Langdon : and : Hannah.

AMONG OUR EXCHANGES.

William Tompkins, recently from Ontario, went up to Hannah on Tuesday, to look after the farm of his brother, one of the deceased members of Company C.—Park River Gazette.

F. B. Tracy, formerly of the Langdon Republican and more recently of the editorial staff of the Boston Transcript, has been transferred to Washington as assistant correspondent of that paper.—Fargo Forum.

I. I. Ottum, of Alma, squatted on land before it was surveyed and before he was of age, and is now the owner of three of the best quarter sections of land in the state, under a splendid state of cultivation with good buildings, stock and machinery.—Milton Globe.

Postmaster Shaw, of Byron, presented The Moon, one morning this week, with a potato that weighs just an ounce short of four pounds. While large potatoes are common in Western Cavalier county this fall, this is the largest we have seen. It is still here.—Hannah Moon.

Pat O'Hara, the genial landlord of the U. S. Hotel, Neche, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. W. J. Briden, and two of his younger sons, were at the Bellevue over Wednesday night on their way to Wales, Cavalier county, where they will visit with Wallace O'Hara, a son of Pat's who is running an elevator at that point.—Wahalla Mountaineer.

I. B. Parsons came in from Stillwell, Cavalier county, last week and he says that John Hope of that place is erecting one of the finest barns that he ever saw. It will be 90 x 44 with a ten foot stone wall basement and twelve foot studding on top of that. Mr. Hope says it costs him $4,000. He is deeply engaged in stock raising and is certainly going to have good shelter for his animals this winter.—Bathgate Pink Paper.

HANNAH'S ALRIGHT.

That's How a Fargo Forum Representative Sized-Up the End Town Last Week.

Rev. Van Horn, the Forum traveler spent part of the past week at Hannah and in a letter to his paper, the live evening daily at Fargo he has the following good things to say about the town up at the end of the line:

The old saying that towns spring up in the west like magic is true of this place. The extension of the railroad from Langdon made Hannah the business center for the north of the county. Enterprising business men took advantage of the situation and the result is a good town with a very promising future. I had the pleasure of spending an evening with Mr. H. E. Kinney and his wife. They were at one time, residents of Fargo and have not forgotten their old love. They are prosperous and happy and are the proud parents of as fine a pair of twin boys as the country can afford. Both of true republican stock and will be true blue. Mr. Kinney is deputy collector of United States customs and is the same jovial, good fellow as he was nine years ago when I first met him in the old I. O. O. F. hall in Fargo. He came around and gave us a drive behind a high stepper that he keeps and the way he gets over the country is a caution, even to the gophers.

Mr. Davis the popular manager of the J. B. Boyd store, has just recovered from a severe attack of fever but is glad to be out again.

MANY A LIVER—Has turned with disgust from an otherwise lovable girl with an offensive breath. Karl's Clover Root Tea purifies the breath by its action on the bowels, etc., as nothing else will. Sold for years on absolute guarantee. Price 25cts. and 50 cts. For sale by H. D. Allert & Co.

Millions of dollars, is the value placed by Mrs. Mary Bird, Harrisburg, Pa., on the life of her child, which she saved from croup by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. It cures all coughs, colds and throat and lung troubles. N. E. McGruer.

Additional Local.

Dentist Allan returned Monday from his trip up the line to Hannah.

Rev. Pouliot visited Wales yesterday on business connected with the building of a Catholic church there this fall.

There has been big money in sight for all having flax to sell this week. The price has ruled from $1.03 to $1.07 all week. Many haven't threshed their flax yet.

Schulke advertises new attractions for his Saturday bargain sales at the Trade Palace that can't fail to draw the crowd. For two weeks he offers shoes at cost.

Will be here next Wednesday evening, Charles F. Craig, the great impersonator. His rendition of "Shore Acres" is said to be worth twice the price of admission.

Rev. Robertson conducts Baptist services the coming Sunday at Rosa Lake at 11 a. m., at the Roney school house, 3 p. m., and in this city at 7:30 p. m.

Miss Annie Muhs of Dresden, and Miss Adeline Fath, of Mt. Carmel, made a canvas of the city this week for a gold watch that will be offered at the Dresden Catholic church bazaar in a popular voting contest next month.

R. T. Burke entertained as visitors this week his sisters Mrs. Wm. Dobie and Miss Kake Burke, with their friends Miss Agnes Jennings and Miss Susie Hussey. The latter is from St. Paul and visiting with acquaintances at Bathgate and Cavalier.

J. H. Rhodes, the Nimrod of the basement tonorial parlors, boarded the Elkwood stage Tuesday to stalk deer along the banks of the Pembina river. He returned yesterday with enough venison to last his friends until after Thanksgiving.

Turkey raffles are coming on thick and fast. One we have received notice of takes place on the 28th at John J. Messner's, two miles north of Ambro post office. Besides the turkeys he raffles off a lot of geese and tame rabbits, also a sulky plow—take your choice.

A public piano recital by Prof. Kirk's pupils combined with a children's chorus is in course of preparation. The date on which it is to be rendered will be given in our issue of next week. The program will consist of solos, duets and six-handed piano selections, interspersed with songs by the children. Lovers of music should not fail to attend what promises to be a musical treat.

