STOCKMEN STAND FIRM ON THE QUESTION.

SECRETARY MARTIN'S HARD FIGHT

Succeeded in Defeating the Effort to Commit the Live Stock Association to the Principle of Free Trade.

Secretary Charles F. Martin of the National Live Stock association is back from a three weeks' trip east and south, attending gatherings of stockmen. At Topeka, Kan., the Improved Stock Breeders' association of Kansas held their annual meeting in the legislative hall of the state capitol. Nearly the entire membership was present, which is over 300. Mr. Martin addressed the gathering on the work of the national association, which embraced its endeavors to prevent the abolishment of the present tariff on wool and hides and its fight against the Grout bill which proposes to tax oleomargarine 10 cents a pound. As the Kansas association embraces dairymen, who are supporting the Grout bill, and was presided over by Governor Glick, a rank free trader, Mr. Martin bearded the lion in his den as it were. He came out of the ordeal unscathed, however, for when a motion was made that the association become a supporter and member of the national body, every member voted in favor of accepting at once. Mr. Martin convinced them that to place hides on the free list would mean the loss of millions of dollars annually to the cattle trade. There are slaughtered in the United States every year at least 7,000,000 cattle. As long as the duty of $1.25 remains on every hide imported into this country so long will there be that much value added to every hoof sold here. This was one of the contentions that won for Mr. Martin much favor and in the end secured the support of the Kansas breeders to the national association's side.

From Topeka, Mr. Martin went to Kansas City and spent several days on business and from there went to El Paso, Tex., during the week that the Texas Live Stock association met there. He participated in the deliberations of the meeting as well as the pleasures prepared for carnival week. In Mr. Martin's opinion Kansas City is not in a minute with the pretty Mexican, Spanish and white girls of El Paso. The cattlemen had a good business meeting which was largely attended. At the banquet many notable personages of the south were in attendance, including the governor of Chihuahua, Mexico, and the governor of Texas. Strong resolutions indorsing the work of the National Live Stock association were passed, and pledges made to stay with the national body on all the propositions it has formulated for congressional action in their interests. Here Mr. Martin took occasion to remark that there was no truth in the stories afloat to the effect that the Cattle Raisers' association of Texas intended to withdraw from the national association. He says they cannot afford to with so many important legislative matters in the shape they are, and he does not believe they intend to. The Texas cattlemen fully appreciate what benefit a national body is to the industry. It is the only way to get a hearing before congress to have any effect, and he has had it stated to him that without the aid of the national association the industry would today be ten years behind the times. The dues were increased at the annual session in Chicago last month to 50 cents on each $20,000 worth of cattle owned by a local organization, and sheepmen were assessed the same amount for every $3,500 worth of sheep. The amendment was unanimously adopted. It was seen that to make a fight properly at Washington needed an expense fund. A state organization can take care of local affairs, if properly managed, but it required a national organization to take care of national matters. Mr. Martin says the national association is growing right along, which is evidence that its work is being appreciated.—Denver Times.

Forewarned, Forearmed.

The liability to disease is greatly lessened when the blood is in good condition, and the circulation healthy and vigorous. For then all refuse matter is promptly carried out of the system; otherwise it would rapidly accumulate—fermentation would take place, the blood become polluted and the constitution so weakened that a simple malady might result seriously. A healthy, active circulation means good digestion and strong, healthy nerves.

SSS
As a blood purifier and tonic S. S. S. has no equal. It is the safest and best remedy for old people and children because it contains no minerals, but is made exclusively of roots and herbs. No other remedy so thoroughly and effectually cleanses the blood of impurities. At the same time it builds up the weak and debilitated, and renovates the entire system. It cures permanently all manner of blood and skin troubles.
Mr. E. E. Kelly, of Urbana, O., writes: "I had Bessie on my hands and feet for five years. It would break out in little white pustules, crusts would form and drop off, leaving the skin red and inflamed. The doctors did me no good. I used all the medicated soaps and salves without benefit. S. S. S. cured me, and my skin is as clear and smooth as any one's."
Mrs. Henry Sigsted, of Cape May, N. J., says that twenty-one bottles of S. S. S. cured her of Cancer of the breast. Doctors and friends thought her case hopeless.
Richard T. Gardner, Florence, S. C., suffered for years with Boils. Two bottles of S. S. S. put his blood in good condition and the Boils disappeared.

A POPULAR GOVERNOR.

Governor Otero is Patriotic, Popular in the East, and a Good Story-Teller. The following letter from Mr. J. Mackintosh, the genial manager for the Queen Group Mining company of Kelley, and clipping from the New York Times will explain themselves.
New York, Jan. 29, 1902.
Dear Mr. Drake:
The enclosed, which I cut out of last Sunday's Times, must be of a little interest to yourself or your readers. Besides being a good story teller your plucky little governor is about as popular as he is patriotic, and it must be satisfactory to all who believe in statehood to know that the Governor never misses the chance of getting a word in in its favor.
Yours very truly,
J. MACKINTOSH.

Seated in the café of the Waldorf-Astoria the other evening, a congenial party listened to New Mexico's bright young Governor, Miguel A. Otero, expatiating upon the resources and many attractive features of his Territory. One of the group, a western mining man, asked the Governor if it was not a fact that quite a large proportion of the population were entirely ignorant of the English language and wholly illiterate. This condition the Governor admitted had existed, but the public schools were rapidly improving matters.

"Well," said an army officer, "I am glad to hear that, for I recall an incident which occurred when I was stationed at old Fort Cummings which didn't show the native up in a very attractive light, as to his competence for jury duty. One of our discharged men was celebrating his freedom in Silver City, and got into a row over some women in a dance hall. A man was killed, and the discharged soldier—Simmons by name—was arrested for murder. There was no court being held in Silver City at the time, so Simmons was taken to another district for trial. The jury drawn in the case proved to be all Mexicans. The principal witness was a man named Gallagher, and when the prosecution put him on the stand, Simmon's lawyer said in Spanish to the jury—speaking in an undertone—'You don't want to believe anything this man says; he stole a cow up in Grant county. In his closing argument the lawyer again referred to the cow episode, he having made Gallagher admit it on his cross-examination. The jury took the case, and after a short deliberation brought in a verdict convicting Gallagher of stealing a cow!'—New York Times.

"I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a number of years and have no hesitancy in saying that it is the best remedy for coughs, colds and croup I have ever used in my family. I have not words to express my confidence in this Remedy.—Mrs. J. A. MOORE, North Star, Mich. For sale by A. E. Howell, Socorro; W. M. Borrowdale, Magdalena.
