Life-Long Republicans Made Democrats.

IT IS DONE BY AYCOCK

His Administration is the Argument

That Moves Them—He Speaks at Elkin—Glenn at Albermarle, Webb and Newell at Hickory.

(Special to News and Observer.)

Elkin, N. C., Oct. 10.—About eight hundred people from Wilkes, Yadkin and Surry counties came to Elkin today, to hear Governor Aycock on the issues of the campaign. Hon. T. F. Klutz, who was present, made a short speech touching on National issues and Roosevelt. It was a strong address which was listened to with much interest.

Governor Aycock spoke for nearly two hours, touching on the expenditures during his administration, showing how every pledge made by the party had been fulfilled; the money being spent for education, pensions, and asylums.

He pointed out the fact that Russell had spent much money on the convicts while the present administration had made the penitentiary not a source of expense but of revenue to the State. That the taxes had not been increased but the railroads and banks had by reason of the increase in their business contributed largely to the State's revenue.

The speaker made many happy hits holding the crowd spellbound by his logic, eloquence and his appeal to the reason and not the prejudices of his hearers.

The speaker enthused the Democrats and life-long Republicans were heard to say that they were so well satisfied with Aycock's administration that they intended to vote the Democratic ticket in the future. A great speech productive of much good to the cause, was the comment of all.

SIMMONS MAKES CONVERTS.

Republicans Come Forward and Profess a Change of Mind on the Issues.

(Special to News and Observer.)

Morganton, N. C., Oct. 10.—Senator Simmons spoke in the court house here today to a crowd estimated at between four hundred and fifty and five hundred people. He was introduced by Judge Avery, who in a few words told of the debt of gratitude North Carolina owed Senator Simmons. He began with national issues and he discussed his policy with gloves off, and showed that his attitude toward the South and his estimate of the Southern character would prevent any self-respecting Southerner voting for him. He dealt with State issues as only Senator Simmons can, and showed the utter foolishness of the Republican charge of extravagance in the State. His tribute to the old Confederate soldier was magnificent and produced thunderous applause. He served notice on the Republican party that if the Democrats continued in power their appropriations to the Confederate soldiers and sailors would be cut off, and that the deaf and dumb schools would increase instead of diminish. He made no apologies for the Vattis law, and Burke Democracy showed that the Democrats would have been claiming Burke by 200 majority. You may now count it 200.

ITALY DAY AT WENTWORTH.

A Splendid Event at Which There Were Excellent Addresses and Sweet Singing.

Yesterday was a red letter day for the Sunday school of Wentworth Christian church, this county, the occasion being Italy Day. There was an all-day service, with an old-fashioned country dinner on the grounds. The exercises began at 10:30 in the morning and closed at 4:30 p. m.

Among the principal features of the day's programme was the report of the year's work by the superintendent, Geo. M. McCullers, after which one-half hour was devoted to a prayer and praise service.

"What the Sunday School of My Foyhood Means in My Christian Life Today" was the question discussed, in which the following took part: Rev. J. L. Foster, pastor, J. M. Banks, Jr., J. Smith, J. E. Franks, G. M. McCullers, J. C. Birdson, S. M. Smith.

After this service the pastor preached a strong sermon on the text, "A little child shall lead them." At the close of the morning service the large crowd repaired to a long table in the grove, where a sumptuous dinner was served. The table was beautifully decorated with flags, which added greatly to its appearance. The bill of fare was all that a king could wish, consisting of all the good things which one usually finds in the average farmer's pantry and stock-house.

The crowd assembled about the table as they sang, "Praise God, From Whom All Blessings Flow," after which the pastor led in prayer.

The exercises of the afternoon began with a parade by the Sunday school, about 150 strong. A long line formed on the grounds and marched into the church singing, "All Hail the Power of Jesus Name." Each one in the procession carried a flag. The singing during the afternoon was accompanied by the orchestra of the Tabernacle Baptist Sunday school of this city, and was such as one seldom hears in a country church.

After the opening song service an address was delivered by S. M. Smith, General Secretary of the State Sunday School Association, on "The Front-Line Sunday School; the Rear-Line Church Member," after which the secretary of the Sunday school called the roll.

city, on "The Holy Spirit the Sunday School Teacher's Dependence." The service was closed by the pastor as he spoke on "How the Sunday School Has Helped Me During My Pastorate," after which the orchestra rendered a sacred selection and the greatest day in the history of Wentworth Sunday school, was at an end.

WOULD NOT ACCEPT.

