

With the announcement this week by the play committee that an all male cast, old time Negro minstrel will be presented December 14 and 15, Rosemary will have its first opportunity to see a show with a cast selected entirely from the employees. It will be high class entertainment with three opening scenes and a circle. We will give you more dope next week.

Sadie Hawkins Day was a big success. Everybody seemed to enjoy the play, "It Happened In Dogpatch" and the dance afterwards was a howling success. The play committee did a good job.

Roger Cullom as Hairless Joe was the hit of the show; so was Young Mahaffey dressed as Lonesome Polecat. Helen Stewart made a charming Daisy Mae. Mrs. Mildred Mills was an ideal Ma Yokum. Pa Yokum, portrayed by Bryant Gray, could have been no better. Misses Butler and Moon were the berries as Belinda Bargrease and Mitzi Mudlark. Chester Allsbrook acted a swell Mayor, George Outland was a nifty Ole Man Mose, Eddie Cameron as the one and only Marryin'. Sam did his job in fine style. Russ Deberry demonstrated that he can act as well as win State Softball titles by doing Li'l Abner to a fare ye well. Pate Harris and Hank Stewart acted the Scraggs boys to perfection. All in all it was a swell show.

Many words of praise should be said in regard to Mrs. Mildred Mills and Mrs. Mabel Allsbrook for directing the show. And to Byron Gurley, Frank Everette, Dick "Swink" Lee, Red Carver, George Gurley, the Roberts Brothers and many others who handled the stage decorations. It was a swell job.

Recreation Club members will be making a big mistake if they do not elect Rufus Mountford to the Board of Directors for next year. This corner is not entering any campaign for Rufus, but any person who has had the interest that he has shown during the past year by being on duty every Friday and Saturday night as a special officer without pay and staying on until midnight, is bound to be interested in the club—therefore my reason for saying he should be a director.

Now, I'll have to fight Rufus!

Coach Steve Acai of Littleton High School dropped by last night to invite me up to that red hot tilt Friday, Dec. 8, between Littleton and Warrenton High School football teams. The game will be played in Warrenton with outside officials and interest is running at fever heat in both towns. Steve, who is a former N. C. State athlete, is turning in a swell record at Littleton as head coach. Take a tip and see this game—it'll be the Carolina-Duke battle over again, and then some!

A certain drug store around town is pulling a swell stunt for kids by having a Santa Claus on display that really talks, and how! Many adult faces are turning red at cracks from Santa!

Dopey Dan says—thinking of some people: "Boasters should remember, though the rooster crows, the hen produces results." And regarding Community Chest: "The charity that begins at home and remains there is anemic. An occasional outing will do it good." And thinking of Santa Claus: "Do not judge the inside of a Christmas box by its wrapper."

Rosemary Recreation takes a great deal of pride in endorsing the project put on by the City Fire Dept., that of collecting and repairing broken toys for the little kiddies in the city. If you have any broken or used toys around that you do not need, remember it will probably make some kid happy at Christmas time. So just sit down and call R-355, and a fireman will be right around, take them away, repair them, repaint them and on Christmas Eve give them to some needy kid.

"Animal" Sale On For Sat. Dec. 2nd

There will be a big "animal" sale in Roanoke Rapids on Saturday, December 2. It will not be held at the Jim Davis' Stables but all over the streets of the city. Miss Fanny's Sunshine Girls will have their annual Tag Day sale of little white dogs. People are urged to buy and wear one.

Christian Church Council Is Formed

The four circles of the Christian Church met last Saturday night and organized a Council. Miss Mary Walter Shell presided. The following officers were elected: president, Mrs. Della Wilson; vice president, Miss Maybelle Ratcliff; secretary, Mrs. Wylie Connell; assistant, Mrs. Sidney Sadler; treasurer, Mrs. Fred Atkinson; assistant, Mrs. J. D. Baily.

A Thanksgiving program was enjoyed. Mrs. R. L. Topping led the devotionals. Mrs. J. Newton Jessup offered prayer. Mrs. Monnie Waters gave a reading. Children sang. The Council will meet on the first Saturday night of each month beginning in January. They meet for prayer, business, study and social life.

The presidents of the circles are: No. 1, Mrs. S. J. Barnett; No. 2, Mrs. D. L. Finch; No. 3, Mrs. J. E. Pugh; No. 4, Miss Maybelle Ratcliff. The circles meet each week. The presidents of the circles are also vice presidents of the Council and with the officers constitute the executive committee.

K. Kyser's Mother Visits Here This Wk.; Sees Picture

Dr. and Mrs. J. Frank West had as their guests this week Mrs. T. B. Kyser of Rocky Mount, N. C. and Mrs. H. R. Kyser of Thomasville, N. C., mother and sister-in-law of Kay Kyser, whose famous orchestra is known all over America and whose picture was shown in the local theatres this week. Mrs. H. R. Kyser will be remembered here by a number of her friends as the former Nannie Zollicoffer, sister of Mrs. West.

Hon'r Given Local Girl At St. Mary's

Mary Taylor, graduate of the Roanoke Rapids High School last Spring, has recently been elected to membership in the Epsilon Alpha Pi literary society at St. Mary's School in Raleigh. The Epsilon Alpha Pi, the aim of which is to encourage creative writing and to direct discriminating criticism, is composed of only 22 students and membership is allowed only after a recommendation of English teachers.

Miss Taylor is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Taylor of Roanoke Rapids.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Bennett and daughter, Judy, spent the week-end in Graham with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Jordan.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Browning visited Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Inscoc Sunday night.
