

YOUR HEART AND MINE.

****

The following little poem "If" is taken from "Truthseeker's" column in the Melbourne (Fla.) Times, and is the essence of truth. Read it and find out for yourself if you know "your heart and mine:"

IF.

"If I knew you, and
You knew me,
If both of us could clearly see,
And with an inner sight, divine
The meaning of
Your heart and mine,
I'm sure that we should differ less
And clasp our hands in friendliness.
Our thoughts would pleasantly agree,
If I knew you, and
You knew me.

If I knew you, and
You knew me,
As each one knows his own self, we
Could look each other in the face
And see therein a truer grace.
Life has so many hidden woes,
So many thorns for every rose,
The why of things, our hearts would see,
If I knew you, and
You knew me."

—Good Cheer.

AN ATTRACTION.

****

One of the attractions this week is to be found at the Southern Pines Pharmacy, where a fine picture of the famous "Dr." Daskum—so well and favorably known here in the past as the erstwhile pharmacist, slight of hand performer, banjo soloist, etc., is on exhibition "for this week only."

A. AND M. COLLEGE.

This great industrial school is now ready for five hundred pupils. If you wish your boys taught to work, prepared for industrial life, trained in habits of economy, regularity and punctuality, write to President Winston, Raleigh, N. C., for booklet, "A Day at the A. and M. College."

PERSONAL.—R. A. McLeod, who left here some weeks ago to spend the summer in Massachusetts, has returned, realizing that he has much better health here than in that State. We are pleased to have him with us again.

The North Carolina Press Association is in session at Hendersonville this week.

VIRULENT CANCER CURED.

Startling proof of a wonderful advance in medicine is given by druggist G. W. Roberts, of Elizabeth, W. Va. An old man there had long suffered with what good doctors pronounced incurable cancer. They believed his case hopeless till he used Electric Bitters and applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which treatment completely cured him. When Electric Bitters are used to expel bilious, kidney and microbe poisons at the same time this salve exerts its matchless healing power, blood diseases, skin eruptions, ulcers and sores vanish. Bitters 50c, salve 25c at Johnson's Pharmacy.
