Caught on the Run
Private Banks had been the most bashful and retiring little man in the army. When women visited the camp he had always fled for shelter and stayed there until after they had left. So it came as a surprise when one of his former companions came across him in civilian garb and was introduced to a large lady girl as Mrs. Banks.

"Well," returned the little man nervously, "it was this way. I never did exactly meet her. She just kinder overtook me."

IT IS THE DUTY OF SCHOOL TEACHERS

To look to the care of their pupils' eyes. Many children seem dull, do not like to study, and are called numskulls.

They Are Unfortunate
In most cases for having some eye defect. Most of them show no other sign of eye trouble, and grow to manhood and womanhood, dull and stupid, never knowing that their eyes alone made them averse to study and activity.

PERICO NEWS ITEMS

We enjoyed our first snow, Nov. 16th. We were all glad to see it. Work on our new school building began last Monday. We are all glad to see this work go on.

Our Sunday School is progress- ing nicely. Bro. Evans preached for us Sunday, the attendance be- ing good.

Our young people gave a hearty "welcome back" to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Zachary, Saturday night, in the form of a charivari. Mrs. Zachary was formerly Miss Bessie Gross, of this community. Mr. Zachary is one of Pennington's well-known young men. They will make their home in Sedan community. The entire community here wishes them much happiness in their new home.

Miss Lois Candill, of Clayton, has returned from her training at St. Mary's hospital, Chicago, and will soon be at her work in Clayton again. She has been spending this week with her sister, Mrs. Floyd Vandruft. We are glad to see her in Union county again.

Our literary society meets every two weeks and our entertainment is the best. Everybody come.

If you want to spend a pleasant and profitable day be sure and be at the school house Thanksgiving Day. We want our entire community to attend our exercises.

NEW HOME
Mr. Hanson passed through the community with his threshing, Sat- urday, on his way to the Paris boys.

Several of our people were visit- ing and trading in Clayton Saturday.

Carl Buskirk has a chronic case of well trouble, and is handling water.

The Community meeting Satur- day night was well attended by ev- eryone present. A lot of good time is reported by all.

The weather has been fine so far for the truck route to school. If the roads are not turned out to pres- ent sand and snowdrifts there will be times when there will be no transportation. We have the sand and are waiting for the snow.

Mr. Will DeWalt has rented the Davis place in the Methodist com- munity for another year.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hopper's baby is quite sick.

REHEARSALS FOR KATCHA-KOO WILL BEGIN SOON.

"Katcha-Koo," a positively up-to- the-minute musical fantasia will be given over about Dec. 11 and 12, at the Central School Auditorium, under the auspices of The American Legion. The Society intends to raise funds for their Memorial building, and the funds accruing from the production of this play will be used to that end. Commit- tees have been formed with Frank O. Blue as general chairman. All in charge are most enthusiastic over the coming event and feel confident that it will be a grand success.

Katcha-Koo is both Oriental and American. It tells an interesting story of an American aviator, who lost in India, masquerades as an Oriental Fakir, and meets with many thrilling adventures. A vein of rich comedy runs thru the piece, and there are novel and brilliant musical and spectacular effects. The patriotic idea predominates through- out and there is a wonderful finale entitled "Liberty's Anthem" in which all the Allied Nations participate.

A professional director will have charge of rehearsals which will begin about Nov. 27th.

RURAL LETTER CARRIERS TO MEET

The Rural Letter Carriers of Pen- non county will meet at the court house in Clayton at 10 a. m., Novem- ber 30th, Thanksgiving Day.

An interesting program has been arranged and we hope to have every carrier of the county present for the occasion.

We also extend a special invita- tion to the patrons of the rural routes and nonusers of the county to meet with us.

Rushed to Death
During the flu epidemic at Camp Bowie base hospital, many of the doctors worked twenty hours a day. One rookie medic had a seventy-five bed ward thrust upon him the first day of his Army career. He struggled valiantly with his profes- sional work, but failed to realize that he was now a soldier.

He forgot the sacred morning re- ports. He forgot to make out the sacred mess regulations. He exasperated everybody. Finally the colonel hauled him to the carpet and demanded:

"Why in the blankety-blankety-blank don't you read your Army regulations?"