Threshing machines have mostly quit for the season and pulled in for the winter. There is a little late flax and an occasional field of wheat still to be cared for, but the amount cleaned up before the bad weather set in is excellent compared with previous years. Owners of rigs as a rule have made little or no money owing to high wages and the short length of time their machines were running.

Last Saturday morning Chief of Police McDermott arrested the party who stole the harness off the horse of W. S. Gibson while in town the previous Sunday. When the loss was discovered and Gibson was ready to start for home there was no clue of how harness or thief had disappeared, but McDermott finally rounded up the sneak and what was more important recovered the property. The hearing was before Judge Barco who gave the prisoner the usual dose.

The threshing crew that has worked on the rig of Henry Zado in the vicinity of Dresden all fall would like to locate and interview him about now. Zado's disappearance dates from last Thursday when he left presumably for Manitoba without paying his men and numerous other accounts. His reputation as a thresher has been exactly gilt edge for the past two seasons, but he made a pretence of squaring things up before starting up this fall. It is not thought that Zado had anything much to skip out with, nevertheless, those who mourn his departure think they could do something with him if found.

Jno. R. Powers returned today from a flying business trip to the Forks.

Attorney Erickson transacted business at Hannah between trains yesterday.

Remember the basket social at William Gordon's six miles north of Langdon tomorrow evening.

It is reported that early in November the Catholic churches of this county will receive a visit from Bishop Shanley.

Gardner & Co., have been busy this week filling the contract awarded them of furnishing throughout the new ten-room residence of E. E. Elford.

Organizer Elliott, of the new beneficiary order of Yeomen, which has its headquarters at Dubuque, Ia., is spending the week in the city with a view to securing charter members and starting a lodge.

Harry Scott, the competent teacher of the Maids school district closed a successful six months term last week and will spend the winter in town with his father, S. T. Scott, the type artist of the Republican.

Last Saturday afternoon Miss Constance Truax filled the role of hostess at a party given to a number of friends at the family residence on the occasion of her fifteenth birthday. It is reported to have been a very pleasant little affair.

The professional card of Attorney Richardson this week announces the fact of a change in the firm. His partner, J. M. Stecker, is a newcomer to the Cavalier county bar, but brings with him excellent recommendations from his home town in Iowa.

The half tone picture of Miss Lottie Tibbals, of Larimore, in the Grand Forks Plaindealer one day last week was a charming one, and in consequence her vote in the World's Fair trip contest took a jump of over 50,000. The support that is being given her by a host of Langdon friends, will add materially to the majority that they expect to see her have when the contest closes on the first of December.

Monday the DEMOCRAT received a call from Beckett, the Grand Forks thresher, who has gained considerable fame locally since bringing his rig up here early in the fall. Beckett takes exception to the manner in which the DEMOCRAT aired the grievances of his crew and the way he has run things generally, registering an emphatic kick at being the of so much publicity. The DEMOCRAT has troubles of its own and from current report Beckett has a few of the same. We have nothing to take back, nor time or inclination to give his interview more extended mention. If we were awarded the contract of separating the sheep from the goats, however, we would find no trouble in assigning Beckett to the flock in which he rightfully belonged.

Yesterday the time expired for the filing of nominations for the election of a County Commissioner of the Second District and results in showing that the present incumbent, Com'r Heapy, has the field to himself for re-election on Nov. 7. Com'r Heapy's friends in his home precinct no sooner found that nominating conventions failed to materialize than they started a petition circulating for his nomination by paper. Wm. Flaack took the matter in hand and found willing signers for the petition wherever he presented it. Seldom if ever has the advent of an election been marked by such a peaceful and undisturbed political aspect as the approaching love-feast in the Second District. The endorsement given Com'r Heapy by those of every political faith in his district is evidence of his executive ability on the county board.

TELL YOUR SISTER—A beautiful complexion is an impossibility without good pure blood, the sort that only exists in connection with good digestion, healthy liver and bowels. Karl's Clover Root Tea acts directly on the bowels, liver and kidneys keeping them in perfect health. Price 25 cts. and 50 cts., sold by H. D. Allert & Co.

GIRL WANTED—At once, good wages to the right party. Mrs. P. McHugh.

The funeral services of the late Robert Elliott, of Monn, postponed on Sunday last owing to the inclemency of the weather, will be conducted on the coming Sabbath by Rev. S. F. Beer at the M. E. church of Harvey Center, services beginning at half past three o'clock in the afternoon.

One of the most important events of the week was the reception and dance of last Friday evening at the Donovan Hall given in honor of Mrs. Wm. Dobie and Miss Kate Burke, sisters of Druggist R. T. Burke. The party was not a large one, but was manifestly of sufficient merit to show the visitors of our city that Langdon has as good entertainers as any other town in the state.

AFTER suffering for nearly thirty years from dyspepsia, Mrs. H. E. Dugdale, wife of a prominent business man of Warsaw, N. Y., writes: "For 28 years, I was a constant sufferer from dyspepsia and a weak stomach. The lightest food produced distress, causing severe pain and the formation of gas. No matter how careful of my diet I suffered agonizing pain after eating. I was treated by many physicians and tried numerous remedies without permanent help. Two years ago I began taking Dr. Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills and Nervine. Within a week I commenced improving, and persisting in the treatment I was soon able to eat what I liked, with no evil effects. I keep them at hand and a single dose dispels any old symptoms."
