C. J. LEEBER MAKES ANOTHER PLEA FOR THE IMPROVEMENT OF LAWTON AVE. AND J. MCDONALDOPH OPPOSES HIM

Leber asks that the Board of Aldermen, which included Lawrence and McCarthy on the nine-member body, consider the improvement of the street located in the city's northern quadrant. In his speech, Leber discusses the need for an all-weather, paved roadway that would facilitate travel and enhance the area's commercial viability. He argues that the improvement of Lawton Avenue would not only benefit the residents of the neighborhood but also contribute to the city's overall economic growth. McCarthy, however, expresses concern about the cost and potential displacement of residents, advocating for a more prudent approach. The debate highlights the tension between the advocates of modern infrastructure and those who prioritize social and environmental considerations.

PRETTY MISS LARKIN WEDS FT. LEAN MAN

A ceremony was performed on Wednesday in St. John’s Church, Cliffside Park, where Miss Hattie E. Larkin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Larkin of Cliffside Park, became the bride of H. F. Leane. The wedding was followed by a reception at the residence of the bride’s parents. The couple departs for a honeymoon in Vermont, where they will continue their postmarital journey in the mountains.

BERGENFIELD JUMPS INTO THE LIMELIGHT

Senatorial List of Mayors of the Bergenfield Council is in N Y. Papers—The True Facts

The Bergenfield Council announced its intention to seek re-election, setting the stage for a contentious political battle. The announcement follows a series of public controversies, raising questions about the council’s integrity and its ability to effectively serve the community. The forthcoming election promises to be a significant test of the council’s popularity and its capacity to address the needs of Bergenfield residents.

UNIQUE PARTY ON THE OREMUS LAWN

Over Six Hundred HEADSpeakers and Enjoy a pleasant Even

One of the most unique and offbeat events of the season, a gathering on the Oremus Lawn, took place amidst the lilacs and moonlight. The event, which was organized by the Oremus Club, featured an extraordinary lineup of speakers. The guests enjoyed a delightful evening under the stars, listening to captivating stories and sermons. The event has become a local tradition, attracting a loyal following from neighboring towns.

LARGEST SCHOOL REGISTRATION CAUSES CROWDED CONDITIONS IN BOTH FT. LEE AND CLIFFSIDE PARK

Cliffside and Grasswood Schools in Cliffside Park Are Overcrowded—Registration in Fort Lee the Same—Urgent Need of a New School in Fort Lee—Fort Lee School Board Discusses Site for Same

The arrival of spring has brought an influx of students to schools in both Cliffside and Fort Lee, leading to overcrowded conditions that strain the educational facilities. As the school year progresses, the need for additional school space becomes more urgent. The Fort Lee School Board has been actively discussing potential sites for new construction to alleviate the current pressures.

GEORGE KIPP TO HEAD FT. LEE FIRE DEPT.

John Schubert elected as his assistant...Both Good Men. Only 50c Votes Cast

George Kipp has been appointed to lead the Fort Lee Fire Department, signaling a new chapter in the community’s emergency response efforts. The appointment has been well-received, and Kipp is poised to continue the department’s tradition of excellence.

The local news features a variety of stories, ranging from civic events to personal milestones. A wedding ceremony is highlighted, along with local political developments and community gatherings. The city is preparing for an increase in school registrations, prompting discussions about the need for new educational facilities. The Fort Lee School Board is actively engaged in planning efforts to address these pressing issues.

Editor C. T. Logan, of N. Y., C. N. Many of the letters and articles in the column are written by C. T. Logan, a prominent figure in the local community. His insights and opinions are shaped by his close involvement in civic and social affairs. Logan’s contributions often revolve around the themes of education, community service, and civic engagement, reflecting a deep commitment to the betterment of the city.

POLITICAL Gossip

The political column offers a glimpse into the activities and interactions of the local political figures. It serves as a platform for the exchange of ideas and the airing of concerns, fostering a sense of community among those engaged in the political discourse.

WOMEN IN THE TEAM

The news item mentions women’s contributions to the community, highlighting their roles in various aspects of public life, from educational leadership to civic engagement. It underscores the importance of inclusivity and the value of diverse perspectives in shaping the future of the community.

Small Petition

A small petition was submitted to the Fort Lee Board of Education, suggesting the incorporation of a new subject, possibly related to the arts or science. The petition reflects the community’s interest in expanding educational offerings.

EDITOR’S NOTE

The editor’s note emphasizes the importance of community involvement in shaping the direction of the local government. It underscores the role of citizens in advocating for changes that impact their daily lives, urging residents to stay informed and actively participate in decision-making processes.