

VETERANS DECORATE COMRADES' GRAVES.

Memorial Day was Observed in Perth Amboy as on Former Occasions --Grand Army Growing Small--Sons of Veterans Fire the Volleys at the Graves--Flowers in Full Bloom.

Flags floated in the breeze, the veterans marched, the drum corps played, graves were decorated as in years passed and thus Memorial Day came and went in Perth Amboy. Of course there was the usual number of ball games, picnics, outings and general celebration, but the day and all it means, passed unchanged.

The unusual warm, dry weather had brought out the roses and flowers which usually do not appear until June and the cemetery was beautiful. Flowers were everywhere. They were all sizes and colors, arranged with all shapes imaginable. Even though the sun did not shine, the cemetery has seldom presented such a beautiful appearance.

The most noticeable feature at the Memorial Day exercises of late years is the diminishing number of veterans who participate. Saturday only about twenty of Major Dandy Post were in line with four of the Relief Corps. The Westminster Cadets, the sons of veterans, the drum corps and the wagons loaded with school children filled out the line so that the parade was quite presentable.

After decorating the graves in St. Peter's yard the volley was fired by the sons of veterans. The parade then proceeded to Alpine cemetery where the Woodbridge post had arrived ahead of them. The latter had their flowers in all designs and were beautiful. The local veterans placed large bouquets which were equally pretty. A brief service was held at the soldier's plot, several girls sang and the veterans departed, each one recalling the deeds of valor performed by their departed comrades. The scene was touching for it was realized that before another Decoration Day flowers would be placed on the graves of some of those who so nobly assisted in the work Saturday.

St. Mary's cemetery was visited and graves there were treated in the same generous and thoughtful manner. There was no other display. Flags were raised throughout the city, many of them at half mast. All was quiet and the true meaning of the day seemed to be manifested.

TUGBOAT WOODBRIDGE GOES TO THE BOTTOM.
Sprang Aalek Early Sunday Morning Sank at Once--Is Being Raised Today.
The harbor tug boat Woodbridge, of the Lehigh Valley Railroad, sprang a leak 3 o'clock yesterday morning and sank at her mooring at the Lehigh Valley freight dock. When the crew left the tug boat late the night before she was all right apparently, but she is one of the oldest tug boats in the harbor and went to the bottom of her own accord. The wrecker from Weehawken arrived on the scene at noon to raise the tug.

YACHT UPSET IN THE SOUND. ELIZABETHPORT YOUNG MEN OUT FOR A SAIL WHEN A SQUALL STRUCK THEIR BOAT. RESCUED BY BUNTENS.

Saw the Accident and Went to the Rescue in their Power Boat--Were Clinging to the Bottom of Overturned Craft--Secured Dry Clothing and Returned by Train.

At 10.30 o'clock Saturday morning while a cat rigged yacht was cruising in Staten Island sound opposite Buntens dock, it was struck by a sudden squall and capsized. The six occupants were rescued by George and William Buntens. The yacht was owned by Charles Peterson and Edward Burke, of Elizabethtown.

Saturday, being a holiday, the young men decided to sail to this city, and took with them four friends, Henry Hanson, Edward Peterson, Jacob Randall and Lawrence Hanson, all of Elizabethtown. They left the port early in the morning and arrived here at 10 o'clock. They were all sitting on one side of the boat when the squall struck them. Before they could get the sheet loose the yacht had been overturned. They all managed to catch a hold of the yacht and hold fast until George and William Buntens, who saw the accident, put off in the gasoline launch. This was done as quickly as possible. When all were ashore the four friends managed to buy some clothes, which they exchanged for their wet garments and started for home. The owners of the boat remained here and, with the aid of the Buntens boys, righted the overturned craft, and after getting the water out of her, they set sail for home.

SALE IS RESUMED.

The rammage sale for the benefit of the hospital will be opened again tomorrow at the same place. When it was closed last week $130 had been taken in and on Friday the members of the Ladies Auxiliary held a cake sale in the Palmer building which brought $18 more for the hospital.

MARIONS TAKE BOTH GAMES. DEFEATED NEW BRUNSWICK WITH EASE AND IN AFTERNOON TOOK CRESCENTS INTO CAMP. LOCAL BALL TOSSERS PUT UP TWO GOOD GAMES AND THE CROWD APPRECIATED THEM--MARIONS IN FINE CONDITION AND WON LAURELS FOR THEMSELVES--CRESCENTS FOUGHT HARD--GREY WENT TO PITTSBURG.

The Marions celebrated Decoration Day by winning two games of ball. In the morning they prevailed over New Brunswick and in the afternoon they were victorious in the game with the Crescents.

LARGE CROWD PRESENT.

The Marions had comparatively an easy time in winning from the team that New Brunswick sent here. The visitors were weak at short and at third and the locals were not slow to take advantage of the gaps in their opponent's infield. Beside this they bunched their hits off Bradley rather freely and sent eight earned runs across the pan. Meyer, a clever twirler, was in the box in place of Grey, who has signed with Pittsburgh, and he did good work. He fanned twelve of the visitors and had them always at his mercy.

In the seventh he eased up a little and allowed four runs to be scored, but these with a run in the sixth were all the New Brunswick players got. The hitting of Meyer, Galvin, Lyons and Moorehead and a fine catch by Galvin were the game's features. Meyer sent the ball over the fence in the first inning scoring Moorehead. Galvin caught a foul fly by leaning over the fence into the grand stand. The score follows:

In the afternoon the largest crowd that ever saw a ball game in the enclosed grounds was present to see the locals defeat the Crescents, of Philadelphia 7 to 4. The visiting team was late in arriving owing to imperfect trolley connections, but the crowd manifested no sign of impatience and they were rewarded by seeing a very pretty contest that was replete with brilliant plays.

It was a game in which fast fielding abounded and only one strike-out by each pitcher was recorded. Denny pitched for the visitors and while he was hit hard in the first and second innings he steadied himself thereafter and the locals were unable to score.

until the eighth. The Crescents got their first run in the opening inning. They scored two more runs in the eighth and another in the ninth. No errors were charged against the Marions and a fine running catch by Tommy Lyons was the feature of their fielding. Moorehead and Galvin led in the batting for the locals. Meyer played left field for the Marions in place of Grey who took his brother's place in the morning contest.

TURNED IN A FALSE ALARM. BOX 45 WAS UNLOCKED--IS OUT OF ORDER--MATTER HAD BEEN REPORTED SEVERAL TIMES. RESPONDED PROMPTLY.

A false alarm was sounded from box 45 about 10 o'clock Saturday night. The fire department answered the alarm with the usual promptness, but upon their arrival failed to find any fire nor the person who turned in the alarm. The firemen returned to their homes and the alarm "fire out" was quickly turned in.

Upon investigation it was learned from the police that this box has been reported out of order for a long time. That is, the outer door, which ought to be opened with the regulation fire key and closed only by the chief of the fire department, cannot be locked at all. Consequently an alarm might be turned in at any time by any one who desired to create trouble without being discovered.
