Mrs. N. C. Campbell is down with the pneumonia and Mrs. E. V. Long is also numbered among the sick.

THE OPTIC has endeavored as best it could to accommodate everybody, this evening—correspondents, advertisers, etc., with the result that the paper scarcely resembles its former self. Newsy as ever, though, eh?

William Knobb, a former Las Vegas peg and awl artist, his wife a chambermaid at a hotel or two, has been heard from at Zanesville, Ohio, in the McKinley state, where he is a hat repairer at No. 62 north Fifth street.

I have never had a dollar's worth of shoddy stock in my store, and it is impossible to buy poor wines at any price at my place—in fact, prices are the only thing in my store now that are not up to a high standard. 1t ABRAMOWSKY.

The confirmation of Sam Jacobs will take place at the synagogue, at 11 o'clock, to-morrow morning, and at 4 o'clock, p. m., Congregation Montefiore will hold a meeting in the house of worship for the purpose of naming a rabbi.

The A. O. U. W. lodge, in this city, had expected to give an entertainment and banquet at their hall, next Tuesday evening, but as that is Saint Patrick's day and as it would conflict with amusements already docketed, the entertainment committee has wisely concluded to wait until Tuesday evening, April 7th.

The Presbyterian church extends to all people a hearty welcome to its Sunday services; viz.: Sunday school and bible classes at 9:45 a. m.; morning worship at 11 a. m.; Christian Endeavor prayer meeting at 6:45 p. m.; evening song service at 7:30 p. m., with talk to young men on "Business." Strangers and visitors in our city are especially welcomed.

A merry party of about forty gathered at the pleasant home of Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Cunningham, last evening, and passed a few hours most enjoyably at progressive six-handed euchre. Mrs. D. T. Hoskins won the lady's first prize; A. H. Whitmore, gentleman's first prize; Mrs. J. A. LaRue, the second lady's prize, and A. B. Smith, the second gentleman's prize.

Hugh Lindell, of Bay City, Michigan, who is a guest at the hot springs, with his father, killed a catamount at Trout springs, yesterday, which was fully four feet and a half in length. The animal was started up by a dog and ran up the side of a hill and into a tree, when it was shot three times and brought to the ground by the clever marksman. He should have it mounted and preserved as a souvenir of his trip to the Rocky mountains.

ARBOR DAY IN THIS CITY.

The Teachers and Pupils Observed Yesterday With Interesting and Appropriate Exercises.

Most of the schools had short exercises in their rooms, yesterday, before meeting on the grounds in front of the city school building.

The first primary department, conducted by Miss Holzman gave the following: Song, "The Golden Rule," by the school; recitations, "The Tree," by Charles Drury; "The Hatchet and the Tree," by Helen Cunningham; "Cherish Kindly Feeling," by Zuma McDowell; "Lilies," by Joe McCormick; "The Flowers," by Alice Smith; "The Tree and the Flower," by Charles Howard; and a recitation by Robert Smith. Closing song by the school.

The second primary, conducted by Miss Rogers, gave the following: Spring song, by the school; recitations, by Mary Tipton, Esther Edwards, Nellie Stoner; song, "The Golden Rule," by the school; recitations by Beulah Hartman, Tilden Hoskins, Vincent Jones, and vacation song by the school.

The third primary, conducted by Mrs. Douglas, gave the following: Song, "The Meadows," school; recitations, "Merry Children," Emma Barnum; "The Robin," Earle Hartman; "The Little Child," Vera Gehring; song, "The Golden Rule," school; recitation, "The Apple Tree," Jessie McSchooler; "The Brave Old Oak," Ruby Schlott; "A Garden of Your Own," Bernie Marcus; song, "Merry Brooklet," school.

The fourth primary, conducted by Mrs. Garlick, gave the following: Reading, "The Bursting of the Blossoms," May Ross; recitations, "Woodman, Spare that Tree," Charlie Smith; "Mission of Flowers," Maria Sena; "The Violet," Gussie Rothgeb; song; recitations, "Charlie and His Father," Maud Reynolds; "Mother Earth," Nellie Withrow; "Waiting to Grow," Gordon Raywood; "The Blue Bird's Song," Grace Roseberry.

The fifth grade, conducted by Miss Williams, had very interesting exercises, but our reporter failed to get a copy of the program.

The sixth grade, conducted by Miss Bucher, furnished the following: A good tree was presented to the Sixth grade by Miss Ada Springer. Karl Wertz gave a declamation entitled "The Heart of the Tree." Edward Springer planted the tree, which was dedicated, with a few appropriate lines, to John G. Whittier, by Miss Cora Pettijohn. Manuel Henriques and Robert Mitchell then threw the dirt around the tree and were assisted in this by the different members of the sixth grade.

The exercises in Miss Stone's room were commenced by the reading of the governor's arbor day proclamation, followed by a song, "Welcome to Arbor Day," after which nearly every child contributed an article suitable to the occasion. The following are some of the trees described: The apple, india-rubber, chestnut, birch, maple, aspen, rain-tree, cow or milk tree, walnut, ash, beech, olive, elm, palm, oak, traveler's tree, sago-tree, laughing-seeds, pine-apple, banana, cocoanut, almonds and banyon tree, etc. There were also articles on the subject of roses, violets, daffodil, lilies and asters.

As so many of the pupils in Miss Henry's room were getting ready for the evening entertainment, no program was prepared for arbor day. But quite a number of the young gentlemen, armed with shovels, picks and crow-bars, proceeded to the school grounds and dug holes preparatory to the planting of the trees. The work they did would probably have cost $8 or $10 if the school board had hired it done.

At 11 o'clock all the schools met in front of the public school building and all engaged in very appropriate exercises, each room taking some active part.

