UNION COUNTY BOYS AND GIRLS CLUBS MAKE SUPERB RECORD DURING THE PAST YEAR

The members of the New Mexico Boys and Girls club and their officers have been hard at work all year. The organization, which was founded November 13th, and which has already achieved remarkable success, owes its growth to the many splendid efforts of its members. The club has been granted a lease by the union county association, and the officers are now busy preparing for the new year.

The club will hold its first meeting on January 1st, and the officers have already made arrangements for the new year. The club has already received many requests for membership, and the officers are now busy preparing for the new year.

The club will hold its first meeting on January 1st, and the officers have already made arrangements for the new year. The club has already received many requests for membership, and the officers are now busy preparing for the new year.

SAFETY CHARGED ARRESTS COOKS & GUARD

Some restaurant workers were arrested last week for charging extra money for food and drinks. The workers were found to have charged extra money for food and drinks, and were arrested and charged with robbery.

HOOVER TO SWING BIG STICK ON FOOD MANIP

Violators will be dealt with severely, Hoover said.

WASHINGTON. Nov 26—President Hoover today announced that he would swing a "big stick" on food manipulation, starting within ten days, when he issued four executive orders prohibiting the operation of fraudulent food regulations.

The first order of the new regulations was issued to farmers, and was to be followed by further orders to manufacturers and retailers. The second order was issued to the Secretary of Commerce, and was to be followed by further orders to the Secretary of the Treasury.

The third order was issued to the Secretary of Agriculture, and was to be followed by further orders to the Secretary of the Interior.

The fourth order was issued to the Secretary of War, and was to be followed by further orders to the Secretary of the Navy.

In his message to Congress, President Hoover said:

"In the interest of the public, I shall issue no new regulations whatever. I shall issue no new orders whatever. I shall issue no new bills whatever. I shall issue no new proclamations whatever.

"I shall issue no new proclamations whatever. I shall issue no new bills whatever. I shall issue no new proclamations whatever."

The fourth order was issued to the Secretary of War, and was to be followed by further orders to the Secretary of the Navy.

T. R. "Swing a big stick" on food manipulation, Hoover said.

WASHINGTON, Nov 26—President Hoover today announced that he would swing a "big stick" on food manipulation, starting within ten days, when he issued four executive orders prohibiting the operation of fraudulent food regulations.

WASHINGTON, Nov 26—President Hoover today announced that he would swing a "big stick" on food manipulation, starting within ten days, when he issued four executive orders prohibiting the operation of fraudulent food regulations. The first order of the new regulations was issued to farmers, and was to be followed by further orders to manufacturers and retailers. The second order was issued to the Secretary of Commerce, and was to be followed by further orders to the Secretary of the Treasury.

The third order was issued to the Secretary of Agriculture, and was to be followed by further orders to the Secretary of the Interior.

The fourth order was issued to the Secretary of War, and was to be followed by further orders to the Secretary of the Navy.

In his message to Congress, President Hoover said:

"In the interest of the public, I shall issue no new regulations whatever. I shall issue no new orders whatever. I shall issue no new bills whatever. I shall issue no new proclamations whatever.

"I shall issue no new proclamations whatever. I shall issue no new bills whatever. I shall issue no new proclamations whatever."

The fourth order was issued to the Secretary of War, and was to be followed by further orders to the Secretary of the Navy.

T. R. "Swing a big stick" on food manipulation, Hoover said.

WASHINGTON, Nov 26—President Hoover today announced that he would swing a "big stick" on food manipulation, starting within ten days, when he issued four executive orders prohibiting the operation of fraudulent food regulations. The first order of the new regulations was issued to farmers, and was to be followed by further orders to manufacturers and retailers. The second order was issued to the Secretary of Commerce, and was to be followed by further orders to the Secretary of the Treasury.

The third order was issued to the Secretary of Agriculture, and was to be followed by further orders to the Secretary of the Interior.

The fourth order was issued to the Secretary of War, and was to be followed by further orders to the Secretary of the Navy.

In his message to Congress, President Hoover said:

"In the interest of the public, I shall issue no new regulations whatever. I shall issue no new orders whatever. I shall issue no new bills whatever. I shall issue no new proclamations whatever.

"I shall issue no new proclamations whatever. I shall issue no new bills whatever. I shall issue no new proclamations whatever."

The fourth order was issued to the Secretary of War, and was to be followed by further orders to the Secretary of the Navy.

T. R. "Swing a big stick" on food manipulation, Hoover said.