A REPUBLICAN VICTORY.

The City Election Passes off Quietly, the Democrats Making Only a Feeble Effort to Win.

Tuesday's city election was one of the quietest that Socorro has known in many a day. The Republican ticket was a strong one, as the event well shows. The Democrats, for reasons best known to themselves, held no nominating convention. In fact it was not until late Monday that they decided to put up any ticket at all. The Republican candidates for mayor, clerk, and treasurer were then endorsed and Democratic candidates were named for members of the council and the board of education, from the various wards. Following is the vote by wards, viz:

First ward—For mayor, M. Cooney 77; for clerk, Rob't T. Collins 77; for treasurer, Ricardo Abeyta 76; for the council, H. R. Harris, R., 19, A. C. Torres, D., 56; for the board of education, Misais Baca, R., 52, Ramon Salas, D., 25.

Second ward—For mayor, M. Cooney 55; for clerk, Rob't T. Collins 55; for treasurer, Ricardo Abeyta 55; for the council, C. Cortinas, R., 40, P. N. Yunker, D., 15; for the board of education, Seferino Abeyta, R., 50, Bojesio Pino, D., 5.

Third ward—For mayor, M. Cooney 120; for clerk, Rob't T. Collins 120; for treasurer, Ricardo Abeyta 120; for the council, Abran Abeyta, R., 100, Solomon Baca, D., 19; for the board of education, Remigio Peña, R., 88, Doniciano Torres, D., 32.

Fourth ward—For mayor, M. Cooney 37; for clerk, Rob't T. Collins 37; for treasurer, Ricardo Abeyta 37; for the council, Florentino Gallegos, R., 22, Jesus Martinez, D., 15; for the board of education, Martin Lopez, R., 25, Eliseo Baca, D., 12. Total number of votes cast, 289.

Rathbone Sisters Ball.

The post Lenten dance given by the Rathbone Sisters in the Knights of Pythias hall Tuesday night was a highly successful affair. The attendance was large, the music was good, and all the young people and some of the older ones were in a mood to dance. Those who were not skilled in the art of dancing were provided for in the lodge room where high five was indulged in. The games are said to have been valiently contested. Mrs. Jos. E. Smith and A. D. Coon won first prizes and Miss Lottie Brady and Andy Wickham after a hard struggle carried off consolation prizes.

Work was begun on the Strawberry peak road Monday under the supervision of Messrs. John Greenwald and F. G. Bartlett, who were appointed by the board of county commissioners for that purpose. There is a "jump off" near Strawberry peak over which will cost four or five hundred dollars to grade a road. A part of the cost will be contributed by the county and a part by citizens of Socorro. The road by this route will shorten the distance between Socorro and Magdalena by several miles.
