LOCAL ROUNDUPS:

Local sometimes makes news. But printers do not like to do so. Will give you some peculiar facts. Write us in this peculiar column.

Parlor wall paper at Ben Small's El Paso, Texas. Samples free.

Preserves $1 per pail. We are overstocked. Bond & Stewart.

Fine line of silk umbrellas and fancy parasols at Goodman, Ziegler & Co's.

Ben Small, of El Paso, Texas, will send you samples of wall paper free on application.

We have got a new 5 cent cigar. Try it. Bond & Stewart.

Ready mixed paint at Ben Small's El Paso, Texas. Send for card of different colors.

To our eye, Nabours' new building on the Avenue, looks like a crazy quilt structure.

JOSEPH E. DENNETT, of Las Cruces, has been appointed Indian Agent for the Mesquero-Apaches.

It is proposed by several of our leading citizens to have a grand celebration in White Oaks on the coming Fourth of July.

DECORATION DAY will be observed in White Oaks as never before. The ladies have taken the chief management. May 30th will be the day.

REV. DR. LANE started for the R. R. on Monday evening, there to meet his family and convey them hither. He expected to go as far as Deming on his errand of love.

WHITEMAN is moving a stock of goods this week to Roswell, where he is about to establish a store. Joe will attend to business here while the old Roman will hold down the Roswell end.

MR. CHAS. BOREAN, of California, an expert miner and old friend of Rev. Dr. Lane, is in town and proposes remaining with us. He is a gentleman of culture and we bid him welcome amongst us.

LAST Monday was a shorter. Old Borean was on a frolic and painted the town a very dirty color, tore down many small buildings and threatened to raze large ones. He's a ripper in N. M. when he starts out.

THE Albuquerque papers record the safe arrival in their city of Al Guittard, Fatty Miller and Ed. McPherson. We fear the enterprising citizens of Albuquerque will induce Al to locate with them. There are many citizens here whom we could easier spare.

THE wind blew so long and hard this week that ere it quit there was no dirt for it to toss. But if an east wind should set in hard it would return. It is said that "It's an ill wind that blows nobody any good," but we would like to know who the last wind blew good to.

We took a stroll the other day to the new corral of Ozanne & Co., which fronts the street in the rear of the old one. It is conveniently situated, being located near the arroyo into which all effluvia can be deposited and swept away by the waters. On one corner is a large blacksmith shop as well supplied with tools and implements for the use of the disciples of Vulcan. It can be found anywhere in the territory. On hand are kept extra springs, wheels, axles, etc., to meet any exigency. The corral is spacious, well provided with stalls, grain depositories, etc. Ozanne & Co. are better equipped than any of their predecessors ever were and their stock, coaches, hacks, etc., will favorably compare with those of any similar stage line company in the country. Then the every John is naive in manner, answering all questions in a gentlemanly manner, never interlarding their conversation with profanity, so that a gentleman does not have to take a lady guest with him to preserve his ears from rude assault by vile vocabulary.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.
Mrs. Wislow's Sooting Syrup, for children teething, is the prescription of one of the best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and has been used for forty years with never failing success by millions of mothers for their children. During the process of teething its value is incalculable. It relieves the child from pain, eructatory and diarrhoea, griping in the bowels, and windcolic. By giving health to the child it rests the mother. Price 25c. a bottle.

A. M. SWAN, of the Gallup Register, was the first post master appointed in this territory, and his appointment was a good start. Shake, old chum.

Kitchen wall paper at Ben Small's El Paso, Texas. Send for samples.

B. F. BROWN took charge of the P. O. at Nogal this week. We congratulate the little gentleman. For signing his petition we lost a subscriber which renders us ever so much the more ardent as the P. M.'s friend.

CAPT. J. C. LEA has "done gone and done it." He was married the other day to a bewitching Texas widow. We are unadvised as to what he got, but we do know that his wife made an enviable "catch." Besides being one of the tallest men in the territory he is one of the biggest hearted and noblest souled men in New Mexico. Long may they live and their stock increase until it covers the Pecos Valley—we mean their stock of cattle.

Bed-room wall paper at Ben Small's, El Paso, Texas. Send for samples.

READ Mrs. Rudisille's report of the W. R. C. festival. There has never yet been a failure here in any of the G. A. R. efforts, but the W. R. C. overtopped the best of them.

Consumption Surely Cured.
To THE EDITOR—Please inform your readers that I have a positive remedy for the above named disease. By its timely application, hundreds of hopeless cases have been permanently cured. I shall be glad to send two bottles of my remedy free to any of your readers who have consumption if they will send me their express and post office address. Respectfully,
T. A. SLOCUM, M. D.
181 Pearl St., New York.

WE are promised an article from the pen of Rev. Dr. Lane for next week's LEADER.

Do not forget to examine the stock of boots and shoes at Goodman, Ziegler & Co. before purchasing elsewhere, as they carry the largest, best selected assortment in the town and at prices to suit everybody.

White goods we always carried in large stock, but this season we have a better and larger assortment in victrolas, Indian line, hamcock, plain and slatted milk, etc. than ever before.

Expand the Mind
By seeing as much as you can of the world. But are you not either as a tourist, commercial traveler or emigrant—whether you go by rail, steamship or steamboat, provide yourself with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which the traveling public recognizes as the finest medical safeguard and preventive of sea sickness with which any one journeying by land or water can be provided. It furnishes to the western pioneer adequate protection against malaria, rheumatism and those disorders of the bowels which plague him on his journey. Its sedative effect upon a stomach perturbed by the rocking of a ship is truly magical, and it is a capital appetizer and nerve invigorator. Excellent for biliousness and kidney irritation, and it counteracts, in a remarkable degree, the effects of fatigue, physical or mental. After wetting and exposure in inclement weather, it should be used as a preventive.

We had the pleasure on Sabbath last to take dinner at the table of J. C. Reil with his interesting family, wife and two daughters. Mrs. Reil and daughters arrived here on Friday morning of last week and they are now mistresses of the cuisine department of the Southwestern Hotel. They are each and all cooks, and what is more, steam the getting up of palatable meals a pleasure rather than work of labor. We bespeak for the Southwestern a liberal patronage.