The young doctor looked at him in sleepy surprise.

"Army regulations?" he ejaculat- ed. "Good Lord, colonel, I haven't even had time to read the newspa- pers!"

His Early Education
There was recently brought be- fore a police judge in Atlanta a col- ored culprit to whom, among oth- ers, the magistrate put this ques- tion:

"Where were you born?"
"Memphis."
"And were you brought up there?"
"Yes, Yo' Honah, very often."

SOCIETY

PROGRESS CLUB

The Club met at the home of Mrs. Arthur Wooten, Tuesday night, with a goodly number of the girls present. It being a cold night, there were not so many out, but the young ladies are showing a great interest in the work.

The yearly program has been pre- pared and subjects assigned to the different girls. Mrs. Guist will take charge of the music, and it is hoped that all the young ladies interested in music will dig out their musical instruments and make this a real asset to the club. Mrs. Guist is an efficient leader and will make this branch of the Club an uplift to the community. Refreshments were served, which consisted of hot chocolate and angel food cake, which all enjoyed. The hostesses were Helen Pierson and Louva Wiley.

The Current Topic Club met at the home of Mrs. Gill, November 12. The program subject was "Expan- sion." Mrs. Milligan gave a good talk on New Orleans. The ladies are devoting a great deal of their time and energy supplying clothes for the needy school children. Anyone having clothes to give away suit- able to any school children can notify either Mrs. Gill or Mrs. Wooten. Help from outsiders would be greatly appreciated. The next meet- ing will be at Mrs. Haydon's, De- cember first.

M. E. SERVICES
Morning service: "Expressive Re- ligious."
Evening service: "Men Who Miss- ed the Trail."

The Methodist Ladies Aid met at the church, November 22nd, with Mrs. Green and Mrs. Bonjour as hostesses. The meeting was inter- esting and enjoyable.

KILBURN ENTERTAIN
The stay evening of this week the Kilburns entertained the young married folks of the Christian Church at their home.

The young people distended their class last year that the Everyman's Bible class could be organized. They have left the need, however, for reorganization, and altho the Bible class still continues, the young people perfected their reorganization in a short business session held dur- ing the evening, with the following officers elected: E. P. Kilburn, president; Will Spencer, vice pres- ident; Mrs. Tom Bushnell, secretary and treasurer.

This has always been one of the low classes in the Church school, and the new organization is moving rapidly for the honor of being the most progressive in the town or county. The officers will receive the cooperation of every member and with this, they will be able to map out a constructive program without delay.

Preparations were made for an oyster supper to be held Thank-sgiving evening for the members of the class and some of their friends.

Altho the business session re- freshments were served and a de- lightful social half-hour was en- joyed by the young people present.

NEW MEXICO
(By C. Perry, 100 San Juan St., Ala- mosa, Colo.)

Miles of prairie, stretching far, cross-crossed by winding trails; A lonely cabin like a star, Around which the bleak wind walls.

This is New Mexico, Against the horizon dimly blue. The distant hills gleam cold The sun now peeping into view. Retouches all with gold. Out in New Mexico.

Mirage now of water clear, With strange birds flying o'er, Which now are seen, then disappear, This strange New Mexico, And air of mystery over all.

But to the heart it clings, And to the soul it seems to bring, While sweet memories it brings, Wondrous New Mexico.

TUCUMCARI MAY CHANGE METHOD OF GOVERNMENT

Tucumcari, N. M., Nov. 18.—A peti- tion has been presented to the city council asking that an election be called to determine if Tucumcari wishes to go under the re-commission form of government. The council has referred the petition to the city attorney to determine if the requi- site number of signatures was at- tached to the petition. The law re- quires 15 per cent of the voters at the last election. The petition car- ries 175 names.

The council has restored to all city officials except the city clerk the salaries they enjoyed up until last August when a reduction of $50 was made in each case. Fred Groves, city marshal, has tendered his resignation after six years of service. Groves states that the city mayor has asked for his resignation. The Tucumcari News was unable to verify the statement, as the city officials refused to speak for publi- cation. Mack Johnson, formerly El Paso and Southwestern railroad de- tective, has been appointed to suc- ceed Groves.
