LIVESTOCK

Kansas City, Monday, May 22, 1916—Cattle prices advanced around 25 cents last week, and closed firm. The supply today is 10,000 head, same as last Monday, and strong conditions are again effective. In addition sellers got a heavy fill on everything, trade was active, and cattle went over the scales carrying the whole fill. The feature today was a train of 26 cars of cattle and hogs from Broken Bow, Nebraska, which made the 370 mile run in 22 hours, and contained steers at $9.65 and $9.85, the latter price top for the day. Bulk of the beef steers range from $8.65 to $9.50, there being no longer anything that can be called cheap. Stockers and feeders held up strong last week, and are firm today, and if there is to be a seasonable break in prices this month there are no signs of it yet. Sales range from $7.50 to $8.75.

Kansas City, Thursday, May 25.—Hogs—receipts, 8,000; market lower. Bulk, $9.60@9.85; heavy, $9.80@9.90; light, $9.50@9.75; pigs, $8.65@9.25.

Cattle—Receipts, 2,000; market is strong. Prime fed steers, $9.80@10.35; western steers, $8.75@10.25; stockers, $7.25@9.00; calves, $6.50@11.00.

THE REASON WHY--

many people never have their share of this world's good things is because they fail to cooperate with their own interests, many of them without thinking to be sure, but never-the-less to their own injury.

For Instance: If you are not patronizing your home bank you are not cooperating with one of your best interests. You surely know that a good safe bank in your community substantially enhances the value of your land. It helps you get a better sale for your cattle and produce by keeping constantly on the alert to bring buyer and seller together to the best advantage. It is not altogether through selfish motives that your home bank solicits your cooperation, but the interests are mutual. We need your patronage and cooperation to increase our strength and ability. You need your home bank at its best strength and ability, for it speaks well for your community, enhances the value of all your property, finances your business in a pinch and keeps the wolf from the door. We need you. You need us. Let's cooperate, we will meet you half way.
