Mr. Osborn was a noted captain on steam boats on the Delaware river for years.

BADLY BURNED. Helen, the wife of Oscar Garrison, who lives in the house on Penn Street adjoining the Bethel Church, was badly burned by her clothing catching fire from a lamp last Saturday night.

She thought she heard some one on the roof and went up stairs carrying a lamp. She set the lamp down and went on. When she came down and saw her skirt knocked off the chimney of the lamp and the fire went down into the lamp top.

She picked the lamp up, took it down stairs and out doors to the pump box, not knowing her clothing was on fire until she got out of doors when a mass of flame enveloped her. Her screams were heard by Mrs. J. K. Dolbow who was passing the front of the house, by Isaac P. Simpkins in Bethel Church, by Edward Munyan and other neighbors, who rushed to her assistance. She lay down and rolled. Mrs. Dolbow put her shawl over her and Mr. Simpkins took his coat and smothered the flames which burned her body badly from her waist to her feet. Her hands neck and breast were also burned severely.

She has been in a very serious condition all the week, but there are hopes of her recovery. She was taken to Cooper Hospital, Camden on Thursday.

COUNTY CONDENSATIONS. Mayor Smashes, at the meeting of Salem Council appointed himself and Councilmen Smith and Hires to have charge of the streets of the city for the year.

While the change by law of the pay of county officials to a salary basis, instead of fees, made a loss in Salem and Gloucester counties, Atlantic county has had big gain in it. During the three years just ended, the office have paid a profit of $95,143. The County Clerk cleared $29,094.04, the Sheriff's office, $1,134 27, and the Surrogate's office, $7,944.92, the past year.

Life Saved At 11. "I never felt so near W. R. Patterson, of W. R. when a frightful cough pulled me down to 100 of doctor's treatment. It is a grand remedy for stomach troubles. Just as good for the liver and kidneys. Every bottle guaranteed. Only $1.00. Trial bottle free. Johnson's Drug Store.

THE SMALLPOX OUTBREAK EXTENSIVE.

Borough Council borrows to meet Emergency. The smallpox outbreak in Penn's Grove will cost the borough at least $3,000 and probably $4,000. As the money which is needed to meet the water and gas bills in June has to be transferred to the Board of Health accounts, $2,000 were borrowed Tuesday night by the Borough Council to meet bills presented and pending bills of Dr. Black, nurses and hospital.

All the members of council were present Tuesday evening and Mayor Gentles presided.

The collector reported receipts since Jan. 1st as follows: Delinquent taxes $87.09 Franchise tax 98.50 R. F. Shannon, fines 5.50 Donation from dePont Co. 750.00

Total $1,691.14 dePont bill for erecting the hospital was as follows: Labor $250.00 Material 281.50 Other material 23.13 Total $554.63

Other hospital bills presented at the meeting Tuesday night amounted to $1,025.31.

Dr. Black's bill amounting to over $1,000, half of which is soon due, the nurses bills and other pending bills made it necessary for the Council to borrow $2,000 from bank.

Ordinances presented by the Delaware and Atlantic Telegraph and Telephone Companies and the Peoples Rural Telephone Company, granting free use of all the streets in Penn's Grove for overhead or underground wires, for fifty years were introduced and read. As these were objections made to the length of time, height of poles and no fire phones mentioned, it is probable that amendments will be made before final passage.

Board of Education. The monthly meeting of the Penn's Grove Board of Education was held Monday evening. President Turnbull presided with Messrs. Walter Jall, A. J. Bodine, Simon Cunningham and N. S. Wood present.

A few current bills ordered paid and Dr. C. L. Fleming was elected medical inspector.

Superintendent Warren Marts reported that the pupils and teachers had resumed work in earnest after four weeks suspension. For the four months set fall of 1910 the average attendance was $70. In 1909 it was $55. The days attendance in 1909 was 26,976; in 1910, 28,884, a gain of 1,870 days.

The attendance on Tuesday of this week was 462.

The mid-year examination was held in the 8th grade on Monday and Tuesday and pupils did creditably, considering there had been no school for weeks.

Mr. Wood, who is a member of the Board of Health presented the case of compulsory vaccination. As very few children have not been vaccinated no action was to enforce the law. The following is the VACCINATION AND EPIDEMIC LAW. 121. A board of education may exclude from school any teacher or pupil who shall not have been vaccinated, unless such teacher or pupil shall present a certificate signed by a regularly licensed physician, that such teacher or pupil is an unfit subject for vaccination. No teacher or pupil who shall be member of household in which a person shall be ill with smallpox, diphtheria, scarlet fever, whooping cough, yellow fever, typhus fever, cholera, or measles, or of a household exposed to contagion as aforesaid, shall attend any public school during such illness, nor until the board of education shall have been furnished with a certificate from the board of health, or from the physician attending such person or from a medical inspector, certifying that all danger of communicating such disease by such teacher or pupil has passed.

