THE ST. LOUIS STORM

Last Evening's Tornado Kills Hundreds, and Destroys Millions of Property. VERY WORST EVER KNOWN

Scores of Fires Break Out and the Short Supply of Water Adds to the Horror.

THE PEOPLE YET DAZED

St. Louis, Mo., May 28.—Hundreds of precious human lives snuffed out of existence in this city and East St. Louis, and millions of dollars' worth of property destroyed, surpasses the record for many years.

The tornado first struck the city about 5 o'clock, yesterday afternoon, and raged very nearly an hour, being accompanied by a tremendous rain and almost continuous lightning. The streets were in utter darkness and were everywhere obstructed. The wires and debris from wrecked buildings rendered traveling them, last night, impossible, in the efforts to take out the dead, dying and wounded.

To add to the horror, scores of fires broke out in the ruins and the water works had been damaged early in the evening and the supply cut off.

In South and East St. Louis the storm was even worse. It entered South St. Louis in the southwestern suburbs and cut a wide swath to the Eads bridge, laying waste scores of factories, large buildings and dwellings. Thousands are homeless and many river steamers were sunk in the awful storm, carrying all on board to a watery death. A lumber wharf was lost on the steamers will never be known.

It will be days before the list of the dead can be ascertained. Clearing the streets and a systematic search for bodies was begun promptly, to-day.

Tall buildings in the city confined the storm for a while, but with renewed fury it burst from its restraint and either partly wrecked or damaged the structures.

There is scarcely a house of any description in St. Louis, to-day, not showing the result of the high wind.

The dead and injured are slowly being recovered and cared for at the hospitals and morgues.

The people here not yet calmed down sufficiently to realize the full extent of the disaster. Everyone seems dazed.

The disaster is undoubtedly the worst since the Johnstown flood.

News comes slowly from the country districts, telling of ruin and destruction everywhere. When the truth is known it is expected the death list will be much larger than at present.

Washington, May 28.—Congress has passed a concurrent resolution of sympathy for St. Louis and has directed the secretary of war to issue tents to the sufferers and do all that could be done in any way to relieve distress.

Ex-Congressman Dead. JAMESTOWN, N. Y., May 28.—Ex-Congressman James H. Patterson, of Putnam, Chautauque county, drowned dead at Lake Umbagog to-day. It is supposed to have been from heart disease.

Trouble Feared. ASTORIA, May 28.—Trouble is expected with the fishermen on the lower Columbia. If the strike continues, a company, armed with Winchester, will be organized to keep the peace.

A Clerical Union. CAPE TOWN, Africa, May 28.—Dr. Feyl, secretary of state, and General Gubbet, vice-president of the South African republics, are visiting Bloomfontein, and will be present at the debate in Volksraad, of the Orange Free state, on a proposition for a closer union.

Oldest Baptist Church. WATERLOO, Ill., May 28.—One of the greatest meetings of Baptists ever held in the west began here to-day, the occasion being the celebration of the centennial of the birth of the church of New Design, near this place, which is the oldest Baptist church in Illinois. The original structure has long since disappeared, but its site is marked by a little mound which is the shrine at which hundreds of the denomination from all parts of Illinois and neighboring states as well, will worship for the next two or three days.

Royal Military Tournament. LONDON, May 28.—A larger crowd attended the opening of the royal military tournament, to-day, than was ever the case in former years, a fact probably due to the martial spirit which has prevailed throughout the empire the past year. The tournament, this year, contains many attractive novelties, not the least interesting of which is a spectacular representation of the march of the Ashanti expedition in which the late Prince Henry of Battenberg lost his life. At the formal opening, to-day, General Wolsey presided.

Will Patch Up Differences. New York, N. Y., May 28.—As a result of an important conference held at the Waldorf, to-day, it is considered more than probable that two great patriotic societies, the Daughters of the American Revolution and the Daughters of the Confederacy, will patch up their differences and unite into one body under one name. The breach between the two organizations which are so nearly alike in every way, has been the cause of a series of internal dissensions inimical to the best interests of each and a consolidation of the two will be hailed with satisfaction by members of each society throughout the country.

THE PROMISES.

All Has Been Excitement and Animation at Pittsburgh, To-day.

CONVENTION HALL, PITTSBURGH, Pa., May 28.—All was excitement and animation in Convention hall, this morning, preparatory to the contest for the presidential ticket. Delegates and spectators were early on the ground, and the hurrying to and fro of the former as they lobbied with the state delegates and sought to perfect their deals, gave the hall an animated appearance.

The friends of Joshua Levering, of Baltimore, claimed at 10 o'clock that they had an out-and-out majority for the first place on the ticket.

Other names which it was decided by caucuses this morning to place before the convention were those of John G. Woolley, the noted temperance orator, formerly of Indianapolis, but now of Chicago; Rev. Charles E. Bailey, of Lincoln, Neb., who officiates as pastor of two Baptist churches in that city; Colonel George W. Bain, of Lexington, Ky.; Walter B. Hill, Georgia; Thomas R. Carakadon, of West Virginia; H. Clay Bascomb, a wealthy manufacturer of Troy, New York; and Henry B. Metcalf, another wealthy manufacturer, of Pawtucket, R. I.

