can not sell them to the Yam Farm.

—The public generally would like to know what has become of the street sprinkler.

—As a personal mention it might be well to say that the whole town is out of town today.

—It was a big crowd and a merry crowd that left Durham this morning bound for Halifax Court House.

—Lost, a memorandum book on Morris or Chapel Hill street. Leave at THE GLOBE office, and receive reward.

—The wheat harvest is wild on and the crop is a good one. In fact all crops as far as reported are good this year.

—Remember the big June clearance sale is now on at the DURHAM SUPPLY CO.

The furniture is being placed in the Hotel Carolina and everything being gotten in readiness for the opening July 1.

—The street sprinkler is not in it these days, and the professor with the festive spirit is simply a reminiscence and a regret.

—It is now estimated that the Confederate monument will cost about $20,000. Three-fourths of its amount has been raised.

—Governor Carr expects to attend the 4th of July celebration at the Guilford Battle Ground unless executive duties shall interfere.

—The sidewalk around the First National bank corner is receiving its last coat of asphalt, and the building itself is fast nearing completion.

—First-class sewing machine, original cost $24, our price $16. We warrant machine. Money refunded if machine is not satisfactory. J. D. COLLINS, Bee Hive.

—The last of the visitors who came to attend the commencement have returned home, and Durham has gotten down to business again and is humming along in the old way.

—People who did not go on the excursion this morning, as well as those who went, are having a day off. Main Street never looked so lonesome as it did this morning.

—The commencement exercises of the N. C. A. & M. college are now in progress. To-morrow will be the big day—annual address by Hon. Henry Watterson, graduating exercises, closing with a reception and other festivities incident upon such occasions

—Prices are twinkling you a fascinating welcome at the Durham Supply Co. Big June clearance sale in clothing and furnishings for Saturday and Monday. DURHAM SUPPLY CO.

—Mayor Peay tells us that, and he will not be sure, but anyhow, there was no police court this morning. If the picnics did not cause it, he is glad, because that will mean much to the town every day.

—East Durham is losing no time these days; houses are going up in every direction while new fences and a liberal use of paint plainly indicate that people living in that end of town are building homes and are generally prosperous.

—The revival meeting at Carr church increases in interest. The converts number nearly a hundred, among them being some who have been regarded heretofore as hardened disbelievers. In a religious way the community is having a lively awakening.

—The Jack Frost Ice-Cream Freezer does its work quicker than any other machine. It saves ice. It saves time. It saves a mess. Just look at the machine. It is the greatest out. If you do not think so, don't buy it. But see the machine first.

—THE GLOBE acknowledges an invitation to be present at the final celebration of the forty-second anniversary of the Franklin Literary Society of Horner Military school, Oxford. Prof. W. S. Currell will deliver the annual address and the occasion promises to be of unusual interest.

—The Durham Buggy company has a limited number of buggies on hand which it will close out at a great reduction to wind up its affairs. Those in want of a bargain would do well to see Howerton & Bro., who have the buggies for sale, or call on or address L. W. Wise or T. B. Farthing.

—The memorandum book lost on Morris or Chapel Hill street, and advertised in THE GLOBE, belongs to Mr. Bob Gattis and he is thereby caused much inconvenience. He will pay $5 reward to the party returning it, and as it is of no possible value to any one else, it will be money in the pocket of the finder to return it at once.

—Mr. McKissick, traveling agent for the new fangled coffee pot and urn, has met with great success in Durham. He has sold already seventy, and has not completed his canvas. Mr. McKissick will remain in Durham but a few days longer and all should avail themselves of the opportunity offered by him. See his advertisement in this issue.

Ventilation.
not the politicians' sort, but the fresh air you need. Health and comfort often suffer for this kind of ventilation. Never sleep in a poor ventilated room. You'll wake up unfreshed, out of sorts, and bilious. Perhaps you can't improve the ventilation, but you can take Simmons Liver Regulator for that torpid liver, to keep it active against the ill effects of a close atmosphere which causes that languid feeling.

NOW IS YOUR CHANCE.

And It Is the Last Chance You Have for a Bargain.

I have received this day a large stock of the celebrated Jack Frost Ice Cream Freezers, and propose to close it out at once.

Those who have ordered machines will please call at once and get them. Those who want to buy the best ice cream freezer on earth, will call and avail themselves of the opportunity and prices I now offer. I am the exclusive agent for this celebrated machine in Durham county. I can deliver you a machine in five minutes time, and I will guarantee it to do all I claim for it.

HE IS IN IT NOW!

Duck Williams Goes to Jail for Stealing To-day.

The Evidence Was That He Took a Watch Smoothly.

HIS WITNESSES DID NOT HELP HIM

A Drink of Whiskey Takes All of This Business and Causes Much Hardship.

Tom Evans made a complaint against Duck Williams for stealing a watch. Fletcher Faulkner, Eugene Thompson, and others were witnesses.

Eugene Thompson said that Williams gave up the watch for two drinks at his bar. Williams wanted other witnesses and sent for John Evans. John could give no information and the court held that Williams would be held in a sum of $50.00. No one was found for his bond and he was locked up this afternoon.

The watch was a sorry one, and the legal case also was sorry.

Duck Williams seems to be getting the web around him.

We know nothing about what he will prove. He could not give bond, and he will stay in jail some time.

To Cleanse the System
