Sparkling Comedy Drama, "Turn to the Right," Fourth Night at Chautauqua

"Turn to the Right," sparkling comedy drama, will be given on the fourth night of the coming Redpath Chautauqua by a cast of New York actors organized by the New York City Producing Department of the Redpath Bureau. "Turn to the Right" is one of the great comedies of the generation and has scored a tremendous success wherever presented. Fun and thrills abound and there is just the right measure of pathos. "Turn to the Right" is a great Chautauqua feature and one which will be thoroughly enjoyed by the entire audience.

OLD CHARLOTTE DAILIES GIVE INTERESTING NEWS

Bulletin of 1861 Furnishes Information in Regard to the Progress War Between the States

OVER TWO THOUSAND BARNS WERE BURNED IN THE VALLEY

Wheat, Hay, Farming Implements and Mills Filled with Flour Went Up in the Wicked Flames

Waxhaw, Route 1, April 13.—While at the home of Mr. M. L. Richardson, son of the late Esq. S. J. Richardson of this (Rehobeth) community a few days ago, I was introduced to some very old papers—parts of copies of the Old Charlotte Daily Bulletin.

These old papers have evidently been in the family for about two generations, the oldest one bearing the date of Feb. 12, 1864, and is therefore, more than 58 years old.

These old papers carry a great deal of news of the war then going on between the North and the South, and some of these news items are such as to amply verify Sherman's definition of what war is.

One report bearing this headline: "The Devastation of the Valley" says "Sheridan reports to Grant that, in moving down the valley to Woodstock, he has burned over two thousand barns filled with wheat, hay and farming implements, and over seventy mills filled with flour and wheat." There is some very scathing comment on this action of Sheridan, and an intimation that we will retaliate by going over into the enemy's land and burning up New York.

We find also a report by the captain of Richmond hospital number 9, the following deaths of recent date (Feb. 12, '64): H. E. Bowen, Co. F, 4th regiment; J. Bitten, Co. B, 47th regiment; E. Sutton, Co. I, 34th regiment; M. B. Phillips, Co. C, 20th regiment; H. Turner, Co. C, 40th regiment; J. H. Yarborough, Co. K, 44th regiment; J. A. Battle, Co. C, 2nd regiment; S. Corkan, Co. I, 32nd regiment; P. B. Warlick, Co. B, 11th regiment; B. Ethridge, Co. I, 15th regiment; M. E. West, Co. A, 45th regiment. These are all of North Carolina.

The editor says in another column of date of Oct. 19th, 1864, "North Carolina, since the 17th of April, 1861, has equipped and sent into the field 117,534 men, and has kept her men shod, clothed and blanketed; or at least, has furnished the Confederate government the wherewith to do so."

"In this same issue there is an advertisement like this: 'Sewing Machine wanted. An old bachelor, whose wardrobe is sadly out of repair requests us to advertise for a sewing machine for him. He wants one about 18 years old, with blue eyes, brown curls, and worth about one hundred and fifty thousand dollars. ($150,000.00). There is not any doubt about one like that being worth the effort; but would that kind sew?'"

In this same column, we have this item: "A spectator in Richmond has calculated the amount of liquor to be obtained in that city for the old price of five cents a drink; the quantity is the one-hundredth part of a gill, or about five drops."

The following is said to be a bonafide report of the Turnwald, Ga., hat market in the issue of Oct. 16, 1864: One wool hat 2 beaver skins, " 2 lbs. clean washed wool, " 3 bushels corn, " 1 1/2 bushels wheat, " 10 lbs. bacon, " 10 lbs. lard, " 12 coon skins, " 15 muskrat skins, " 20 mink skins, " 30 rabbit skins, " $40

One rabbit hat for double the above price; one coon hat for 33% advance on the rabbit hat; one beaver hat for double the price of the rabbit hat.

There are a great many other items in these old "Charlotte Bulletins" that might be of interest, but for the present we rest. The subscription price of the paper is: Daily 6 months, $10.00; daily 3 months, $6.00.

