

WOMAN and SOCIETY...

When Love comes a-creeping,
In the light of the mist,
The rose for your keeping—
By his red lips kissed!

The thorn—how he hides them!
They would wreck thy rest;
But he takes them and hides them
In his own dear breast!

THE SIGMA LAMBDA.

A Delightful Social Event Enjoyed at St. Mary's.

The Sigma Lambda Literary Society most delightfully entertained the new members of the society and the officers of the Epsilon Alpha Pi at the annual reception Saturday evening between the hours of eight and ten. The halls and rooms had been most tastefully and artistically decorated under the supervision of Misses Robinson, Springs and Whitaker, the color scheme being yellow and white.

At the entrance the guests were received by Miss Mamie Russell, president of the Sigma Lambda, and she was assisted by Misses Jenkins, Charles, Evans, Du Bose and Steadman. Delightful refreshments were served by Miss Alice Spradley and Amy Fitzsimmons in a most charming manner. Delicious refreshments were served by Miss Jennie Murchison.

The reception this year proved one of the most delightful social events ever held at St. Mary's.

Fair Week Events.

During Fair Week there will be a number of dances and other social features, as well as literary meetings. Among these will be:

Tuesday night, a subscription dance at Roney Library hall.

Wednesday, Kappa Alpha meeting.

Thursday evening, ball at Capital Club. Same night will meet North Carolina Agricultural Society and annual election of officers of the State Fair will take place.

Friday night, the Marshals' Ball, at the Capital Club.

Other events are to be arranged and will be announced later.

Miss Bell Andrews Entertains.

On Monday afternoon Miss Bell Andrews entertained the six young ladies from Henderson who are at St. Mary's in a most delightful manner. The game for the afternoon was euchre and was greatly enjoyed by all those present. Miss Maria Tucker being the fortunate winner of the prize, and Miss Jessie Harris was consoled by the booty. After the game dainty refreshments were served by Misses Mary and Lucy Andrews. Those present were Misses Maria Tucker, Genivive Cooper, Mary Perry, Jessie Harris, Kate Gary, and Ella Gregory, of Henderson, and Misses Annie and Fannie Young and Bell Andrews.

A China Wedding.

Friends have received handsome invitations bearing the monogram "W. S. M." and the year 1884 and 1904, reading as follows: "Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. MacNair at home Monday evening, October the seventeenth, from eight until eleven o'clock, China Wedding, Maxton, North Carolina. Walter L. MacNair, Mary Smith."

THELIERIAN GERMAN CLUB.

The First German of The Season Given at A. and M. Auditorium.

The Thelieran German Club of the A. and M. College gave their first German of this year in Pullen Auditorium last Friday night from 9 till 12 o'clock, and although it was not a very large dance every minute of the time was enjoyed by those so fortunate as to be present. Mr. L. G. Sykes, who has been elected leader of the club for the year, gracefully fulfilled his duties on this occasion.

Among those present were: Cadet Mar. W. W. Chambers, of Raleigh, with Miss Mary Andrews; Capt. E. G. Porter, of Goldsboro, with Miss Pattie Carroll; Capt. Jas. Pierce, of Warsaw, with Miss Emily Higgs; Lieut. L. G. Sykes, of Tampa, Fla., with Miss Nannie Rogers; Lieut. E. H. Harper, of Lenoir, with Miss Jessamine Higgs; Sergeant S. P. Tomlinson, of Goldsboro, with Miss Lucy Andrews; Sergeant Chas. Sykes, of Tampa, Fla., with Miss Rosa Skinner; Sergeant Chas. Walton, of Morganton, with Miss Lucy Haywood; Cadet Watkins, of South Carolina, with Miss Mary Barker; Prof. Brazz with Miss Lily Skinner; Dr. Roberts with Miss Daisy Moring.

HAWKINS—LONG.

North Carolina Belle to Wed in Massachusetts.

Invitations have been received by friends as follows: "The Rev. and Mrs. Edward Benedict request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their sister, Emily Annis Long, to Mr. Cornelius Silsby Hawkins, on Wednesday, the nineteenth of October, one thousand, nine hundred and four, at half after three o'clock, Christ Church, Swansea, Massachusetts."

This announcement will be of interest to a large number of friends of the bride-elect, who has enjoyed undisputed sway as a belle in the Roanoke section of North Carolina. Miss Long is the younger daughter of the late Mr. Junius Long, of Halifax county, and a grand-daughter of the late Col. Nicholas M. Long, of Halifax county. She was, for a year or more, been visiting her sister, Mrs. Edward Benedict, in Massachusetts. The groom-elect is prominent in social and commercial life of Fall River, Massachusetts, and is highly esteemed and popular gentleman.

A Whist Party.

