

"Calumet" Does Not Belong to a Baking Powder Trust, but Consumers are Rapidly Learning to Place Their Trust in "Calumet."

CALUMET Baking Powder

NONE SO GOOD.

GOSSIP AND NOTES.

"Rocked in the cradle of the deep, Our gallant Dewey sank their fleet. Secure they rest beneath the wave No powers on earth have power to save. We never will slight the Cubans call! But they shall mark the Spaniards fall. And calm and peaceful they shall sleep Rocked in the cradle of the deep."

Milton may be said to be a "dry town" now.

Yesterday's rain has made glad the hearts of our farmers.

The schools will close in five weeks for their summer vacation.

No injury is reported resulting from last week's light frosts.

Work on the new tennis court was commenced Arbor Day.

Evidence of spring clean-up can be found at most every corner in town.

If you want to be strictly in it this summer join the Langdon lawn tennis club.

Teachers examinations will be conducted Friday of next week both at Milton and in this city.

Our "country cousins" at Wales and Hannah didn't even get enough rain yesterday to lay the dust.

Tuesday was generally observed as the Seventeenth of Norway, or the Scandinavian Fourth of July.

Wheat has been slumping off a few cents each day since last Friday, leaving the price on the local market to-day $1.08.

Next Saturday the contract will be let for the building of a new school house in Perry—this will give the township four schools in all.

Teachers and scholars of Langdon public schools flung Old Glory to the breeze from their new flag staff on the morning of Arbor Day.

J. F. Mager, the Walhalla postmaster, writes that the people down there would like to have a daily mail service with Langdon. The desire is mutual.

There is no grade of wheat in the local market too poor to bring at least a dollar a bushel. Two years ago the local price for the highest grade was 42c a bushel.

Sunday evening's exciting war rumor of the encounter off Porto Rico, in which the New York and Indiana were sunk only proved to be another "yellow fake."

Next week the DEMOCRAT will publish a complete program of the convention to be held in this city by the Cavalier Co. Sunday School Association, three days, beginning June 2nd.

Wheat buyers at Osnabrock are reported to have paid out $10,000 in hard cash for wheat in one week during the prevailing high prices—this did not include several private shipments.

Sheriff McGauvran left yesterday for the Bismarck penitentiary with Hoppe, the wheat thief and jail breaker who received a fifteen month sentence in Judge Sauter's court on Tuesday.

Friday evening the band furnished our people with a number of stirring patriotic airs from the balcony of the Columbia. The prospect of regular open air concerts these fine summer evenings gives pleasures to all and a big turnout may always be looked for.

The price of flour has been higher during the past week than at any time within the memory of the "oldest inhabitant" of this section. Those who have wheat to sell can afford to pay the high price, but it strikes the dweller in town pretty hard.

Morris Orton writes to his parents here in a letter received last week that his party have left behind them the perils and hardships of the trip and are now at Lake Bennett awaiting the opening of navigation when they will easily complete their long journey to the gold fields of the Klondike.

A good many Mt. Carmelites are complaining loud and long about the continual carrying by of mail matter for that office. Letters and papers destined for that place are taken on to the end of the route and brought back from the north on the return trip. The service given has for some time past called for frequent kicks and somebody with a sharp stick should stir the matter up until it is fixed.

The first annual convention of the Sunday schools of Cavalier county will be held in this city from the three days, June 2nd to 4th. Arrangements for the entertainment of delegates and others interested in the work of the convention have been looked after already and an interesting program prepared for the various sessions. About fifty-six teachers and officers of Sunday schools from all points in this county have expressed their intention of being present.

Saturday afternoon Rev. Pouliot officiated at the funeral of the youngest child of Hon. F. E. Renaud, a little boy, born three weeks ago. The services were held at the Catholic church in this city and the burial at the cemetery west of the church.

Since Druggist Dick Burke has started up his fountain and is again dishing up those fine ice cream soda's the girls are all willing to forgive him about the nasty little man that he has in the window, that makes faces at them and winks an eye as they pass by. As Dick winds him up every day perhaps that accounts for the wink.

It is understood that Mr. John T. McCutcheon, the war correspondent who wrote the New York Journal account of Admiral Dewey's victory at Manila, is a cousin of B. R. Glick, of this city, and Mrs. Frank H. Prosser, of Devils Lake. He was on the McCullough dispatch boat during the encounter and is a young man under thirty years of age.

J. B. Boyd was among those who expected to represent the local Workman order at the grand lodge meeting at Fargo this week, but on account of business was compelled to forego the pleasure. Mr. Boyd holds the office Grand Overseer of the A. O. W. order and was in line for advancement to Grand Foreman this year had he chosen to accept the same.

E. A. Farrell returned from his week's stay at Fargo on Saturday, attending U. S. court. While there he paid several visits to Camp Briggs to look up Langdon soldier boys and announces that all have already developed a nice dark sun-burnt tan. They unanimously agree, however, that sleeping on a pine board with only a thin blanket for covering is nothing like having a comfortable bed at home.

Dick Burke secured some exceedingly good views of the parade and demonstration on Wednesday afternoon in honor of the departure of Sergt. Frank F. Ross to join the state militia in camp at Fargo. Several views of the procession were taken from the balcony and roof of the Columbia while passing down Third street, others show the crowd that thronged the depot while awaiting the train and other interesting scenes. All will be valued as pleasant mementos for many years to come.

Two five room houses to rent—Dr. Donovan.

LIFE AT CAMP BRIGGS.

Gossip and News from Langdon Volunteers in Camp at Fargo.

The Co. E. arms and equipment were turned over to Co. D. of Devils Lake.

Sergt. F. F. Ross has been mustered into the services of your Uncle Samuel with Co. H. of Jamestown.

F. J. Hodgins, who is in Fargo attending the Workman grand lodge meeting, made the boys a visit Tuesday and passed around the cigars.

Rob't. Montgomery and Anton Krokus were the only two Langdon boys failing to pass the rigid examination, by reason of their eye sight being defective.

Troop G. of the third United States cavalry, in which a number of Langdon boys have enlisted, has been dubbed "Gregory's Devils," of Devils Lake.

Each member of Co. H. has a "housewife," containing needles, thread and other little articles that will come handy while the boys are away from home.

Bob McHugh is in line for promotion right from the start and will be one of the non-commissioned officers of Troop G. as soon as the boys are mustered in.

Chas. Butterwick, who joined Co. E. with the expectation of going to the front, has proven that such was his purpose by enlisting in Co. K. of Dickinson.

Tuesday and Wednesday the surgeons were busy examining the boys of Troop G. The examining staff say they are the finest lot of men that have yet come before them.

L. G. Richards and wife were among Sunday excursionists at Fargo and made it a point to look up the Langdon boys encamped here. It will be remembered that Mr. Richard bought wheat in Langdon for the National elevator a number of years. He is now employed by the same company at Thompson.

At Sunday afternoon chapel exercises the purport of the prayers of Co. H. boys was for bread that was not sour, for sugar and for butter. Tuesday morning their prayers were answered by a liberal donation of the above luxuries being received from the hands of the friends left behind in Jamestown.

Mr. John Peterson, of Patoutville, La. was very agreeably surprised not long ago. For eighteen months he had been troubled with dysentery and had tried three of the best doctors in New Orleans, besides half a dozen or more of patent medicines, but received very little relief. Chamberlain's colic, cholera, and diarrhoea remedy, having been recommended to him, he gave it a trial and to his great surprise, three doses of that remedy effected a permanent cure. Mr. McNamara a well known merchant of that place is acquainted with Mr. Peterson and attests to the truth of this statement. This remedy is for sale by N. E. McGruer.
