The curtains were drawn at the Sportler establishment, yesterday afternoon, and nourishment was given to the hypnotized young fellow.

The "sleep act" for the Hungarian hypnotist doesn't pay as well as some other jobs of like nature, it would appear, from accounts at hand from the upper country.

N. E. Peterson has branched out into the grocery business with a clean and well-assorted stock of goods, down on Center street, and he will be satisfied with but his share of the public's patronage.

No one need fear to attend the Ourel performance at the Tamme opera house, this evening. The subjects are to be taken from the audience, but not against their will. Always those who are willing, you know. 1t

It is thought there will be little difficulty in again convicting some of the murderers in this county at the next term of district court, as new and strong evidence has been discovered, particularly in the case of Scipio Aguilar.

G. E. Fitzgerald, of El Paso, Tex., who has been stopping for some days at Mrs. Herzog's, enjoying the best climate on earth, continued his journey on this morning's train to New York City, on some mining business.

In the Territory of New Mexico, appellate, vs. Jose Chavez y Chavez, remanded for a new trial, a motion for a re-hearing was argued in the Territorial supreme court at Santa Fe, and the case was taken under advisement.

A delicate surgical operation was performed on Frank Dohmales, the wounded Frenchman, at the ladies' home, this morning, by Drs. Atkins and Marro, assisted by Dr. Alice Rice and Dr. Felipe Romero. Several fragments of the skull, which pressed upon the brain, were removed and the patient is now thought to be in a fair way to recover.

SISTERS OF CHARITY.

They Will Give a Fair, Thanksgiving Week, For a Most Worthy Object.

Elsewhere in this issue, appears a card from Sister Mary Baptist, head of the Sisters of Charity in this city. It is known to all that, for years, the people of Las Vegas have endeavored to secure the establishment of a sanitarium at this point. A number of schemes were tried and failed, the most promising coming to naught. Finally, the Sisters of Charity stepped in, and at an inconsiderable expense to the city, they have made a complete success of the long-delayed and much-discussed project. An elegant and commodious structure is now in process of erection, which will be an honor and a benefit to Las Vegas, and a blessing to suffering humanity.

Now, as the building grows in our sight, these good Sisters come before the public and announce a fair, the proceeds of which are to be devoted to furnishing the sanitarium, and for this purpose they ask of the community a hearty support.

The Optic, beforehand, can assure them that such will be the case. This community cannot, if it would, and would not if it could, neglect such an appeal. The fair will receive the united and hearty support of all classes in this city, and no doubt the means will be amply provided for the furnishing of the sanitarium. The Optic will have more to say on this subject.

Reception to a Young Lady. Prof. J. A. Hand and wife gave a reception to Miss C. Anchor, last evening, to which the members of the Beethoven club and their friends were invited. Dainty refreshments were served, and a most delightful evening was spent by those present.

The numbers on the musical program were in prompt, but they were splendidly executed by Herr Carl Groeshaer, Miss Beatrice Atkins, Mrs. L. H. Hofmeister, Mrs. Jennie Hawkins, Mrs. John Robbins and Mrs. Dr. Hernandez, each in solos. It was quite a disappointment to those present that Miss Anchor suffered a cold and was not able to sing, but the public generally will have the pleasure of listening to her at the next mid-summer concert, about the 15th of this month.

Miss Anchor is very favorably impressed with Las Vegas and delighted with the people she has met here and the encouragement given her. Should she conclude to remain here and organize a vocal class, she will indeed be a valuable acquisition to musical circles, as well as a boon to the vocal students.

Labor Day Celebration.

Las Vegas will have her first Labor day celebration, Monday, September 7th., and a meeting of the various union men of this city will be held in Judge H. S. Wooster's office, this evening, to discuss the manner of celebration.

It has already been decided to have a parade, base ball game and bicycle races, and a brass band will be hired for the occasion. The post offices will observe Sunday hours, but the bank's will not close. The day in the large cities of the east is the day of all days and processions more than a mile long take possession of the streets. In time to come, it may become more popular in the west and be observed, as it justly should be, as a national holiday.

The Labor day committee in this city is composed as follows: J. B. Allen, chairman; Wm. Wells, treasurer; John J. Dodds, secretary; Dr. M. M. Milligan and Judge H. S. Wooster. Badges appropriate for the occasion are being printed at this office.

Opening of the City Schools.

At the teachers' meeting, this morning, in the city building, everything was arranged for the opening of school, Monday morning at 9 o'clock. The teachers have their program arranged to begin work at once.

Pupils are expected to bring their books, ready to put in a full day. The rooms are all clean and neat, and as tastefully arranged as possible. A large attendance is expected.

Thanks to the board of education for preparing room enough for all and a little to reserve for others who may come in later.

First arrival of fall millinery, new "tailors" and other novelties will be opened at Ilfeld's, Monday morning. 1t

School Shoes It all depends-- According to a well-known scientist, the safest course for a man in a thunder-storm, is to get thoroughly wet and the lightning will not strike him. But when the man who wears an ordinary, ready-made suit gets thoroughly wet, we know what happens to his clothes. They shrink, wrinkle and draw out of shape, and are never fit to wear again. It is not so with the H., S. & M. Tailor-Made Clothing, Sold by Jake Block, because the cloth in every H. S. & M. garment is sponged and thoroughly shrunk before being made up.

That is our reason for claiming the patronage of the public. The better shoes are, the better it pays to buy them. School Shoes, ranging in prices, from 85c upwards.
