FAIRVIEW BOXING SCANDAL BARED IN RECORD ARTICLE ABOUT BENEFIT TO OLD SAM LANGFORD, NEGRO BOXER

From Table of High Costs of the Show the Aged Colored Fighter Never Got One Penny Though Nearly $2,500 Was Taken and Called "Talented" Got the Money in a Sorry Showing.

The recovery of the boxing gains in the Fairview story has been delayed until the Supreme Court of New Jersey can hear the case and adjudge the validity of the contract between the Fairview, N. J., and the Colored Boxers Association, representing the interests of Colored Boxers and the Negroes in general.

There is no doubt that a decision will be reached in this case before the end of the week, but the exact date cannot be announced until the Supreme Court has heard the arguments.

RICHARD G. SUE THE BOROUGH AND NAEDLER

The result of Accident Which Damaged his Car: Case Comes Up Today; Brief Review of Facts Concerning Mischap.

The case of Richard G. Sued the Borough and Naedler, a Colored Boxers Association, who were accused of swindling $2,500 from the account of the Fairview, N. J., has been adjourned until next Monday, when the Supreme Court will hear the arguments.

The Borough and Naedler are accused of swindling $2,500 from the account of the Fairview, N. J., and the Colored Boxers Association.

There is no doubt that a decision will be reached in this case before the end of the week, but the exact date cannot be announced until the Supreme Court has heard the arguments.

Three Candidates for the Council in Cliffside

Two Vacancies in Fort Lee and Just Two Candidates File

Petitions; Interest in Local Officials Lacking.

There are three candidates in Cliffside for the two vacancies on the Borough Council. The candidates are Nicholas J. Bayley, John McAndrew and James O. Revell, all Republicans. There are 243 voters registered in the borough, but only one of the candidates has been successful in a previous election.

In Fort Lee there are two candidates in the race for the Borough Council. The candidates are Henry S. Key and John G. Key, both Republicans. In the previous election, the candidates were defeated by the Democratic ticket.

In Cliffside Park the following have filed their nomination papers: Arthur A. M. A., the Democratic standard bearer, and Samuel P. Meyer, the Republican candidate. In previous elections, the candidates have been defeated by the Democratic ticket.

In Passaic the following have filed their nomination papers: Arthur A. M. A., the Democratic standard bearer, and Samuel P. Meyer, the Republican candidate. In previous elections, the candidates have been defeated by the Democratic ticket.

The Borough Council consists of seven members, five of whom are elected by the voters at large, and two of whom are elected from each of the districts.

In Cliffside Park the following have filed their nomination papers: Arthur A. M. A., the Democratic standard bearer, and Samuel P. Meyer, the Republican candidate. In previous elections, the candidates have been defeated by the Democratic ticket.

In Passaic the following have filed their nomination papers: Arthur A. M. A., the Democratic standard bearer, and Samuel P. Meyer, the Republican candidate. In previous elections, the candidates have been defeated by the Democratic ticket.

The Borough Council consists of seven members, five of whom are elected by the voters at large, and two of whom are elected from each of the districts.

In Cliffside Park the following have filed their nomination papers: Arthur A. M. A., the Democratic standard bearer, and Samuel P. Meyer, the Republican candidate. In previous elections, the candidates have been defeated by the Democratic ticket.

In Passaic the following have filed their nomination papers: Arthur A. M. A., the Democratic standard bearer, and Samuel P. Meyer, the Republican candidate. In previous elections, the candidates have been defeated by the Democratic ticket.

The Borough Council consists of seven members, five of whom are elected by the voters at large, and two of whom are elected from each of the districts.

In Cliffside Park the following have filed their nomination papers: Arthur A. M. A., the Democratic standard bearer, and Samuel P. Meyer, the Republican candidate. In previous elections, the candidates have been defeated by the Democratic ticket.

In Passaic the following have filed their nomination papers: Arthur A. M. A., the Democratic standard bearer, and Samuel P. Meyer, the Republican candidate. In previous elections, the candidates have been defeated by the Democratic ticket.

The Borough Council consists of seven members, five of whom are elected by the voters at large, and two of whom are elected from each of the districts.

In Cliffside Park the following have filed their nomination papers: Arthur A. M. A., the Democratic standard bearer, and Samuel P. Meyer, the Republican candidate. In previous elections, the candidates have been defeated by the Democratic ticket.

In Passaic the following have filed their nomination papers: Arthur A. M. A., the Democratic standard bearer, and Samuel P. Meyer, the Republican candidate. In previous elections, the candidates have been defeated by the Democratic ticket.

The Borough Council consists of seven members, five of whom are elected by the voters at large, and two of whom are elected from each of the districts.

In Cliffside Park the following have filed their nomination papers: Arthur A. M. A., the Democratic standard bearer, and Samuel P. Meyer, the Republican candidate. In previous elections, the candidates have been defeated by the Democratic ticket.