s the best that Col. Boyd ran d... o wonder that his Republican lends were disappointed in his speech. Did the colonel "happen" to be appointed Assistant Attorney General? No. It was done because he is a leading politician in his party.
It is for the same reason that negroes are appointed to office in Eastern North Carolina. It does not "happen." It is done to get the negro vote and the negro is ambitious of the honor of having white men under him as he works the public roads.

North Carolina Leads.

Wilmington Messenger.

North Garolina is the leading manufacturing State in the South, and some idea may be had of the growth of the cotton mill industry when the statistics are examined. The statistics up to August 31, 1897, show that North Carolina has 1,018,303 spindles in operation, the second largest number in the South. South Garolina has a few more spindles but North Carolina has more mills than any other Southern State. She has 186 mills, including those under construction, out of 491 mills in the South—nearly 40 per cent of the entire factories in the South.

Organize.

Wilmington Messenger.

Again and again has the Messenger urged the White Men to organize in every township. Let all the counties be perfectly organized. That means house to house work—getting all who are against negro rule to unite to save civilization, to secure good government, to restore law and order, to rid the whites of negro rule, which means degradation, corruption, oppression and if continued, revolution. Organize! Organize!! Organize!!!

For White Supremacy.

Red Springs Citizen.

Reports are daily to the effect that Populists are returning to the Democratic party. If there are any in this part of Robeson county, except two or three old fogies who want office they are ashamed to say so. When it comes to the question of white supremacy the people seem to be all one way.

A Floral Weather Prophet.

The marigold is a little weather prophet. If the day is going to be fine the flower opens about 3 or 4 o'clock in the afternoon; but if wet weather is in store the marigold does not open at all.

Bitten by a Spider.

Lexington Dispatch.

Mr. Thomas Lamb was bitten by a spider Friday with what liked-to have been serious results. A short time after being bitten Mr. Lamb's face was swollen to such an extent that he could not see out of one eye, he could not open his mouth and was in a dreadful condition. A physician was summoned and he did all he could to counteract the poison. Mr. Lamb remained in this condition for nearly two days being unable to open his mouth to take food. The swelling is gradually diminishing and he is able to be out again.

Worse Than Expected.

Charlotte Observer.

It is well known that the Observer is kindly disposed to the colored race. It has never blamed the negro for getting all he can out of the Republican party, which is almost entirely composed in the South of his race. The fact that he is not fit to rule and that the party that is responsible for his rule in power must be defeated by the negro, like fire and water, is a good servant, but an defeat of the Hon. W. F.

wd and the nomination of Sheriff
kins as the Populist candidate or Congress is a complete victory for the Republicans and Pritchard Populists. And it seems somewhat strange and surprising that the Pritchard Populists, who were in the minority in the last Legislature and were then denounced as traitors, should now be carrying everything before them in the Populist party.
But is it so surprising, when it is remembered the slices of Pritchard pie that have been given out?

Christianity must live and triumph as a system of reform, because it goes to the root of things, and, because by so doing it proves itself to be divinely and eternally true.—J. G. Holland.

When people go to the bad they always commence with slow, short steps at first, but gradually increase them until they fairly leap at the last as they run to their destruction.—Central Baptist.

As ships meet at sea, a moment together, when words of greeting must be spoken, and then away into the deep, so men must in this world; and I think we should cross no man's path without hailing him, and, if needs, giving him supplies.—Henry Ward Beecher.

Not Surprising.

Raleigh News and Observer.

It ought not to surprise anybody that Populists in all sections of the State are renouncing that party. It is not because they have deserted the original principles upon which the Populist party was organized. It is because they see that, instead of contending for financial reform, the Populist machinery is in the hands of the Republicans and their party is being used to strengthen the gold standard and continue corrupt and low government in North Carolina. It is a surprise that any man, not originally a Republican, except those who make money by selling out their principles, continues to affiliate with a party that here in North Carolina is controlled by the Republican party.

The Rascal.

Tit-Bits.

