THE WEATHER TO-DAY.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity to 8 p. m. tonight: Friday, rain; colder.

IN AND ABOUT THE CITY.

Two more days of Raleigh's great Carnival.

Again yesterday there was a jam of people at the depot coming to Raleigh to the Carnival.

The ball game at the Fair Grounds this afternoon between the A. and M. team and Guilford will be a game worth seeing.

Twenty-one new carriers have been added to the force in this State, making a total of 323 carriers on the rural free delivery routes.

"Keep off the grass, $5.00 fine for trespassing or pulling flowers" is on the signboards at the Capitol grounds. It should be heeded.

Governor Aycock left yesterday afternoon for Sanford, where he spoke last night on behalf of better schools. He will return to Raleigh today.

Congressman E. W. Fou was here yesterday on his way to Wake Forest, where he spoke last night on "The Impressions of a Frenchman in Congress."

Prof. M. C. S. Noble, of the State University, was here yesterday on his way to Fayetteville, where, tonight he will speak in behalf of the graded school tax.

Rev. G. T. Adams returned to the city yesterday from Wilmington where he made a most happy impression upon the people who heard his address there before the Epworth League.

Mr. Robinson, the Orphanage attorney, tells us that the speech of Mr. Mordecai before the Supreme Court on the Fair-claim will case, was one of the finest legal arguments to which he ever listened—Charity and Children.

Splendid Art Work.

Last evening from 4 to 6 o'clock the graduates in art of the Baptist Female University, Misses Willie Lamberson, Lois Covington, Lella Highsmith and Lucy Eaton, gave their graduating exhibit and reception, serving delightful refreshments to their invited guests.

Miss Cowan, of Peace, and Miss Fenner, of St. Mary's, were the judges, and judging from the number of works of art marked "Special Mention," one would decide that these young ladies had done most creditable work in the years they have been with Miss Potent and reflect credit upon their most worthy instructors.

Alamance County Bonds.

Writing of the sale of the Alamance county bonds, W. H. Carroll, Esq., of Burlington, says:

"Our $25,000 issue of 30-year 5 per cent bonds sold yesterday for $22,250 and accrued interest, the purchaser was N. W. Harris & Co., of New York, and in addition to the above premium they are to furnish the lithographed blank bonds, which makes a premium of very nearly 5 per cent."

IMPROVEMENTS AT LINVILLE.

New Management for Hotel in This Famous Mountain Resort.

Linville, which for many years has been one of the most famous resorts in North Carolina, is this year being made one of the most attractive spots in the mountains. Great improvements are being made, and the Linville Improvement Company, of which Donald MacRae is president; John F. Dixie, vice-president; Hugh MacRae, treasurer; R. M. Sheppard, secretary, and H. W. Fries, William J. Herdman, T. B. Lenoir and John Wamamaker as directors, are making the most beautiful improvements. This season the hotel is in charge of W. H. Martin and C. A. Martin now of Chattanooga, Tennessee, and Atlanta, Ga., both of whom have had the most valuable experience in hotel management. From Raleigh a direct connection for Linville is made by the Seaboard Air Line to Lincolnton and the Western and Norfolk Railroad thence to within a few miles of this famous resort.

A. & M. Field Day.

The A. and M. College "track team" will hold Field Day next Monday afternoon, May 11th, at the Fair Grounds, beginning at 4:15 sharp. The A. and M. boys have been practicing sometimes in anticipation of a college meet, which would have included Trinity, Wake Forest and A. and M., but for reasons unknown Trinity withdrew, and on account of the death of Prof. Crittenden Wake Forest's trainer, they have also withdrawn. The A. and M. boys are sorry not to have an opportunity to meet Trinity and Wake Forest this year, but since this can't be they will do the next best thing, viz: the different classes will compete for track honors. The events will be hurdling, sprinting, running, hammer throwing, shot putting, pole vaulting, broad and high jumping and some others of a more or less interesting and amusing nature. The date for the contest has been arranged with special reference to the girls' schools, Monday being a holiday with them, and it is hoped that there will be present a large delegation from Peace, St. Mary's and B. F. U., and also that A. and M.'s town friends will be much in evidence. Admission fifteen cents.