Kinston, N. C., Oct. 10.—(Special.)—Mrs. M. H. Edwards entertained a number of friends at a Whist party Wednesday evening at her home in Northwest Kinston, complimentary to her guests, Miss Helen Battle, of Rocky Mount. There were twenty present, composing five tables and a delightful evening was spent.

Miss Battle charmingly assisted in the entertaining of the guests with singing and piano music. A quartette of male voices rendered several choruses, which were highly appreciated. Refreshments were served, consisting of most delightful delicacies. The party broke up at 12 o'clock.

To Select Her Trousseau. Goldsboro, N. C., Oct. 10.—(Special.)—Miss Lillie Edwards, the beautiful and popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Asher Edwards, whose betrothal to Mr. Louis Cohen, of Columbus, Ga., was announced some time ago, left today for New York, to select her trousseau, the happy event being now near at hand.

And They Were Wed. Goldsboro, N. C., Oct. 10.—(Special.)—Saturday afternoon a young couple from near Pikeville, this county, came to this city and secured license, to go to the city hall, where they found Tax Collector Collins, who is also a justice of the peace, and who at their request made the twain man and wife. The groom was Mr. Jasper Myers, and the bride was Miss Beckie Caples, both of Pikeville township. They were accompanied to this city by several of their young friends to witness the ceremony.

They returned to the home of the bride about six o'clock Saturday evening.

Dunn Runaway Marriage. Dunn, N. C., Oct. 10.—(Special.)—Mr. Douglas L. Butts and Miss Katie Parker were married here on Wednesday at the residence of Mr. O. P. Shell. The license failed to appear when expected, though it had been forwarded. The groom-elect hurried to the county seat, where he secured an extra license. On his return he found license No. 1 on hand, so he was doubly sure that he would be in legal shape to get the girl.

The bride is a beautiful young woman with many friends here, and the groom is a young man of splendid character.

Social Events at Oxford.

Oxford, N. C., Oct. 10.—(Special.)—Mrs. E. H. Crenshaw entertained the Social Club Friday afternoon in honor of her sister, Mrs. Dudley Bonitz, of Chicago, an English-born belle, who is now visiting her sister, Mrs. Lynchburg, Va. This was the first meeting of the social club of the season and proved a most delightful occasion.

sion and the refreshments were especially elaborate and tempting.

The "Granville Grays" Chapter of Daughters of Confederacy held the October meeting Thursday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. Caleb Osborne, at which time resolutions of sympathy were passed in regard to the death of Mrs. F. A. Olds.

The interest in the monument work increases every day. Polk Miller will be here in the interest of this cause on October 21st. Mr. J. S. Atkinson will give an entertainment next Tuesday night. Much enthusiasm is manifested by the people for the building of the monument.

Banquet at Wake Forest.

Wake Forest, N. C., Oct. 10.—(Special.)—The home of Mrs. Z. T. Peed was the scene of a very enjoyable occasion Friday evening. The members of the L. R. R. Club entertained their gentlemen friends in most unique and pleasant way. The color scheme was crimson and silver, these being the club colors.

The guests were received in the hall by Misses Lillie Dickinson and Kent Hodnett, and in the parlor by Misses Louise Peed and Virginia Wilkinson.

After music and games they were invited to the dining room. In the center of the room there was a banquet table, beautifully decorated in red satin ribbon and silver candelabra. The refreshments were most excellent. A souvenir card bearing the names of the members and tied with red baby ribbon was given each guest.

MOTHERS AS DIVORCE BEREFT.

These Who Would Eliminate the Matter of Love in Marriage.

(P. H. S. in Sanford Express.)

While returning from Jonesboro to Sanford the other afternoon via the Coast Line train I happened to hear two women talking.

"I have already picked out a man for my daughter," said one of these women. "He is a good deal older than she is, and I do not believe she loves him, but I think she respects him and I want her to marry him. He will give her a home and take good care of her."

"Well, then," responded the other woman, "you had better keep that girl away from other men. Her cheeks are red and her blood is warm with youth, and if she falls in love with some boy who offers her his heart and hand she will marry him if she is not to go away with him under cover of night."

"I do not think she would do that. She ought not to at least."

"Are you right sure that she ought not to? You were once a girl with all of a girl's impulses, and you know what it is to love a man. Nature is supreme. To her marriage is always a matter of life and death to her and always will be no matter what wise and prudent parents may say. Love laughs at mothers."

"I have heard you saying something interesting and I wanted to hear more of it; but just as the lady who had lined up on the side of the little Blind Boy finished saying, 'Love laughs at mothers,' the porter poked his head in at the door of the car and yelled, 'All off for Sanford.' The man whom the girl 'respects' ought to have heard what this would-be-mother-in-law said. Mothers of her stripe are divorce breeders, for love doesn't always have a chance to laugh at them."