122. In case any pupil enrolled in a public school shall be found to be unvaccinated, whose parents shall be in the judgment of the board of education unable to pay for the vaccination of such pupil the district clerk or secretary of the board of education may give to aid pupil a permit to appear before any regularly licensed physician to be vaccinated, and such physician, on presenting and permit with his certificate appended thereto that the vaccination has been by him successfully performed, shall receive from the township, city, incorporated town, borough or other municipality which said pupil shall reside the sum of fifty cents.

123. Wherever the board of health of any township, city, incorporated town, borough or other municipality shall declare any epidemic or cause of ill-health to be so injurious or hazardous as to make it necessary to close any or all of the public schools in such township, city, incorporated town, borough or other municipality, said board shall immediately give notice on the board of education of the school district situate in said township, city, incorporated town, borough or other municipality that it is desirable to close said school or schools. Upon receipt of such notice such board of education may close the schools under its control, or such of them as may be designated by the board of health, and said schools shall not be reopened until said board of education shall be notified that all danger from said epidemic or cause of ill-health has been removed.

The New Jersey law, concerning vaccination is directory and mandatory like the California vaccination law which was struck out in the Supreme Court of that state in 1910, in a contest between the State Board of Health, and the Board of Trustees of Waterbury School District of Santa Cruz county. The California Court declared that the State Act of 1898 providing for the exclusion from common schools of unvaccinated children, is within the police powers of the legislature, and is constitutional. The law provides that the trustees of the several common districts are directed to exclude from the benefits of the common schools therein any child or person who has not been vaccinated, it is mandatory and directory. The act providing for vaccination of school children was not repealed by the compulsory education act.

WEEK WOOLY IN SALEM FISHING

The Business Profitable for Jersey-men. Importance of the shad fishing industry as a source of revenue to the men who ply that trade in New Jersey is shown by the annual report of the Fish and Game Commission. Last year the first season in which the shad was made to get any thing like a show in extent of shad fishing, and the result was surprising. Statistics show that 2,500,000 shad were taken in the Delaware River and its tributaries, and that the total catch was valued at $1,000,000. This was an average price of 40 cents. A total of 7,779,494 shad was caught in the counties where the work is carried on more extensively, and 1,150 men found employment there.

The shad fishery is the most important part of the coast trade by the residents of Pennsylvania and Delaware, and show only those actually engaged in catching fish for market. If a shad could be obtained all the men who ply that trade in the Delaware River and its tributaries, others on the river opposite each fishery, to which the shad are taken to be shipped to the market, or purchased by the dealer stationed on these boats. Cooks are also employed by some of the fishermen, and a number of that calling are kept busy. Several thousand shad are also caught each season in small nets, and no record is made of these.

On an average about the number of the shad caught and price realized were an increase over the two or three years preceding. This does not necessarily mean that the cost to the consumer was greater as the fish last year were much larger than formerly, averaging about six pounds and many weighing from nine to 11 pounds. In the early season from 75 cents to $1 is the return from each fish, but later in the season last year the price fell to 30 cents. A fair average for the catch is said to be $40 per hundred.

As gill nets are prohibited above Trenton Falls, the fishing in Hunterdon county is confined to hauling seines, and no account was taken by the board's proctor, James M. Stratton, of the fisheries in Warren, Sussex and Cape May counties, where the catch is too small to be classed with other permits.

The State permits shad to be caught until June 10th. These fish come from the Atlantic and seek the fresh water streams to spawn, endeavoring, in this way, to avoid their natural enemies in the briny tides. If the waters are cold the shad are backward in their progress northward. As the men down the river have the first opportunity for a catch as the fish come northward a number devote their attention to this line in the southern counties. In the counties of Salem, Cumberland and Gloucester the fishermen have large boats in which are installed gasoline engines, capable of carrying in all kinds of weather the 750 fathoms, or nearly one mile, of gill net which they use every tide. This means that 397 miles of nets are used in these three counties. The cost of an entire outfit is about $700. Further up the river, in Camden, Burlington and Mercer counties, small rowboats and 50 or 60 fathoms of net, costing from $50 to $75, complete the outfit.

The extent of the fishing in the counties where it is larger is shown by this table:

Table with 4 columns: County, Nets, Engaged, Shad Caught. Salem: 203, 400, 387,000. Cumberland: 137, 274, 197,000. Gloucester: 57, 120, 79,000. Burlington: 58, 116, 31,389. Camden: 56, 112, 23,514. Mercer: 20, 90, 27,400. Hunterdon: 18, 45, 12,000. Totals: 548, 1163, 757,340. Average price: $40. Total value: $302,967.00.