Mr. A. C. Green Will Not Accept the Use of His Name.

Ex-Senator A. C. Green, of St. Matthews township, was in Raleigh yesterday. He says that upon the first picking on part of his farm he got a bale of cotton to the acre. "We are getting on well in the country and with plenty of buttermilk, we can stand most any sort of national administration."

Talking about politics, Mr. Green went on to say: "I see from the proceedings of the Citizens Mass Meeting that I was nominated for county commissioner. My name was used without my knowledge or consent. I had written a card declining the nomination which I was going to give the News and Observer to publish, but since reaching Raleigh to-day I hear that my name has been taken off the ticket. It is well, for under no circumstances would I accept the nomination."

"The nominees of the Democratic ticket for county commissioners are good men and I believe will serve the county well. All I want is good government—not one gallus economy—no economy and no extravagance. I believe that Messrs. Adams, Utley, Broughton, Terrell and Edwards will give us a good administration. I know some of these men well and know they have the sense and the grit to run county offices all right. "I do not desire any office, but if I did I certainly would not run on any ticket that did not present a code of principles which met my approval. "About national politics? Well, it looks to me now like Parker will be elected."

When the Ring-Tail and Pons-Sucker crowd met in Raleigh to nominate a county ticket, they put on their ticket several men of character, hoping thereby to give the ticket and standing to their Ring-Tail politics. But one by one these men have refused to be used to pull the chestnuts out of the fire for the Ring-Tail crowd. The tickets are printed there will not be a name on it except of the old Radical crowd, who had rather any day see Jim Young and the Ring-Tail group in the office of Wake county than the good men named in the Democratic primaries.

The people of Wake county know that the Democratic primary was honestly conducted, was participated in by over 3,500 good and true men, every one of whom will support the nominees. There is no division among Democrats and the ticket is worthy of the support of every tax-payer in the county who wishes good government.

WATSON IS GUILTY

(Special to News and Observer.)

Henderson, N. C., Oct. 10.—At four in the afternoon of Sunday a verdict of guilty of murder in the second degree was rendered by the jury in the case of John B. Watson, charged with the killing of Joseph Baskett. The jury took the case at 10 o'clock Saturday night. Sentence was pronounced on Watson today. He is given twenty-five years in the penitentiary at hard labor. As Watson is now forty-five years of age and lives to serve out his sentence, he will be seventy when he comes forth from prison.

of State, had gone to Pitt county, though he may have gone from there to the funeral.

The widow of General Ransom and his only daughter, Miss Esther, arrived in Raleigh Sunday morning from Blowing Rock, and left on the Seaboard train at 11 o'clock for Weldon, on their way home they were met here by Mr. Patrick Egan Ransom, who accompanied them home. It was at Blowing Rock that the news of General Ransom's death reached them.

RESOLUTIONS OF REGRET.

Passed by the Philanthropic Society of the State University.

(Special to News and Observer.)

Chapel Hill, N. C., Oct. 10.—The Philanthropic Society, having for all time held in great esteem the many virtues and the greatness of Matthew Whitaker Ransom, has adopted the following resolutions in honor of his death on Saturday last.

While a student member of the society he was always active in his work, zealous in the promotion of her usefulness, devoted to her welfare. Strengthened by her influence and imbued with her ideals, he entered a life of usefulness to State and country.

Realizing that by his career as soldier, orator and statesman he has reflected honor upon his Alma Mater, the members of the Philanthropic resolve: First, That in his death North Carolina loses a favored and distinguished son, and the University an alumnus true, scholarly and able.

Second, That the society mourns the death of a member devoted to her traditions and true to her teachings. Third, That these resolutions be placed on the minutes of the society and be published in the State papers, and also that a copy of them be sent to the family of our lost member.

J. K. WILSON, SAM T. STANCELL, Committee.

Tobacco Selling Well.

Tobacco is selling at good prices on the Raleigh market. The receipts are light though new territory is selling in Raleigh. This is because of the decreased acreage only a half crop having been planted.

If a girl really has a young man's best interests at heart, why does she marry him?

A man's narrow mind is seldom due to the fact that he minds his own business.

UNIVERSITY MEN

Alumni Banquet Here on Friday Night.

The Event Will be Attended by Wake County Alumni and the Banquet Will be at Giersch's.

The alumni of the State University will assemble this week on "Alumni Day." This is on the twelfth of October, but in Raleigh because of other events the celebration will be held on Friday night, the fourteenth of October.

