anarchy in Patterson.

The blind Senator from Oklahoma Thomas Pryor Gore, is getting the rep utation of the U.S. Senate of being a "live wire." Mr. Gore is coming to be recognized as a good thing to let alone in a debate. While he is sightless or nearly so, he has managed to absorb an enormous lot of information on economics, politics, and history, and history and having a retentive memory, facts have a hard time getting away from him once he has got hold of them. Senator Gore is a forceful and eloquent speaker and able to take care of himself on his feet. In the Senate debate Tuesday, he reeled off facts, dates and figures in a way that made senators sit McCumbert and others, collided with the blind man from Oklahoma and drew off in need of repairs.

Senator Gore though not able to read himself, has a great amount of reading done to him. Mrs. Gore takes almost as much interest in politicial matters as the Senator himself and finds much time to read to her hus-

Temperance Legislation

Most every state legislature that has met within a year has has enacted some law which marks the advancement of some morals in regards to the drinking and sale of intoxicating liquors. Some have enacted prohibititory laws in regards to its sale, while Kansas has made it a crime to possess liquor for personal use. Nebraska enacted a law which prohibits the sale of liquor between 8 p. m. and 7 a. m. Most drinking takes place sn saloons at might, and the hour of opening does not give time to get drink before working hours. New Jersey enacted a law which authorizes municipal authorities to appoint a committee to forbid the sale of liquors to drunkards. The Jersy City Journal in speaking of it says: When Senator Hillery was speaking for his bill to create local boards of protectors for drunkards, he said that habitual drunkards are comparatively few. In small communities and rural sections every resident can name all the drunkards in their town or village and no doubt in the larger cities the number of drunkards will bear about the same ratio to the population that it does in small communites. Every person can prove this by trying to recall the number of drunkards each knows individually. Drunkenness is not increasing, rather can testify. It is bad form even with the faster sets to overindulged.

In spite of this there is a movement under way to establish inebriate homes for the treatment of drunkenness as a disease. No doubt alcoholism becomes a disease, but the bottom of the trouble is farther back than the existing speci. men in every case of habitual drunkenness. If it cannot be classed as an hereditary disease it can at least be considered under the head of of atavism, for certainly drunken parents have drunken children, though not all children of drunkards are addicted to drinking. It may be good political economy to provide homes for drunkards, because a certain per centage are reclaimable under treatment, but the crimes and idency commission is now looking up the history of criminals and drunkards in this state and remedial legislation looking to the prevention may be more important the cure. This brings back Senator Hillery's statement and the fact that about 150 families in Injana have supplied all the native criminals that state has had in custody.

Mr. Burk stated that the law governing the County Almshouse trustees specified that the trustees organize in May and therefore, to be in accordance with the law, he moved that the present board of trustees, who were elected in January, be re-elected to a term of one year. The motion was carried by a vote of 12 to 1.

Mr. Burk reported that he had received complaints from Lewis Holmes that the Nortonville bridge tender is not always on duty. It was ordered that the Clerk notify the Gloucester Board as that Board has charge of employing the tender, being a county line bridge.

Road Supervisor Dunn reported that the Pennsville-Salem state road needs repairing and that from 3,000 to $4,000 bushels of shells are needed. It was ordered that he purchase the shells and make the necessary repairs.

After due deliberation the Public Buildings Committee rethe contrary, as any one of mature years ported that it had no further report to make on the matter.

Mr. Pancoast reported that there is sunken vessel at Hancock's Bridge which has been abandoned by the owners which would soon be a menace to navigation. It was ordered that Captain Rand of the U. S. War Department be notified by the Clerk of the Board.

Mr. Burk reported that he had made investigation of the bill of costs for prisoners recommended to be discharged by the Sheriff and found every item to be correct and according to law. He also made a motion that the costs of three prisoners, Linwood Pitts, Washington Hall and George Wright, amounting to $22.65, be paid and the prisoners discharged and that five days per month be taken from the sentence of Walter Harris for good behavior. The motion was carried.

Mayor Gwynne addressed the meeting in behalf of the City Council of Salem in regards to a petition to build a state road on Yorke street to the Elsinboro township line and later on to build a state road of Broadway to Quinton township line. He gave excellent reasons for the County Improving the said streets and the probable cost. It was finally moved and carried that the petition be laid over until the next meeting.

Messrs. Lanning and Briant were appointed auditing committee for the next month and the meeting adjourned after thanking Mr. Fox and Mr. Haunah for the excellent shad dinner prepared and served. investigation of the bill of costs for prison-

MR: BRYAN'S PLANS

In response to repeated demands, coming from every section of the United States, Mr. Bryan will conduct a vigorous Campaign of Education through The Commoner, and assist in the organization of "An educational club in every presenct." These clubs will promote the work of education among the voters on all political questions affecting the American people.

To advance this educational plan, each issue of The Commoner will contain a special article on some pertinent political subject, designed to present, in an instructive way, authentic historical information, to give valuable statistical data, to carefully analyze the opposing arguments, and to discuss their application to present-day conditions.

The following subjects, and others, upon which all Americans should be accurately informed, will be discussed:

The Tariff (by schedules as it affects the individual); Postal Savings Banks; Imperialism; Colonialism; The Rights of the States; State—Wide Primary Laws; Inheritance Tax; Initiative and Referendum; Recall of Public Officials; Commission Form of Government for Cities; The Trust Question; Regulation of Railrends and Other Corporations; Popular Election of Senators; Income Tax.

This series will afford a vast fund of political information for any citizen regardless of party affiliation, provide excellent material for all students of economic questions, and will be a veritable compendium of politics for schools and debating societies.
