Swat the fly.

If all dreams came true some people would quit work.

There are no joy riders on a water wagon.

Why don't the business men of Roy get some kind of a Banker?

One our business men is so small that he can hide under the left leg of a flea.

No man to be loser in the end
when he begins to bargain with the devil.

We are not very good unless we are a good deal better than most folks think we are.

Can it be that tan shoes and purple socks are to be worn by men this summer.

"Convicts are not the worst men", says a Chicago preacher.
Still there are a lot of good men
out of prison.

If Roy continues to increase in population, we think it should be done legally. (?) Roy usually has always had a good reputation.

That little stunt that was pulled
off in Roy about three weeks ago
might not have been a first-class
show, but look at the money it put into circulation.

One woman, unmarried, is of the opinion that if women were allowed to do the courting and proposing there would be more happy marriages. It might be worth the while to try it any way.

That little stunt that was pulled
off in Roy about three weeks ago
might not have been a first-class
show, but look at the money it

Mora Gang Has Editorial

This week's issue of the Mensajero has an editorial touching upon the character of E. J. H. Roy of the Spanish American.

The Savant reflects upon Roy in regard to his administration of the Tyler Estate affairs. Any Cur may cast reflections, but can they be substantiated? E. J. H. Roy was in Mora, regardless of the warrant that was issued, account of contempt of Court. But not in Mora County.

The administrator of the Tyler Estate would have complied with the Courts former orders had it not been impossible for him to secure an accounting from B. G. Tyler. The Spanish American has nothing but praise to offer Judge Leahy, upon the manner under which he disposed of the contempt proceedings. Roy was not in jail, and if anyone goes to jail or the Penitentiary, B. G. Tyler will be the dog.

Messrs. Guys of the Mensajero will remember that Roy, while in Mora was among a hostile bunch of—(call it what you please), but regardless of his predicament furnished bond, altho he was against it on odds, and that of his imploring the clemency of the court was not done thru cowardice, but simply account of giving a MAN a show. The Spanish American does not care to occupy all of its space to this small matter, but rest assured that the indictments returned will not make this publication the organ of a scandalous set of politicians for and within the confines of Mora County. All of the Spanish publications have seen fit to wash other's linen, but their own, and if it suits them to start a race issue we are ready. This applies to a certain set only and those not implicated are our friends, altho of Spanish American descent.

E. J. H. Roy is ready to vindicate himself and will do so before many moons pass by. He has had to deal with thieves, renegades, (politicians and others) attorneys and HEIRS.

Exercise in the Open Air.
Any system of physical culture which does not include at least from two to four hours' gentle exercise a day in the open air, three square meals and nine hours of sleep is of the Evil One. So far as it passes itself off as a substitute for real exercise and fresh air, or encourages you to neglect these, it is a fraud and a failure. Practically nine-tenths of all the advertised systems must be put down in this class.—Woods Hutchinson in "Exercise and Health."

A Good Pole Horse.
Prospective Purchaser—I want a horse to use in my work.
Dealer—Well, what kind of work do you do?
Prospective Purchaser—Wire repairing.
Dealer—Here, she is. Just the horse you want, young man. All you have to do is to show Maude a picture of an automobile and she'll climb a telegraph pole.—Judge.

Belgian Stallion Selim

Sired by JULIAN, 524, "2700" Registered in both Belgian and American Stud Books. JULIAN was dark bay, weight 1650, won second prize as yearling, Belgian Exposition. First prize 2 year old, American Horse Show, Chicago.

SELIM is a dark brown, weight 1500, has great power and action. Is the sire of more good colts than any other horse in New Mexico.

Belgian Stallion, Selim

The first need of a homesteader, and the most profitable crop, is a good work team. It is cheaper to raise them than to buy them. Few of us have good teams, but most of us have one or more mares. By raising colts from a good horse, we will soon have good teams at cost so small that we won't notice it, and have good colts that will bring good prices to sell. There is no better horse in New Mexico than SELIM, and it will be to your advantage to make use of him. His colts may be seen at Mosquero and vicinity.

TERMS:—$8.00 to ensure living colt, payable thirty days after colt is dropped. Not responsible for accidents. Mares from a distance pastured free.

SELIM may be seen at the Herendeen Place, one mile from Solano. B. F. KEIST, Owner.

John

Famous T. E. Mitchell Jack. Stands over 15 hands high, Black with White Points

Will make the season at the "Sunny Slope Stock Farm," 6 miles northeast of Roy. Season $10.00. Mare and colt stand good for season. If traded or sold season becomes due at once. A groom fee of $1. at time of service will be charged.

I will also give a colt show at Roy, giving $10.00 prize for best colt, $5.00 for second, and Free dinner to every man who brings one of my Jack's mules into town.

SHE GAVE UP ALL HOPE

Physicians Failed To Help Mrs. Green, But She Finally Found Relief in Cardul.

Meeteetse, Va.—Mrs. J. C. Green of this place, says: "I suffered with womanly troubles so that I could hardly sit up. Two of the best doctors in our town treated me, and I tried different medicines, until I gave up all hope of ever getting well."

One day, I decided to try some Cardul. It did so much for me that I ordered some more, and it cured me! Today, I feel as well as I ever did in my life.

The pains and the trouble are all gone. I feel like another person in every way. I wish every sufferer could know what Cardul will do for sick women."

A few doses of Cardul at the right time, will save many a big doctor bill, by preventing serious sickness.

It tones up the nervous system, and helps make pale cheeks fresh and rosy. Thousands of weak women have been restored to health and happiness by using Cardul. Suppose you try it.

It may be just the medicine you need.
