The final report on the estate of the late Jose Maria Prada was made by the administrator Jose de La Cruz Garcia, who was discharged by Probate Judge Marques in session this morning.

A. Duval considers himself a very lucky restaurateur today from an experience he had last evening. While getting out of his wagon his horse suddenly plunged, throwing Mr. Duval on his head and shoulders and it was a number of hours before he recovered from the shock; however, Mr. Duval, the horse and the dog are all doing as well as could be expected.

Miss Margaret Toomey today entered upon the discharge of her duties as matron at the insane asylum, succeeding her sister, Miss Mary, who leaves for Denver and her Iowa home on a morning train. The latter young lady has filled the position most acceptably for the past two years and the management were loth to part with her services.

At the rehearsal of the Oratorio society last evening very marked progress was made on the beautiful choruses of "The Holy City." The attendance, however, was not what it should have been in view of the fact that there are only four more regular rehearsals before the festival. At next Tuesday's meeting all the members are requested to bring their scores of "The Creation."

The entertainment "Dangers of a great city," at the opera house last night, was highly enjoyed by a well-filled house. This is an exceptionally good company and the price down stairs, fifty cents, makes it at a rate that all can enjoy a good play. The Crawford people will appear tonight in the comedy, "Not such a fool as he looks." This will be the last night of this highly entertaining troupe will appear. Don't miss it.

BRIDGE STREET LAS VEGAS.

Others to Occur Soon.

Married, today, at 11 o'clock a. m. Rev. Geo. Selby, officiating, Chester H. Bristol and Mrs. Edith May Sparling. After the ceremony a hospitable luncheon was served. A beautiful silver set was presented to the happy couple, by the train dispatchers and operators of the New Mexico division. The bride party left at noon for California, intending to return home by the northern route.

Accompanying the silver set of six pieces, was the following clever note: "To you and your estimable wife, we tender our hearty congratulations. We wish you every blessing and that health, wealth and happiness may be constant with you is the earnest wish of those who subscribed themselves your devoted friends." Other presents received are a bronze clock and ornament, Phil H. Doll; China berry set, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Dixon, of Ohio; silver pickle caster, Charles Elliott; fancy toilet set, Mrs. A. Apple, of Ohio; jewelry case, from the mother of the groom.

The nuptials of Hallett Reynolds and Miss Helen McNair are announced to occur on the 6th proximo.
