FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 1906.
Feb. 13—Black & Dubois, horse sale in Sweden.
Feb. 23—John M. Davis, 2 miles above Penn's Grove.

Moving has begun.
St. Valentine's day next Wednesday.

Uncle Sam is rich enough to buy us all a farm, but he does not do it.

Did you see the eclipse of the moon this morning between 2 and 3 o'clock?

The boys and girls enjoyed skating for the first time this winter on Wednesday.

Jos. G. French began filling his ice house on Wednesday with ice 4 inches thick.

White Pine Balsam, the best for coughs and colds at Johnson's drug store.

The early tomato raisers have their seed houses smoking and will sow tomato seed next week.

Has the weather been cold enough to make you believe in the ground hog prognostication?

The first published statement of the First National Bank, of Pedricktown appears in this issue.

On January 31, 1888 the first shovel full of dirt was dug for the starting of Gibbstown powder works.

Never was so much plowing done in January as this year, but the farmers saw their shadows on the second and quit.

The pumps of the water works at Pedricktown mill pond were started for the first time on Thursday, when the well was pumped out. It is expected that water will be in Penn's Grove pipes next week.

For rent—a double house. Charles L. Smith.

It is rumored that the Penn's Grove branch of the West Jersey & Seashore Railroad will be electrically equipped as soon as the main line is finished. It is also rumored that the Salem branch will be equipped with electricity.

The W. C. T. U. will have a parlor social at the home of Mrs. J. D. Torton, Tuesday, Feb. 13, at 2:30 o'clock. Miss Crothers, of Woodstown, will give "Echoes from the National Convention, Los Angeles, Cal." Every body invited. Lunch will be served.

The civil engineers at the Powder Works have been surveying Robt. Kidd's farm. The Dupont Company have decided the manager, William K. Dupont, must live on this side of the River and two or three nights are being considered for purchase on which to build a mansion.

I am still closing out my entire stock at reduced prices and my store is for rent. Mrs. Tillie Smith.

Thirty years ago thousands of bushels of corn were exported from Penn's Grove but owing to the change in crops and ways of farming this region does not raise enough corn for the farm stock. Corn is now in good demand at $5 a bu. for cash sales. At vendues on credit sales it is selling between 65c and 70c a bushel.

The Salem County Board of Agriculture has elected the following officers: President, John G. Borton; vice president, Samuel H. Moore; secretary, Mrs. George A. Duell; treasurer, Joel Borton; executive committee—B. F. Stranghen, Edgar C. Moore, C. French Moore, Miss Jessie L. Colson, S. Jackson Morgan, M. D. Dickinson and Geo. H. Kirby.

Fine toilet articles and fine stationery at Johnson's drug store.

Winter freezing weather has been on us for a week. Last Saturday morning the temperature was down to 12°, but it moderated until Monday afternoon when a snow squall nearly covered the ground. A cold north wind pulled the temperature down to 8° Tuesday morning. On Wednesday it was 18°, Thursday 20°, and at 6 o'clock Thursday evening a snow storm began and continued all night. It would have been a deep snow, but for it being a fine rain and making sleet, with the temperature near the freezing point.

Do you keep in mind that a dental visit is a convenience in emergencies and saves time and expense to go elsewhere? B. F. Filer, Sparks' Building, Mondays, Fridays and Saturdays.

Church Notes.

ST. PAUL'S METHODIST EPISCOPAL.
Next Sunday morning sermon will be about "The Little Family of Bethel." Evening sermon on "Jesus Christ Betrayed."

Steamers to Cape May.
After a cessation of two seasons it is possible that a steamboat line will again be operated between Philadelphia and Cape May, N. J.

A Philadelphia company is at present negotiating with the bay front property owners at Cape May for a suitable location for a wharf at which boats may land. If the plans are carried out a line of steamers will run between those points, making a round trip daily. Stoves will be made at Leves and it is probable that a stop will be made at Gordon Heights, as formerly.

A House Burned

William A. Sack's farm house on South Broad Street, tenanted by James Cook was burned down last Saturday morning between 5 and 6 o'clock, with all the goods in it.

Mr. Cook got up about 5 o'clock and started fire in the kitchen stove. He went into the front room to put on his shoes. He had not been over five minutes when he opened the door to find the kitchen on fire and full of smoke. A cold wind from the north blew the smoke into the front rooms, so that little could be done but get out of the house. A few pieces of furniture were taken out of the dining room, but all the other furniture, and clothing were burned except what Mr. and Mrs. Cook had on. She had got down stairs when the fire was discovered. Frank Grubb, Humphrey Lynch and George Mulford, who boarded there, only had time to dress and get down stairs.

An alarm was given and many citizens gathered at the fire but nothing could be done to save the building or goods in it. It was with difficulty that the buildings on the south side of the street were saved.

Mr. Sack's house was an old one, half having been built over sixty years ago. It was fully insured to the amount of $900. Mr. Cook had a full insurance of $300 on his household goods.

Mr. Sack had planned to have a street made towards the river where the farm house stood. The ground will be cleared and a new house built in the rear of the lot facing South Broad Street.

Mr. Sack is having the trees which stood around the farm house cut down to clear the way for the new street.

Wilmingtonans Sojourn at Penn's Grove.
Wilmington Star.

The Wilmington colony along the shore of the Delaware river on the New Jersey side of the stream is having a fine time, even during the winter months. The steamer Ulrica is plying as usual between the two states, crossing the river daily on regular schedule time.

One year ago at this time this was impossible, owing to the fact that the river was frozen solid and boat connections with the Jersey shore were an impossibility. Now on Saturday evenings and Sunday mornings, many of the owners take advantage of the trip and spend Sunday on the shore in their cottages.

On January 28, travel across the Delaware was unusually large. At noon the Wilmington branch was literally lined with Wilmingtonians who came over to spend the day.

Many may not be aware how well Wilmington is represented in nearby Penn's Grove. Some of the cottages built along the shore, which are either leased or owned by Wilmington parties, are the Wilmington, Holton, Washington, Riverside, Now and Then, Breakers, Altoona, White Swan, The Strollers, Escadade, Rutherford, Comfort, J. H. L., The Henrietta, Cincinatti, Diamond State, The Teddies, The Hedley, Haworth, The Lone Star, Octorara, Killa Kenick, Ulrica, Nonpareil, Clinton Club, Orange Club, The Wayne, Louisa, Alma and many others.

These cottages are of various sizes and are estimated in price from $200 to $500. On no summer day are there less than 300 persons in the Wilmington spending the hot weather along the river in their cozy little homes.

The Central Club, composed of some well known young men of Wilmington, has sold the cottage recently to the club has ordered for the coming summer two steel boats, which will be used for pleasure purposes as well as for carrying freight. One of the boats is to be used to their cottages. A new kitchen and a larger porch will also be added to their cottage. Officer Jones of Wilmington, who owned the Ulrica cottage for several years, has sold the cottage recently to the club has ordered for the coming summer two steel boats, which will be used for pleasure purposes as well as for carrying freight. One of the boats is to be used to their cottages. A new kitchen and a larger porch will also be added to their cottage.