The editor's name is S. A. Whitaker and he has a notice in the paper warning citizens that any boy found selling the Bulletin on the streets should be reported to him. He says he allows no papers sold by boys on the streets, but only at newsstands and those being sold on streets by boys have evidently been stolen.

MR. A. M. STACK FILES NOTICE OF CANDIDACY

Monroe Lawyer Has Already Canvassed the District Thoroughly, Says a Raleigh Dispatch.

Raleigh, April 12.—Unlucky or not, thirteenth means a scrap in judicial circles this year, and the first gun of the impending battle was fired yesterday when A. M. Stack, of Monroe, inscribed his name on the list of candidates for judgeship in that district, and threw down the gauntlet to Judge Walter E. Brock, named by Governor Morrison to succeed Judge W. J. Adams last September.

None of which is news to anybody who has an ear even remotely attuned to political soothsaying. It hasn't even required a soothsayer. Mr. Stack's neighbors months ago even went to the length of staging a plebiscite and his countrymen nominated him by an overwhelming plurality. It was purely informal but very eloquent.

No time was lost by the Monroe lawyer, who was formerly solicitor in that district, and he immediately went forth on the warpath. He has already canvassed the district with praiseworthy thoroughness, and is preparing to carry the war even further into his adversary's country. Judge Brock has a scrap on his hands that gives promise just now of being a thriller.

Nor will the fighting be confined to the judgeship, according to rumor. Four or five candidates are reported to be in the field against Solicitor Nash, who succeeded the now Judge. Solicitor Nash has filed his notice and paid his twenty dollars. Opponents, if any there be, are a trifle reluctant to take the plunge, and Mr. Nash's name is inscribed in lonely grandeur on roll of candidates.

Interesting News Items From Monroe Route 5

Monroe Route 5, April 12.—The farmers of this section have done very little ploughing yet, as the weather has been so unfavorable. If the weather stays favorable for a while there will be lots of ploughing done in the next week or two.

Mr. W. A. Griffin, who has been confined to his home for a month or more with bronchitis and other troubles, is improving slowly.

Mr. Thomas C. Griffin of Charlotte came down Saturday night to see his father, Mr. W. A. Griffin.

Mrs. W. A. Whitaker of Houston spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Helms.

Mrs. W. E. Helms, who has been suffering with a cataract on her eye for several months, was operated on one day last week in Monroe by Dr. R. H. Garren. She stood the operation well and is getting along fine at this writing.

Mr. Even C. Helms and daughter, Miss Cora, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Jennings, all of Charlotte, motored down Sunday morning to see Mr. Helms' niece, Miss Alice Helms, who has been confined to her home for about eight months. We are glad to say that Miss Alice is improving some and is able to be up and walk about over the house. While Mr. Helms was here he handed your correspondent a dollar to pay for a six months subscription to The Journal.

Mr. John H. Hannah has put up a nice grocery store at Helmsville. He sells all kinds of groceries as low as can be bought anywhere. He desires a liberal patronage of the community. The wheat and oat crop is looking fine.

Rev. A. C. Davis will preach at Corinth Sunday at 11 o'clock, according to announcement.

SANITARY NOTICE

We hereby notify all persons having drains and ditches or pools of standing water on their premises to have same cleaned out and properly drained at once and save cost and trouble. It is the desire of the sanitary officer to begin in time that the health of the city may be preserved and to this end we ask for your full co-operation as the sanitary ordinances must and will be strictly enforced. This will incur a useless expense and hard feelings, all of which can be avoided by each one doing his part towards relieving untold suffering and the saving of life itself.

Do help us pleasantly and do not force us to use harsher means as the city must be cleaned up and kept clean.

Respectfully,
W. J. TRULL, Sanitary Officer.

IT'S A MISTAKE

to think training isn't a factor—a very important factor—in taking proper care of one's future. Many people have money left to them but lack the special training needed to properly care for it—it gets away. IF YOU expect to have money left to you later on in life you will need training in order to be able to give your interests the vigilant care they will demand if you are to hold your own or build for a larger success. This training is only acquired by actual practice. No other method for gaining it is so good, so business-like, so safe as the Bank Account method. Start Your training NOW by coming in and opening an account with us—one dollar will get you started—add to it as you can.
