THE WOOL GROWERS' MEETING.

There will be a meeting in this city on July 7th and 8th, that is of more importance to the Territory than any political meeting yet held this year.

The republican party has promised ample protection to this industry, and it is reasonably sure that it will keep its promise to the people, but organization would insure it, and also guarantee that the matter will not be tampered with by each charge of administration.

A PROMISING CAMP.

Some Truths Concerning the Gold Camp at Hopewell, Rio Arriba County.

To the Editor of the Optic.

HOPWELL, N. M., June 22, 1896.—There has been so many conflicting reports circulated about this camp, that we deem it best to give the readers of THE OPTIC a true idea about the camp.

The republican party has promised ample protection to this industry, and it is reasonably sure that it will keep its promise to the people, but organization would insure it, and also guarantee that the matter will not be tampered with by each charge of administration.

There are a number of Las Vegas people here and all have good claims. W. A. Givens and wife left for Las Vegas a few days ago, to make arrangements to move here and are well pleased with the outlook.

There are plenty of claims and ground not staked, and we would advise any one coming here to bring a camping outfit and tent, or arrange to build a cabin.

The Blake Hotel on the head of the Rio Sello, is now prepared to receive a limited number of boarders.

There is a new hotel on the head of the Rio Sello, where brook trout and wild game offer ample diversion for the hunter or anyone seeking outdoor sports.