"Henry," she said, disconsolately, "you didn't give me a birthday gift."

"By Jove, that's so," said Henry, "but, you see, you always look so young that I can't realize you ever had birthdays."

Then she was happy, and he smiled the mean, subtle smile of a man who has saved money.

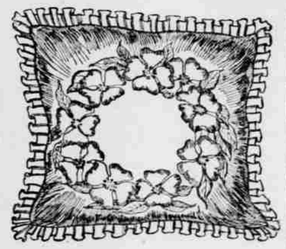
duck, cretonne and denim really being the fabrics employed for summer wear.

In pillows used by fashionables, the applique cushion seems to take the lead—a combination of different materials well worked either in complementary tones or in tints of corresponding hues. Among the novelties blue denim is exceedingly attractive, a dark and light happily combined, the tint of pale blue appliqued on, and then worked in different shades of this color with rope floss in long and short stitch. As a finish there is a deep ruffle four inches wide and edged with two toned blue ribbon. The back of this pretty affair is simply made of plain denim unadorned.

Linen of every well known shade holds a never tiring charm. This season light green is peculiarly the favorite. It has a tender and inviting look, and if well outlined or worked in a good strong floral ornamentation the plan is sure to be decorative and pleasing. For good tones, poppies and chrysanthemums are excellent. Bold and decided patterns of flower effects present, when completed, all the necessary elements of good cushion making. Of course, for everyday pillows the darker linens are advisable, but when a more delicate showing is needed then the pure white should be utilized, and carefully embroidered in conventional forms, in which flowers particularly take the lead. With white linens a finish can be given of lace—a ruffle of deep hamburg or a plain linen slightly gathered in form of a ruffle, the edge prettily scalloped and in each scallop a tiny blossom. Denims are a great resource for summer pillows, in whatever tones preferred—and of ornamentation simple or otherwise, as desired.

For the hammock nothing is better than a good substantial cretonne, a flowery affair in which there is brightness and tone, and in material which will not fade, show dirt or soil. Cretonne pillows for this purpose are better when plainly made—without ornamentation of any kind—of medium tints, yet with an all over design in which an effective plan stands out and looks well.



LIGHT GREEN LINEN.

Serviceable pillows like the gray linen are admirable—admirable not only as a fabric, but for good, steady wear and everyday use in any place where it fills a need. To make this plan charming in appearance the white silk or white linen floss can be given to this decorative scheme, either in strong floral effects or in conventional forms, big patterns in long and short stitch, requiring but little trimming. Often for pillows, plain for use and hastily made up for the summer wear, the big bow of ribbon on one corner can be used as the color bit desired, the selection made to suit the simple furnishings of any room.

Another texture of equal quality but thicker is the colored duck, which for coolness is unrivaled. The same treatment either in embroidery, outlined or in long and short stitch, can be given—or in a good make up, devoid of all ornamentation, as a useful necessity for warm weather days, says The Decorator and Furnisher, from which the foregoing timely suggestions and illustrations are reproduced.

Tomatoes a la Carolina.

Select a dozen round tomatoes of the same size, says the Boston Cooking School Magazine, remove a piece about an inch in diameter from the blossom end of each tomato and take out all the seeds. Cook a cup and one-half of Carolina rice in a quart of well seasoned broth, with half a green pepper cut fine. When the rice is nearly tender, but not broken, add half a cup of butter. Mix it in well, but carefully, so as not to break the rice. Fill the tomatoes with the rice. Put back the pieces of tomato cut out. Set them in a baking pan, brush over the outside with a little olive oil or melted butter and bake for half an hour in a moderate oven. Remove them carefully to a platter and pour around them a cup of tomato sauce highly seasoned.

Strategic Move.

"I remember, I remember"— the little boy on the country schoolhouse platform began, and then he stuck. The poem had gone completely. The boy he hated most began tittering. The occasion was becoming critical. The little boy, with a grand rally and a flash of inspiration, pulled from his pocket his red, white and blue (and black, more or less) handkerchief, shouted and wound up with "I remember the Maine."—Indianapolis Journal.