D. H. Hill Chapter.

The regular meeting of the D. H. Hill chapter was held at the home of Mrs. Dixon-Carroll yesterday afternoon at 4:30. The chapter was addressed by Miss Kate McKimmon and Mrs. Wells. The meeting was an enjoyable one.

"Miss Bob White."

Chas. E. Thorpe, advance representative of Nixon & Zimmerman's Opera company, which will present for the first time in this city "Miss Bob White," William Spencer's successful comic opera, was in the city last night. Mr. Thorpe says the company has been doing a record-breaking business ever since it opened at Atlantic City. The company carries sixty people and will be the same complete production as that which played Philadelphia, Washington, and all the larger cities. The engagement here is during Fair week.

To Colonial Dames.

The following notice has been sent to the State Society of Colonial Dames: "If any member of your State society contemplates being present at the World's Fair on Colonial Dames Day, October 29th, a card of admittance to the Recital Hall will be forwarded to such on application to the chairman of the committee on invitations."

MRS. H. N. SPENCER, 2725 Washington Ave., St. Louis, After September 15th, 1904.

Mr. A. C. Jackson Engaged.

The Board of Trustees of the Baptist University has engaged Mr. A. C. Jackson as Assistant Vocal Instructor. Mr. Jackson, formerly of Canada, and a favorite pupil of Mr. O. Stuart Taylor, one of Canada's best known vocal teachers, has been in Boston for the past four years pursuing his vocal studies with such masters as Signor Augusto Rotoli, W. H. Dunham, and New England Conservatory of Music; Carl Doering, and Ivan Morowski, also of Boston. Mr. Jackson is an unusually gifted singer and his pleasing personality and thorough musical training will make him a successful vocal instructor. Mr. Jackson has also been engaged as choir master and baritone soloist at Christ Church.

A MAGNIFICENT PERFORMANCE. "Dolly Varden," the Success of the Season, Will Appear in Raleigh.

"Dolly Varden" is in two acts. The first takes place on a beautiful terrace in the gardens of Beauchamp Towers, on Thames, near London, the magnificent residence of Miss Fairfax. This great performance appears at the Academy Monday night week, October 17th.

The second act transpires in the reception hall of Beauchamp Towers. The action of the piece covers a period of two days. The time is 1750, only a short period after George I. had come over from Hanover to reign on the English throne. The court customs instituted by Queen Anne, both as to etiquette and dress, were yet in vogue and the brilliancy and splendor of the court of the gay Louis XV. was also having its effect in England. Probably at no time before or since has this English dress been so beautifully and artistically dressed as at this period.

This fact has given Mr. Whitney an opportunity to show how lavishly and expensively and yet artistically a comic opera may be costumed. He has spared no money in this accomplishment of this. The costumes of "Dolly Varden" were designed by Madame Sedl, of the Metropolitan Opera House, and made at the famous atelier of Madame Lesclapart, of New York and Paris, and are all triumphs of the dressmaker's art.

Apart from the fact that these costumes are most artistic creations, additional interest is given to the play of a style in female dress that is coming into vogue again, after having been almost obsolete for nearly two hundred years. The styles of the "Dolly Varden" are of the Louis XV. makes them of unusual interest.

"Dolly Varden" will be presented for the first and only time in Raleigh at the Academy of Music one week commencing Monday, October 17. It is positively guaranteed by the management to be the most expensive cast, chorus, and scenic production ever seen on the local stage.

Bible Pictures Delighted.

Last night the successful entertainment "Living Bible Pictures" was repeated at Epworth church.

The attendance was large and an excellent program was rendered. The pictures given in the tableaux were well done and the music of Miss Emily Steinhilber, the singing of Miss Sarah Burkhead and Mrs. L. M. Shores, the recitations of Miss Jessie Bumpas were enjoyed. A neat sum was realized.

Johnson-Pettigrew Chapter.

The regular monthly meeting of the Johnson-Pettigrew Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, will be held at the residence of Mrs. Alexander Field, on North Wilmington street, on Wednesday afternoon, October 13th, at seven o'clock. A full attendance of the membership is requested and visiting daughters are cordially invited to attend.

MRS. LEO D. HEART, President.

MRS. FRANKLIN McNEILL, Secretary.

Nine O'Clock Cotillion.

The annual meeting of the Nine O'Clock Cotillion Club held Friday night in the banquet hall of the Yarrowburgh Hotel, was presided over by Mr. Julian Timberlake, the president. The smoker was greatly enjoyed and the club decided to give a dance on Wednesday evening, October 19th, of Fair week.

The officers elected for the year were: President, Wm. S. West; vice-president, A. P. Baumann; secretary and treasurer, Graham H. Andrews; governing committee, H. M. Wilson, R. W. Vase, W. W. Roberts, W. B. Jones and W. A. Graham, Jr. The governing committee later elected Mr. G. H. Andrews as leader for the monthly dances.

HART—McKINNE.

