

STORE CLOSED TO-MORROW. DECORATION DAY, AT NOON. OPEN THIS EVENING 'TILL 9 O'CLOCK.

These Three ... Strong Specials

On Sale To-morrow, from 8 o'clock 'till NOON.

White Goods Bargain...

It seems rather paradoxical to offer white goods below regular prices when goods are in demand and naturally high, but it's our invariable rule to sell as we buy, and an unusual circumstance brought them here—32-inch striped Dimity, Lawn and Nainsook, worth 12½c, on sale to-morrow, at, the yard, 8½c

A Great Ribbon Purchase...

1,500 yards of all-silk Ribbon, purchased from the manufacturer at an extremely low price, enables us to offer these all-silk Ribbons, in all shades, worth regularly at from 12c to 15c, choice at, the yard, 8c

Ruffled Curtains...

Everybody calls them Cottage Curtains, and they are best for summer use. Made of good quality Swiss, 2½ yards long with full ruffle; sorry we haven't more, for the 100 pair won't last long; on sale to-morrow morning, 'till sold; the pair, 29c

IN HONOR OF JOHN WESLEY.

Methodists will Hold Special Services on Sunday Throughout the Country.

PROMINENT SPEAKER.

The Simpson M. E. church, like all the Methodist churches throughout the country, will observe the bi-centennial of the birth of John Wesley, the founder of Methodism, on Sunday. The special services in the morning, afternoon and evening as announced by the pastor, will be carried out in full and an effort made to make it one of the Sundays long to be remembered by Methodists in this city.

The devotional meeting will begin at 9.30 a. m. and at 10.30 the Rev. A. B. Richardson, D. D., one of the greatest preachers in the denomination, will deliver the sermon.

At 6.30 p. m. a John Wesley Missionary meeting will be led by Mrs. Jane Overington, President of the missionary society, and again at 7.30 Dr. Richardson will deliver a lecture on "John Wesley the Methodist."

Dr. Richardson is doubtless one of the most competent to deliver this discourse, having visited Epworth Rectory where John Wesley was born, the Charter House school, where Wesley was fitted for college, and Oxford and London and the main places associated with his life and works. Wesley hymns will be sung at all the services.

POLICE COURT NEWS.

Joe Vovinsky, of Hall avenue, was sent to the county jail for thirty days this morning where he will probably be examined as to his sanity. The police are inclined to believe that he is either insane or else he is suffering from a bad attack of delirium tremens. He came to police headquarters yesterday and told a long story about two men being murdered at Maurer.

John Kovacs, of 432 State street, was fined $2 this morning on a charge of violating the ordinance relating to bicycles, by riding on the sidewalk.

SERVICE OF SONG.

The Presbyterians have arranged a special service of song for Sunday night at which a quartet, from the Rutgers' College Glee Club, will take part. The service will be unusually interesting as the college glee club has a great reputation and will undoubtedly be very pleasing.

LOCAL ITEMS.
