Don't say, next Tuesday, when everyone is applauding the old fashion school as held in the Opera House Monday night—"Oh, if I had known it was to be so enecertaining I should have gone;" but go; be there—enjoy it to the full, and have something to talk about.

A 4 O'Clock Dinner By Mrs. D. A. Pease.

Mrs. D. A. Pease celebrated her birthday Saturday by having a 4 o'clock dinner party, the invited guests being Mr. and Mrs. Temple, Mr. and Mrs. Sanders, Mrs. Shay, Mrs. Mattison, Miss Lorena Shay, Mrs. A. A. Moulton, Miss M. T. Garland, and Miss Marjorie Mattison. The turkey dinner was served in fine shape, with entrees and desserts. The table was beautifully decorated with flowers and ferns, the rooms also being decorated with flowers, pines, etc. The whole affair was much enjoyed by all the party. Mr. Pease's sister, Mrs. Marcia Pease, contributing much to the pleasure of the evening. May Mrs. Pease live to enjoy many more happy birthdays, is the wish of all her friends.

Mrs. and Miss Kent of Richmond, Va., are at Grove Cottage.

We failed last week to note the presence with us of our friend Mr. C. F. Breunle, of Coudersport, Pa., who is now a guest of Grove Cottage. He has been stopping at Asheville, but thinks Southern Pines best.

The entertainment given by the Knights of Pythias at the Opera House Wednesday night was a most successful affair, and was enjoyed by a large number of people. The broom drill was a pleasing feature of the occasion, and a handsome sum was raised.

Judge Locey will tell us all about the equalization of taxes at the Board of Trade meeting next Tuesday night.

Mr. Jay Mecray, of Cape May, N. J., will lead the Senior C. E. meeting Sunday evening at 7 P. M. at Congregational church.

If troubled with weak digestion, belching or sour stomach, use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and you will get quick relief. For sale by Sadelson & Flint and Underwood's Pharmacy.