Brilliant Wedding at Princeton of a Popular and Prominent Couple.

Princeton, N. C., Oct. 8.—(Special.)—Most beautiful in every particular was the elaborate social function here last Wednesday evening when the Methodist Episcopal church, one of the most charming young ladies of this place, Miss Addie McKimne, became the bride of Captain Edgar Lee Hart, of Wilmington.

The ceremony was attended by a great number of friends and the church was most elaborately decorated, this having been done by the loving friends of the beautiful bride. The service was said by Rev. J. O. Guthrie, of Raleigh, while the wedding music was rendered by the accomplished Miss Lillie Root, of Raleigh, a friend of the bride.

Before the entry of the wedding party Miss Nina Green, of Raleigh, an accomplished vocalist, sang most delightfully the sweet story "Ever Told," and just before the bride party retired she sang "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden." The scene as the bride party entered and gathered within and about the church was a most artistic one.

The ushers entered as the wedding march from Lohengrin, and these being Messrs. McKimne and McKimne, Candler, Princeton; Jas. Gaskill of Tarboro, and H. F. Garrard, of Norfolk. Then, charmingly attired in white dresses, with white carnations in the hair, were the bridesmaids, Misses Rosa Hart and Lessie Willford, of Rocky Mount; Placide Ellington, of Raleigh; May Parker, of New Bern; Elizabeth Beach, of Goldsboro, and Minnie Strachan, of Princeton. The maid of honor was Miss Margaret Etheridge, of Selma, in white silk accoutrement, with bouquet of bride roses, and the groom's best man, Mr. Luther Hart, of Tarboro.

Preceding the bride came her nephew, Master David McKimne, of Concord, the ring bearer. The bride was a picture of youthful beauty, her wedding dress being of eolian satin, trimmed in Duchesse lace and chiffon, her veil being caught above with billies and a brooch of onals, her bouquet an exquisite one of bride roses and lilies of the valley. The bride party stood beneath an arch of green and white from which was suspended a design in double hearts. The vows were given soft music sounded and as the party left the church it was to the music of Mendelssohn's wedding march, sounding in its exquisite symphony in the building in which the bride had worshipped since she had professed her faith.

Following the wedding there was a most enjoyable informal reception at the home of the bride's father, Mr. D. E. McKimne, where refreshments were served by Dughi, of Raleigh. The magnificent gifts to the bride and groom were admired, and these were groom, being in silver, china and cut glass, their beauty and value showing the esteem of friends at home and from a distance.

The happy couple have gone to St. Louis on a wedding trip and will visit other points. The bride's traveling dress was a brown coat suit from Paris, red and black trimmings, Irish lace, hat and veil to match. After the bridal trip Mr. and Mrs. Hart will reside in Wilmington.

Many visitors were present from out of town and these enjoyed to the fullest the hospitality extended. The bride is a lovely and accomplished young woman, the daughter of Mr. D. E. McKimne, a leading citizen of the State, prominent Confederate veteran, Director of the Eastern Insane Asylum and a leading member of the Methodist church, prominent as a delegate to its conferences. The groom, Captain Edgar Lee Hart, is a conductor on the Atlantic Coast Line between Norfolk and Wilmington. He is a young man highly esteemed and possessed of a large degree, being energetic and affable. Both bride and groom have a host of friends who congratulate them on so auspicious a beginning of their married life.

Elliott-McLean.

The following invitation has been sent to friends: "Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Nicholson McLean invite you to be present at the marriage of their daughter, Effie Mary, to Mr. Henry Elliott, Wednesday evening, October 12th, nineteen hundred and four, at eight o'clock, Presbyterian Church, Florida, Alabama."

Reception from half after eight until ten o'clock at home.

The groom-elect is the brother of Mrs. Franklin McNeill, of this city, who with her husband, Hon. Franklin McNeill, has gone to the wedding.

BOILS AND ERUPTIONS

Have been suffering from Impure Blood for many years, having Boils and other Eruptions. Having heard of S. S. S. I decided to try it, and am glad to say that it has done me a great deal of good, I intend to continue to use it, as I believe it to be the best Blood Medicine on the market.

Cleveland, Tenn. W. K. DETTERS.

For over fifteen years I have suffered more or less from Impure Blood. About a year ago I had a boil appear on my leg below the knee, which was followed by three more on my neck. I saw S. S. S. advertised and decided to try it. After taking three bottles all Boils disappeared and I have not been troubled any since.

Newark, Ohio, May 23, 1903.

From childhood I had been bothered with bad blood, skin eruptions and boils. I had boils ranging from five to twenty in number each season. The burning accompanying the eruptions was terrible. S. S. S. seemed to be just the medicine needed in my case. It drove out all impurities and bad blood, giving me permanent relief from the skin eruption and boils. This has been ten years ago, and I have never had a return of the disease.