Too Commercial.

"Papa's mind is full of business all the time."

"How does that trouble you?"

"Well, when Harry asked him for me, he said, 'Yes, take her along, and if she isn't up to our advertisement bring her back and exchange her.'"—

Mr. Linney at Boone.

Boone Democrat.

On Saturday last, during the Republican county convention, Mr. Linney appeared and made a characteristic speech of about 40 minutes. The best element of the Watauga Republicans and a number of Democrats were in attendance expecting to hear our Congressman discuss the issues of the coming campaign in a respectful manner, but to our disgust and astonishment we were treated to the most vulgar, filthy sarcasm that we ever listened to. Why has Mr. Linney fallen so low in his morals? A man who has been elevated by his people to a seat in Congress ought to have respect enough for his own party even, not to engage in such low vulgarism as Mr. Linney did. We have heretofore had respect for Mr Linney, especially his talent. We have never said any unkind thing of him.

Renounces Republicanism.

Raleigh Post.

NEWPORT, N. C., Sept 12.—I wish through your excellent paper to renounce my connection with the Republican party. My reasons for doing so are that I believe that white men should rule North Carolina, and I was convinced at the last Republican State Convention, which I am sorry to say I attended as a delegate, that the Republican party is composed chiefly of negroes and the trend of this party is to place the negro more and more over the white race. And now I pledge myself to vote and use all my influence for the success of the white man's party.

L. W. PERKINS, M. D.

Uniting In Chatham.

Chatham Record.

We are pleased to state that the true white men of Chatham are rapidly coming together and are uniting for the supremacy of the white people in North Carolina. On last Friday Messrs. H. A. London and R. H. Hayes spoke at Siler City and on Saturday at Harper's X Roads. There was a good crowd at each place and much enthusiasm. Not only were the Democrats more hopeful and determined than heretofore, but many former Populists are uniting with them.

Would Not Waste Time.

Monroe Journal.

At the speaking in Waxhaw Tuesday Governor Jarvis said that he would not waste time in trying to convince the colored men that he was their friend, for it would be a waste of time. But, he said, that if they would find out all the good that all the Dockerys and all the balance of the Republican party had done for them in all their lives, he would show them that he, Jarvis, had done more in one year for them than all the other shooting match put together had done all their lives.

Hadn't Heard of the War.

Louisville Evening Post.

A party of fishermen found a man and his family up the Tennessee river who had never heard of the war with Spain. The man wouldn't believe it until a newspaper with reports from the battlefields was produced and read. The poorly informed native said his lack of information was due to the fact that he hadn't "bin over to town fer purty nigh a year."

Trying to Get Control.

Mr. John P. Kerr writes in a letter from Newbern to the Asheville Citizen: "That the negroes have no other object than to get control of the government is manifested not only by their actions, but by their words as well. They openly, boldly, publicly and defiantly declare that they intend to negroize North Carolina."

MAY SUCCEED DR. HALL.

Rev. Dr. P. H. Hoge Preaches in New York City.

The New York Journal of Monday says:

"The Rev. Dr. Peyton H. Hoge, of Wilmington, N. C., who is regarded as the probable successor of the Rev. Dr. John Hall as pastor of the wealthy Fifth Avenue Presbyterian church, preached to the congregation of that church yesterday morning. The text of his sermon, which was essentially doctrinal in its character, was from Jeremiah xv., 16: 'Thy words were found and I do eat them, and Thy word was unto me the joy and rejoicing of my heart, for I am called by thy name, O Lord God of Hosts.'"

If Dr Hall is replaced, the event will be a climax of troubles in the church which began with Dr. Hall's championship last year of Hermann Warszawiak, the converted Jew, who under Dr. Hall's tutelage, conducted missions among Jews in this city.

Dr. Hall was born in Armagh, Ireland, July 31, 1829, and was edecated at Belfast.