The occasion here will be a social one and a banquet will be given, this will be in Giersch's Cafe on Friday night, beginning at nine o'clock. There are between 70 and 80 of the alumni in Wake county and it is expected that thirty or more will be present on Friday night. The occasion will be a very informal but delightful one, with many short, bright speeches, no set ones.

The former president of the Wake county association was the late Hon. Joseph E. Batcher, and the secretary is Mr. W. J. Peele. This being the annual meeting officers will be elected. Among alumni who will be present are the following State officers: Governor Aycock, State Superintendent of Public Instruction Joyner, and Col. J. Bryan Grimes, Secretary of State. Dr. Geo. T. Winston, former president of the University, Col. T. S. Kenan, Secretary of the State Association, and Hon. Richard H. Battle, Secretary of the State Board of Trustees of the University, will also be present.

The preparations for the banquet are in charge of Mr. Perrin Busbee, who requests that all alumni in Wake county communicate with him as to their wishes to have a complete roster, and also to arrange for all of the alumni who will be present.

The occasion will be one of great interest, and the University will be discussed, the "old days" will be talked of, and a telegram of best wishes be sent to "alma mater."

LOVE SENTENCED TO DIE.

He Entered the Room of Mrs. Rogers at Waynesville.

(Special to News and Observer.)

Asheville, N. C., Oct. 10.—A social from Waynesville today says that Tom Love, the negro who several months ago entered the residence and sleeping apartment of Mrs. Rogers for the purpose of committing a crime, was convicted in Haywood Superior court Saturday of burglary in the first degree and sentenced by Judge Long to be hanged on October 27th. If Love expires on the gallows the penalty of his crime, it will be the second hanging that has occurred in the county of Haywood.

One Saturday night, several months ago, Love, who is about fifty years of age, entered the residence of Mrs. Rogers, and when the lady awoke she found the man in her room. The negro escaped but was subsequently arrested and placed in jail. The following day a crowd gathered and open threats of lynching were made. Sheriff Noland and other cool heads spoke to the crowd and Sunday passed without an attempt to mob the man. The crowd, however, threatened violence and the presence of many people in the town caused the officers to become apprehensive for the man's safety and he was brought to Asheville and placed in the county jail for safe-keeping, where he remained until about ten days ago, when he was taken back to Waynesville to stand trial for his life.

While Love, who is a member of the negro Masonic fraternity, was visited by a number of negro Masons, who besought Sheriff Reed to protect the man. It was stated that the Masons would furnish money to employ counsel and that a plea of insanity would be entered.

Mrs. J. A. Wagner Dead.

Mrs. J. A. Wagner died this morning at 9:30 at "Zelandia Cottage," of pneumonia after an acute illness of about ten days. She had been a sufferer from heart affection for many years and for the past several days it has been a matter of life and death. At the time of death all of Mrs. Wagner's family was at the bedside with the exception of Chas. R. Wagner, of Iowa.

Turned Over at Switch.

Passenger train No. 14, from Asheville to Spartanburg, met with an accident on the mountain yesterday morning. It seems that the engine struck one of the safety switches and turned over. The engineer and fireman jumped. None of the passengers were injured, the train had been taken on to Spartanburg by the helper engine.

"THE MARRIAGE OF KITTY."

A Charming Performance Last Night by Talented Actors.

Those theatre patrons who failed to be at the Academy last night are tendered regrets; to those who were present it is only necessary to say "We congratulate you."

"The Marriage of Kitty" is clever and bright all through, and through it all shines the illuminating brilliancy of Bettina Gerrard as "Kitty Silvertown" and Max Fignman as "Sir Reginald Belsibie," these being aided by most capable support, chief of whom is to be named "David Elmer" as "John Travers."

It is refreshing to attend a performance like that given last night, for it was truly a "worth while" presentation by artists. Miss Gerrard is beautiful, accomplished, and a mistress of the stage, while Max Fignman—well, there have been few cleverer things seen in Raleigh than his presentation of "Sir Reginald" last night. Commend the performance? Of course, for it's one any critic will commend, and pass along feeling that he is preparing a feast for folks who want to select from among the best on the stage.

A. & M. and University.

There will probably be a game of ball at Chapel Hill on the 22nd of October. The A. & M. team is trying to get up a game between the A. & M. and the University of North Carolina. Mr. Max Gardner is now at Chapel Hill on the matter.

ARRESTED FOR ARSON.

Curious Acts of Boozey Negro. Italian Boy's Sharp Trick.

(Special to News and Observer.)