The pupils and teachers all extend a vote of thanks to the members of the city council and friends who contributed to furnishing trees for arbor day.

THE EVENING ENTERTAINMENT.

The Demosthenes literary society's were greeted with a full and appreciative house at the city hall last evening. The program was carried out in full without a jar. Space will not permit as full an account of each exercise as it merited. Neither could a description do the subject justice. It had to be heard to be appreciated.

The society took in enough money to pay all expenses of the entertainment, and to finish paying for the fine set of zoological works recently purchased for the high school library.

The members of the society extend a vote of thanks to the trustees of the Baptist church for the use of their curtains and chairs for the entertainment.

Our Fire Department.

At the annual meeting of the fire department, last evening, Griff M. Roberts was unanimously elected chief for the ensuing year, which is a just recognition of his long and faithful service in the fire department. A. R. Quinly, the retiring chief, was tendered a vote of thanks for his energetic administration of the office for the past year.

Two committees were appointed, one to make arrangements for organizing a running team to represent Las Vegas at the Territorial tournament, next July, at Albuquerque, and the other to see what could be done toward arousing public sentiment and procuring necessary funds to train and put a team in the field.

Those who are in a position to know, say that never before has Las Vegas had as much good material out of which to construct a running team to send to the annual firemen's tournament as it has this year, and they are confident that if the business men will but lend a small amount of assistance, that many of the honors will come to Las Vegas, this year.

About midnight, last night, fire was discovered in the woodshed in the rear of Dr. Alice H. Rice's residence on Eighth street, and for awhile it looked as though a serious conflagration would take place, as the wind was very high. However, the efficient fire department made short work of the fire, and the loss was kept within the limits of $100. There is no discount on Las Vegas' fire department.

A Citizen at Cripple Creek.

Says the Cripple Creek correspondent of the Denver Republican:

A. M. Blackwell, of St. Louis, and M. E. Wilcoxson, of Kansas City, have spent the day looking over the properties in the camp in which they are interested, with Frank Ingoldsby. "The Claude," on Gold hill, and "The Nightingale," on Raven hill, are now being worked by these gentlemen. After investigating the district thoroughly, the visitors have become thoroughly impressed with its greatness, and have entered into a new leasing and bonding company, to be formed with a large treasury fund, to take hold of and develop properties within the belt. Simmons, the St. Louis hardware man, will be in the combine. Mr. Ingoldsby will have practical charge of the work undertaken, and Prof. E. B. Kirby, a Denver expert, will be consulting and advising engineer.

AN OPEN LETTER.

Manifesto to the People of San Miguel County, N. M.:

It is in the highest degree repugnant to me to publicly enter into quarrels and disputes, either personal or political; but an audacious attack, entitled "treason," and arrogantly addressed to the "union party of the county of San Miguel," in which I am vilely and unjustly insulted, forces me to reply in this manner to the false insinuations which compose the aforesaid effusion.

In the first place, the circulars signed by me that innocently form the foundation for the attack, is not a call for the "unionists" to assemble, nor for the union party, nor for any object that concerns the adherents of that party, and everybody who can read his spelling-book will agree to this statement. The circulars signed by me that have caused such a disturbance in the unionist camp, are simply a personal call to my republican friends, who are affiliated with me in the unionist ranks, and who, the same as I, have been flagrantly deceived by unscrupulous people without character and without honor, and who have been basely used and sacrificed as a lamb upon the unionist altar. In other words, I consider that the "union" party has proved to have been organized for the sole object of furthering the interests of the corrupt democratic party.

As this opinion of mine is fixed, and based upon facts, as a free man I rebel against such black deceit and will no longer carry the burden nor serve as a slave to my political enemy. Being certain that my republican friends who associated with me in the union party are intelligent and independent men, and not yet branded with the democratic seal, I think they have come to the same conclusion and opinion as myself upon the aims, principles and objects of the union party.

I have invited them by means of these circulars to unite with me and thus with all possible energy and emphasis to repudiate forever the democratic party, alias "unionist," that was "conceived in sin and born in iniquity."

Certainly, the circulars that I issued were not for democrats nor for slaves, consequently those who presume to protest in reply, should not be alarmed.

I note with pleasure the fact that the majority of those who subscribe to the protest, bear the democratic brand, and lament that the discovery of their game will liberate the poor victims that they already had in their clutches; the minority of those who protest against me are those poor, miserable creatures who, because they hold public office, have not the moral courage, nor the fortitude, nor manhood, to avow their convictions, or free opinions on political subjects. The former I despise and the latter I pity.

The people of San Miguel county are tired of so much trickery, falsehood and deceit, and notwithstanding the braggadocio, the vituperations and bitter clamor of the public enemy, the enemy of industry and prosperity of the country, that is called democracy, alias "unionist," it will be so routed by defeat at the next election, and buried in a sepulchre so deep that it will never be able to arise again, not even at the sound of the Angel Gabriel's horn. And this will be effected by the free and intelligent people, patriotic and honest, under the protecting, progressive and beneficent republican banner.

"Treason," cry these poor, miserable creatures in their protest, because they do not understand the meaning of the word. Treason does not expose itself, but avoids the light. My position in my circular, which my enemies entitle "treason," has obtained all the desired and possible publicity. "Treason" is what the democrats played on us, with which, under the name of "unionist," with promises and false representations, they lassoed me and many of my political friends, and afterwards delivered us, bag and baggage, to the enemy; this is "treason."

What I have said will suffice to refute the unjust charges brought against me by my political enemies, and by those who have a hold on the public teat, and I believe that the people of San Miguel county will endorse my acts in this connection when the proper time offers.
