WARREN-SPENCER MARRIAGE.

On Wednesday Jan. 13, at 3 o'clock, p. m. at the home of the bride, and in the presence of the family and a few friends, Miss Mabel Spencer and Mr. Albert Warren were united in marriage. The bride was the popular and attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Spencer, of Roxboro. The groom is well known in Roxboro. He is now engaged in the mercantile business at Cunningham, N. C.

The bride was clad in a beautiful and becoming suit of gray broad cloth. The attendants were Miss Esther Spencer, sister of the bride and Miss Zell Warren, niece of the groom.

The ceremony, was performed by Rev. C. P. Ryland, pastor of the bride.

After the marriage the happy couple left for the home of Mr. Warren's parents at which an appropriate reception was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Warren. The many friends of the contracting parties wish for them a long and happy life.

A SUDDEN DEATH.

Mr. Bunn Harris, who lived near Mill Creek, died suddenly yesterday evening while setting before the fire in his home. It was a very sad death. As we learn, the family had gone to Mill Creek cemetery to bury the wife of his son, Mrs. John Harris, and while they were away the elder Mr. Harris died. He was a quiet, unassuming old gentleman, and liked by all who knew him. Mr. Harris was about 70 years of age.

Explosive Joy in Texas.

Texas is proud and happy this day. She has wrung a $1,625,000 fine from the Waters-Pierce tentacle of the oil octopus. The United States Supreme Court, which refused even to take up the Federal government's appeal after the knock-out of Judge Kenesaw, Mountain Landis' $29,000,000 fine, has decided unreservedly for Texas. Texans, formerly opposed to division of the State, because, as Senator Bailey explained in the Senate, there is no way to divide the imperishable glory of the Alamo and Goliad, will henceforth be opposed to division chiefly because there is no way to divide the imperishable glory of the $1,625,000 fine. An area larger than France, larger than the German Empire, is covered with a thick deposit of glory on every acre. Moreover, a whole carload of dollars has been gained. We shan't be surprised if Texas feels too proud to speak to any other State for at least a week.—Charlotte Observer.

Trakas & Company who had their store burned some time ago, will not reopen here, owing to their financial losses. They will direct all their time to their wholesale store in Goldsboro.