There was little talk concerning the second place on the ticket, for the reason that the choice will be governed entirely by geographical conditions after the presidency has been disposed of. The broad-gauge delegates are in control of the convention, and the committee on resolutions now in session will probably report a free-silver, anti-monopoly, woman's suffrage, reform-populist platform.

Topics Under Discussion. LOUISVILLE, Kentucky, May 28.—The delegates to the national federation of Women's clubs of the United States entered actively, this morning, into the business of the gathering according to the departments in which they were respectively interested. The meetings were held in McAuley's theater and its annex, the lecture room of the Walnut street church, L'ederkranz hall and Liberty hall. Mrs. Florence Howe presided over the department of literature; Mrs. John Vance Cheney, of San Francisco, over that of finance; Mrs. Edward Longstreth, of Philadelphia, over that of philanthropy; Mrs. J. N. Flower, of Chicago, over the social economic section, and Mrs. W. E. Fischel, of St. Louis, over that of education. Matters relating to these topics were exhaustively discussed.

Cards of Thanks. We wish to return thanks for the kindness shown us by the many friends, whose presence and sympathy were extended to us in our sad bereavement, the death and burial of our dear and most loving father, and we wish especially to thank Rev. A. A. Layton and the Baptist choir; also, all those who sent their beautiful floral offerings. "Not mine but God's will be done."

THE MATTHEWS BOOM

Its Death-Knell will be Sounded by Sound-Money Democrats in Indiana.

FRED GRANT MENTIONED

The Split in the Democratic Ranks on the Money Question Pleases the Pops.

MOSCOW SCENES TO-DAY

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 28.—Though the democrats instrumental in the calling of the sound-money mass meeting to be held at English's opera house, to-night, disclaim anything of the kind, it is the general belief of political circles that the real purpose of the demonstration is to give form to the movement looking to the overthrow of Governor Matthews' presidential aspirations. Since the boom of the Indiana governor was first launched upon the sea of politics, the sound-money wing of the party in this state has been a little diffident in coming forward to its support, but no open opposition was talked of until the governor's recent dip into the camp of the silverites. Even now the leading gold-standard men avoid discussing the subject, but the general understanding is that in organizing to resist the free-silver movement in Indiana, they will make an effort to take the wind out of the Matthews boom. Color is given to this statement by the announcement to-day, that the meeting will be addressed by several leading democrats who have been most active in their opposition to the governor's candidacy.

For Vice President. NEW YORK, N. Y., May 28.—Col. Fred Grant is now mentioned prominently for vice-president with McKinley. It is said that Mr. Hanna favors the selection.

Scenes of Splendor. MOSCOW, May 28.—It was long after daybreak, this morning, when the great banquet tendered by their imperial majesties to the higher ecclesiastics and the princes and nobles of the nations came to a close. It was a gorgeous function, the expenditure for the entertainment of the night being estimated at nearly $3,000,000.

This morning, attended by an escort of military, the czar and zarina drove through the city in an open carriage, and afterwards received, at the palace, the felicitations of a large number of nobles and foreign representatives.

The second great spectacular event of the season, the coronation Court Gala ball, takes place, to-night, at the Grandvoina palace, and it will be a scene of splendor unsurpassed in ancient or modern history since the dedication of Solomon's temple.

POLITICAL CONFERENCE. The Split in the Democratic Ranks Satisfying to the Pops.

CHICAGO, Ill., May 28.—It develops to-day that correspondence is now passing between representative populists in this and various other states, looking to a conference of leaders to be held either in this city or St. Louis about the third week in June, for the purpose of considering the situation of the party in advance of the democratic national convention. The split in the national democratic party, growing out of the financial contention is proving a source of much satisfaction to the populist leaders, many of whom favor a ticket headed by ex Gov. Boies, of Iowa, and U. S. Circuit Judge H. C. Caldwell, of Little Rock. The latter is a strong candidate for the populist presidential nomination, but it is believed that he would accept second place as running mate to the "grand old man" of the Iowa democracy. A good deal of this kind of talk was heard at the recent democratic convention in Dubuque, at which a large number of populists were in attendance. The platform adopted, moreover, both in its silver planks and the demand for a department of labor in the cabinet, appeared an admirable model for a national fusion ticket.

The Gospel Text. An increasing interest was shown last evening, at the Tabernacle tent. "The Prophecy of Daniel," 7:37 was discussed, showing the rise and fall of four universal kingdoms, Babylon, Medo-Persia, Greece and Rome.

The subject was discussed as pertaining to the people of God and how history proves the fulfillment of the prophetic word.

The discourse for this evening will be Daniel 8:14, or the longest prophetic period in the Bible.

Missing Child Found. The five-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Reiter, lost from a passenger train, out from La Junta, Colo., last Friday, was found by a brother, Tuesday evening, about 6 o'clock, eight miles distant from the railroad track, and in a truly pitiable condition, the little one having wandered aimlessly about the country for a distance of twenty miles. How a child of such tender age managed to subsist for so long a time upon a trackless, treeless and almost waterless plain, is a mystery. Marks of little fingers were seen on the edges of occasional puddles of water and this clue probably led to the discovery of the child by the brother, whose persistency in not abandoning the search the little sister owes her life, as all but him had abandoned hope and given up the hunt.
