Editor Roanoke Rapids Herald, Roanoke Rapids, N. C. Dear Sir:—

Several days ago we plucked what seemed to be "The Last Rose of Summer"; however there are still many bright colorful blossoms untouched by the cold, and the flowers of autumn are right at this time more beautiful than ever. The trees are just turning from green, red and gold to a dark brown; soon all leaves will obey the call of the wind and fall to the earth, yet all winter we will have our evergreen trees of pine, cedar and holly. Well do we realize that man can erect the most beautiful buildings but

"Only God can make a tree." Mrs. Ruby Sims Rudd, Richmond, Va.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of our dear husband and father, Richard Emmett Gray, who left us on November 18, 1938. It's been only a year since God took him away; But as long as we live We shall never forget that sad day.

'Twill be a wonderful, happy day Up yonder on the golden strand, When we hear Jesus say, Shake hands with him again. Your loving wife, and children.

Ease Women's Pain

Periodic upsets—headaches, nervousness, cramp-like pain—are often caused by functional dysmenorrhea due to malnutrition. Many find its symptoms yield when they stimulate appetite and digestion by using CARDUI and so build up physical resistance. Many also report that CARDUI just before and during "the time" helps ease pain and discomfort. CARDUI has been used for more than 50 years.

IN MEMORIAM

In remembrance of our dear husband and father, Mr. John G. Brown, who departed this life nine months ago today, Oct. 27, 1939.

As the golden sun was sinking, There was one clear call for thee, There will be no moaning at the bar When I put out to sea.

Dear one, we tried to be brave When your sunset and evening call And you put out to sea, God called and had His way; Now we are alone, and no daddy can we see.

No place to go, no one to cheer— You took it all when you left here; We miss you so we can't be brave, As we look upon your lonely grave; Although I try to please the One above that knows it all, Until for me He makes His call.

Many things have happened, The way is hard to see; But John, I make this plea— That Heaven will help me on without thee.

Wife, Uzelia N. Brown.

IN MEMORIAM

In remembrance of Francis Warren, who was killed Sept. 14, 1939. It has been two months ago today Since Jesus called her away I don't know why He took her, But Jesus has a plan, And He works great mysteries, That we don't understand. She has gone to the Heavenly home on high, Where we hope to meet her in the sweet by and by.

She was a sweet child to love and adore, And Francis I think of you more and more. Each minute, each hour, each day and week, And many times when others are asleep.

Francis dear, I loved you in life, And in death I do the same; How sweet it will be when Jesus says, Shake hands with your friends and kinfolks again.

Her aunt, Mrs. J. B. Reid, Roanoke Rapids, N. C.