Greensboro, N. C., Oct. 10.—Saturday night the fire flames were called out to a negro settlement on what proved to be a false alarm. They had scarcely disbanded when another alarm sounded from the same neighborhood. Upon reaching the scene the home of Jeff Donnell, colored, was found to be so far enveloped in flames it was impossible to do anything but protect near by dwellings.

From facts gleaned yesterday, the police this morning arrested Jeff and placed him in jail awaiting a trial for arson. The facts are peculiar: Jeff went home "drunk" Saturday night, found no light in the house, proceeded to beat his wife therefor and went to a store to get some kerosene. On his way he must have turned in the first fire alarm. Later he came home, his wife having run away for fear of him, and the next heard of him he had carried two of his children over to a neighbor's house telling them his house was afire, but they could see no sign of fire. He took the children to another neighbor's and told them of the fire. These got to the gate when the whole roof burst out in smoke and flames. Jeff was found this morning by the police hiding a ditch on the Benbow farm on the outskirts of town.

Ernest Sheppard, of Winston, was arrested yesterday on a warrant sent from there charging him with stealing a watch from a guest of the Phoenix Hotel. The watch was found here at D. Stadium's pawn shop. Sheppard is said to have pawned it Saturday night for ten dollars, the watch being valued at $40.

A very bright young Italian, giving his name as Otter Costi, was caught riding the blind baggage on 37, the first mail special Saturday afternoon and placed in charge of Chief Scott. He was about 14 years old and after Chief Scott had had his face washed, he made himself at home in the police car. The only cases being disposed of are suits against bonds of distillers for failure to pay government taxes.

His relatives and friends here were greatly distressed yesterday to learn of the death at a hospital in Baltimore, at 11 o'clock of Mrs. J. M. Connor, of this city. As Mrs. Connor, who was one of the most beloved young women in Greensboro, and was married to Mrs. Connor last December. Her sister, Mrs. W. E. Allen, and brother, Mr. J. M. Allen, at once for Baltimore, and will arrive with the remains tomorrow. The interment will be at Green Hill cemetery, but whether tomorrow or Wednesday is not yet determined.

NOW MEET AS STRANGERS.

Five Divorces Granted in the Superior Court at Durham.

(Special to News and Observer.)

Durham, N. C., Oct. 10.—There were set for this term of Durham Superior court, which convened on last Monday, and for two weeks, eleven divorce cases. Up to this time five cases have been tried and all five divorces granted. This morning one case was tried and the husband of the wife was sentenced to prison for two months. There are yet on docket six cases. Up to this time there has not been a single contested case. The time of the trial of a divorce suit brought by W. Y. Clark against the Durham Traction Company today after the few minutes devoted to the divorce suit, the case of Mr. Clark who is quite an old man, is suing for damages in the sum of $2,000, alleging that car was started before he was on the car and that he was dragged some distance.

There are yet on docket quite a large number of important suits, although many have been tried and quite a large number of others continued for the future.

His Skull Broken.

A few days ago Henry Linthicum, a young man, was severely injured while at work in the Bull factory. Since that time he has been in a more or less serious condition. He is now conscious most of the time, although he is still in some danger. He fell backwards, his head striking the floor with terrific force. The fall was but a short distance, yet the skull was broken.

University Day, which is on Wednesday of this week, is to be celebrated here by the University alumni. Arrangements have been perfected at Hotel Carolina.

Mrs. Pettie Womack, about 60 years of age, died at her home, four miles west of Durham, yesterday, at noon. The interment took place in the burying ground at Yates church, near her home, this afternoon. The funeral was preached by Rev. A. D. Hunter, of Cary, who came up this morning in response to a message telling of Mrs. Womack's death. The deceased was a member of Yates church, of which Mr. Hunter is pastor.

W. L. Steele, Santa Barbara, Cal., writes: My child fell from a high chair upon a hot stove and burned its forehead and side of face severely. Gastonia, N. C., July 1, 1901.

About two years ago I was confined to my bed with inflammatory rheumatism for several weeks, and no treatment I tried afforded any relief. I was affected in my arms, legs, neck and different parts of my body. I was not able to walk at all, and when I would get out of bed the pain was indescribable. After finding the doctor's treatment did me no good, I concluded to try Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. After using half dozen bottles I was able to walk without crutches. I continued the Remedy until I used 18 bottles, which made a perfect cure, and I have been well ever since. I can not recommend Mrs. Person's Remedy too highly. It is a wonderful medicine.
