CLAUD NOTES

(Too Late for Last Week)
Mr. and Mrs. John Westfall have been entertaining at a house party at their east Clovis home. The guests are Mr. and Mrs. Brashear, and sons, Odell and Oryll, and Miss Rahall, of Amarillo. Others were Mr. and Mrs. Willis Westfall and daughter of Clovis.

On Saturday evening the Westfall family entertained at a lovely party in honor of their home guests. It was highly attended by friends from Clovis and Belmont Hill. The men and boys worked kindly, making night callers of themselves to be taken with the merry delicious coffee. A pleasant time was enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Westfall were Sunday guests at Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Johnson. Mrs. Fred Johnson spent Sunday with Mrs. Robert Johnson.

Misses D. E. Patton and Wanda Westfall were visitors at the Adams and Adams homes in Belmont Hill Sunday. The Adams family were company guests there last week.

Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. James Lee and baby daughter, Edna Jewell, spent Sunday in Belmont Hill with Mr. and Mrs. Akers and family.

John Thomas and Cleve Reynolds of Clovis were week-end visitors in Clovis.

ERRONEOUS VIEW

To a point even a young woman one day, who had an exaggerated idea of her charms and who confessed she feared she had a hearting on.

"And what is it?" asked the priest, kindly.

"It is this," she replied, her eyes cast down, every time I pass a mirror I think of my beauty."

"Faith, daughter," said the priest, "that's no sin to me at all. Just a slight mistake, daughter, just a trifling error in judgment."

IT'D TELL THE WORLD

Your business principles may be right—your work the best—your service to your customer's faithful—but the public has got to know. Keep your selling points always before the public—get in the place of favorable publicity. The merit of your proposition must be made known. An oil industry in your yard is of no benefit until you advertise it. Success comes by focusing the diverging rays of public opinion on what you have to offer.

THE WORLD'S WORST PUN

Ex-Lord, A. E. F. (in restaurant): "Waiter, I ordered two eggs. Why have you brought me only one?"
Waiter, ex-K.P., A. E. F.: "Because one egg is an oaf."

TO FOLLOW IS ENOUGH

Anna: "Always in a leader of fashion."
Fred: "I should think she'd be ashamed."

GIRLS! WHAT'S YOUR MILE- AGE FOR SILK HOSE?

Girl: "What mileage does your hose yield in the usual flour of your favorite dancing palace?"

Fifteen miles on one pair of ordinary silk hose is the record established by Miss Laura Phelan, former instructor in dancing for the Recreation Commission, says the Detroit Times.

She has figured it all out—how many steps she takes during an ordinary dance, and the length of each step.

The average working girl, who visits the public dance an evening or two a week, dances three miles on each such occasion, Mrs. Phelan says. Figured on that basis, a girl can attend five dances with one pair of stockings.

If a dancer can get fifteen miles out of a pair of stockings, the average woman should be able to wear forty-five miles before they are worn out, Mrs. Phelan believes.

THE OBJECT

Mr. Peck: "I want to take up boxing. My wife—"

Instructor: "But you can't fight your wife."

Mr. Peck: "I know it. I'm not even going to try. What I want is to be able to stand punishment."

He: "Women are so dreadfully logical."
She: "How so?"
He: "Well, they're always remembering their birthdays, but never their age."

OPERATING PUBLIC CAMPING GROUNDS

HOLLENE HAPPENINGS
(Too late for last week)
Hollene was visited with another rain last week.
Several of the farmers attended the picnic at Clovis and on account of the rain some have not returned. Some of the farmers have part of their wheat in the stacks.
The wheat is too green for the combine to run.
Mr. David Young who was in the U. S. Hospital at Roswell, died, and was buried in the Hollene cemetery.
The row crops are looking fine after the rain.
The fields will be too wet to work in for several days.
Miss Myrtle Hartley entertained several of the young folks Sunday. All had a nice dinner. During the afternoon they drove over west to the baptizing.

Rev. Cameron filled his appointment Sunday and Sunday night.
Who will be glad when summer school is out?
Grandma Chandler has been on the sick list, but is better at this writing.
Mr. Huntzinger has also been on the sick list.
Mr. J. W. Manning was called to Oklahoma on account of his sister's serious illness. She died before he reached there.
Miss Mabel McDougall is visiting relatives in Oklahoma.
Mr. Chitwood has purchased a new car.
Mr. Chester Hartley made a trip to Clovis Wednesday.
Mrs. W. H. Foster and children visited with Mrs. Boney Stith and children Thursday.
Miss Edna May Hartley stayed with her sister, Mrs. Lena Harrison, last week.
Mr. J. A. Madole killed a beef

Monday, the 4th.
The Sadies.
Obituary
Mr. David Young died in the U. S. Hospital at Roswell, Saturday, July 2 at 3:00 o'clock, where he had gone a short time ago for treatment. His illness was the result of his being gassed while in the army overseas.
He was twenty-three years of age and had lived in Hollene only a short time. His wife died shortly before he moved here from Arkansas.
He leaves a little baby, a father, a mother, four brothers and three sisters to mourn his loss. They have the sympathy of the entire Hollene community.
Card of Thanks.
Mr. and Mrs. Berry Dunagan and Mr. and Mrs. Boney Stith and family wish to thank their many friends and neighbors for their kindness and floral offerings during the dark hour of the death of their sons, Guy and Homer.

AIN'T NATURE GRAND?
With a view to possibly guiding the cook's mind to a quieter summer hat than she had worn the previous season, Mrs. Smith spoke of some violets she had seen in a milliner's window.
"They're almost exactly like those in our garden, Mary," she said.
"You've seen those often."
"Indeed I have, mum" returned Mary. "I was arter waterin' them this very mornin'. Ain't it wonderful, mum, how natural the Lord can make them?"
PREPARED
"Ole," said the preacher, to the Swedish bridegroom-to-be, "do you take Hilda Sorengson for your lawful wedded wife, for better or for worse?"
"Aye s'pose Aye get a little of each."
"O, well," replied Ole gloomily.
"Aye s'pose Aye get a little of each."