His salary as pastor is $15,000 a year besides the use of the fine house adjoining the church. His income has been enlarged by bequests made in the wills of his parishioners, and it is said he received $30,000 in marriage fees.

Expressed in a Nutshell.

American Harness and Carriage Journal.

The way to get business is to advertise—the only way to advertise is to advertise right—the only way to advertise right is to study the needs of the people in your particular line of trade, and place the matter before them in an honest, straightforward manner—pleasantly stated, and giving due prominence to the good points of the articles you wish to sell prominently, persistently, and in an attractive manner. Fortunes made by judicious, persistent, consistent advertising are not exceptional. The largest business houses have been the largest advertisers, and their success has been in keeping with the amount of advertising. "Large oaks from little acorns grow." Keep your name before the people. Keep your goods before their eyes. The only way to do it is to advertise.

Fortunes from Bananas.

Immense fortunes have been made out of the banana business. Revenues accrue not alone from the sale of the fruit, for the leaves are used for packing; the juice being strong in tannin makes an indelible ink and shoe blacking; the wax found on the under side of the leaves is a valuable article of commerce; manila hemp is made from the stems, and of this hemp are made mats, plaited work and lace handkerchiefs of the finest texture; moreover, the banana is ground into banana flour.

GOMEZ QUITS IN ANGER.

Cuban Commander Objects to Our Supremacy.

SANTIAGO DE CUBA, Sept. 13.—An uncontradicted report was received by Major General Lawton last night that Gen. Maximo Gomez has tendered his resignation of the command of the Cuban army to the Cuban Government at Camaguey, and that it has been accepted, because of the Cuban Government's yielding the control of the affairs of the island to the Americans.

Some Cubans say Gomez resents the putting of the Cuban army under the authority of the American Generals, and claims the Cubans should resist even by force of arms.

So It Means Pie.

Statesville Landmark.

Failing to effect a fusion with "the white man and the white metal" crowd, Mr. Dr. Thompson and Mr Dr. Ayer have fused with the black man and the yellow metal. Consistency doesn't go for much with that gang. The girl in the story said she was willing for any color of dress, so it was red. Thus, these gamblers in office are up to any trade, so it means pie.

Unique Marriage Contract.

Maury, Tenn., Democrat.

A unique marriage was consummated at Tullahoma the other day. The groom promised that he would draw the water, cut the wood, and do the farmwork, and in turn the bride promised that she would mend her spouse's clothes, darn his socks and make home happy. If the contract is thoroughly carried out the married life of this couple should be one long blissful dream.

Too Dirty to Print.

Raleigh News and Observer.

A prominent citizen of Newton writes that in the speech of Chairman Holton "he said things too dirty to print." He was met at Newton by some of the sorriest fellows unhung, and yet Holton said, "the meanest low down Republican I have met is better than the best Democrat." This is a sample of the speeches that Republican orators are making this year.

VESUVIUS MORE ACTIVE.

Three Lava Streams Flowing Down the Mountain.

ROME, Sept. 16.—The eruption of Mount Vesuvius continues to increase in volume and intensity. Part of the roadway from the mountain leading to the observatory and the lower station of the railroad have been destroyed by a lava stream. Lava is flowing from the volcano in three streams, one along the foot of Monte Somma, one in the middle of Vetranazone, and a third along the Monte Crocella.

The stream along the foot of Monte Somma is burning the chestnut forests and nearly reaches the observatory. The central flow is close to the barracks. The Monte Crocella stream passes close to Cook & Son's building, and is likely to threaten the observatory.

The public schools teach almost every known branch of study but the one most important branch of all. What does it profit your son if he has an intellect like a Newton, and is mentally an Admiral Crichton, if he has a weak and puny body and not the remotest idea of how to care for his health? A boy should be taught from the start that his health is his most precious endowment. Without health, all the talent, all the genius, and all the ambition in the world are worthless. A boy should be taught that success in any walk of life, that happiness, and life itself, are dependent upon his care of his health.

