SATION SPRING
IN COURT ROOM

During the short full term of office for present term of Clayton, the second and last of the six clergymen in the city of Clayton, was ordained and installed on July 1st. The ordination service was held at the church of the city of Clayton, and was attended by a large congregation. The ordination was performed by the Rev. Mr. Pope, who delivered a discourse on the subject of ordination.

TREASURY READY TO FI
NANCE MOVEMENT CROPS

Under the provisions of the Federal Farm and Rurale Credit Act, the Federal Reserve Banks are authorized to purchase, for member banks, eligible commercial paper. The Federal Reserve Bank of Clayton has purchased a large amount of this paper, and it is believed that this purchase will help to finance the movement of crops. The purchase of this paper will also help to finance the movement of the crops, and will enable the government to meet the requirements of the nation.

DEMOCRATS OF GOOD OLD
UNION HOLD CONVENTION

One of the most notable political conventions of the year was held in Clayton, N. M., on the 10th of August. The convention was called to order by the Democratic State Committee of Clayton, and was attended by a large number of delegates from all parts of the state. The convention was held in the Clayton Masonic Temple, and was presided over by the Rev. Mr. Smith, who delivered a discourse on the subject of the convention.

Thursday, September 10th, was the appointed day for the meeting of the Clayton Democratic Convention. The convention was called to order by the Rev. Mr. Smith, who delivered a discourse on the subject of the convention. The convention was attended by a large number of delegates from all parts of the state. The convention was held in the Clayton Masonic Temple, and was presided over by the Rev. Mr. Smith, who delivered a discourse on the subject of the convention.