When a man feels that he is losing his health and vigor, when his cheeks no longer glow, his step is no longer elastic and the sparkle of health is no longer in his eyes, he should work less, rest more and resort to the right remedy to restore his bodily vigor. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a natural medicine—a scientific medicine. It does no violence to nature. It works with and not against nature. It promotes the natural processes of secretion and excretion. It imparts vitality and power to the whole system. It gives plumpness and color to the cheeks, sparkle to the eyes, steadiness to the nerves, strength to the muscles and the animation of health to the whole body. It makes the appetite keen and hearty. It is the great blood-maker, flesh-builder and nerve-tonic and restorative. Medicine dealers sell it and have absolutely nothing else "just as good."

"I was afflicted with pimples and boils, and running sores on face and neck," writes Robert S. Wert, Esq., of No. 615 Galloway Ave., Columbus, Ohio. "I took Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pleasant Pellets,' and was cured."

Constipation is the commonest beginning and first cause of many serious diseases and it should always be treated with Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets used in connection with the "Discovery." These are the most perfect natural laxatives and permanently cure.

A FORSYTH BOY.

Mr. James H. Adams Was In Battle of San Juan Heights

Mr. James H. Adams, of this county, a private of Company C, Second United States Regular Cavalry, was in Danville Thursday. The Register says that Mr. Adams' time of enlistment expired some weeks ago, but he has enlisted again, preferring the service of Uncle Sam to that of other employers. He is a veteran of the battle of San Juan Heights on the Island of Cuba.

To a crowd of drummers in a Danville hotel lobby Thursday night, Mr. Adams made himself very entertaining. He is full of the love of General Wheeler, of whose command he was a part. He related among other brave deeds of the old Confederate soldier, an incident of a shell bursting outside his tent, part of it entering the tent and the remainder tearing in various directions, killing two men just at the tent door, and all the while the General wrote a letter, not even stopping to look up when the shell tore through his canvas lodging.

Buckled to this young veteran's side was a blue steel, ten-inch cavalry pistol, which he took from a dying Spanish officer on the battlefield. This and a Mauser bullet were his only relics of the battle which made him a veteran.

When asked if he had ever killed a man, Mr. Adams laughingly replied: "Yes, one, perhaps more. I fired plenty of shots at the line, but only once I saw a man fall under my direct [illegible] while riding as a telegraph messenger for my General that I saw a Cuban robbing the dead and dying men on the field. I stopped long enough to kill him and rode on with my message."

The Last Chapter.

In the September number of the Wachovia Moravian Miss Adelaide Fries concludes her "Chips From Historic Timber," of Forsyth county. Her last letter refers to Forsyth's new court-house. The concluding paragraph reads as follows:

Standing on a slight eminence in the heart of a busy little city, this handsome structure of granite, buff brick and brownstone is as great a contrast to the modest building whose place it took as is the present county seat, with its wide-spread suburbs, to the three streets and few houses of the "county-town" of 1849, and both speak eloquently of the great strides that Forsyth county has made during the fifty years of its existence.

Big Fire Near Lexington.

The Holly Grove Roller Flouring Mills, owned by Seving Bros., of Davidson county, were burned to the ground last Friday. The origin of the fire is not known for certain, but is supposed to be incendiary. The mills were located about four miles east of Lexington and began operations about one year ago. Loss about $5,000; insurance, $1,500. The owners lose everything they own, having mortgaged their farms to raise money to buy the milling machinery.

Gen. Clay's Divorced Wife.

PINKARD, Ky., Sept. 16.—Today is the day set for the marriage of Dora Richardson, the divorced wife of Gen. Cassius M. Clay, and Riley Brock, a farm hand. They became sweethearts before Brock left Valley View last spring to join the army then assembling at Lexington. She followed him to the city and remained there until he left for Chickamauga. He was sent home on account of a defective throat, and when Mrs. Clay came here to keep house for her single brother, Leonard, Brock came along and has been boarding with them.
